WHITE HOUSE IS TORN UP BY REPAIRING CREWS

Impossible to Entertain Peace Commission at Capital Until Autumn Opens.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)

Washington, July 29.—The White House is still in the hands of painters, carpenters, paperers and general decorators. If the czar himself should come to Washington he would have to put up at a hotel. Mrs. Roosevelt may come here for a few days early in August, when a party of friends go down to their new summer home in Virginia for a week or 10 days' vacation while the president is away making speeches.

Officialdom is inclined to be disappointed at the size of the peace commission, but it makes up in quality what it lacks in numbers. Count Muravieff is a much more exalted personage than M. Melidoff, who was at first mentioned, and there is a suggestion that after the preliminaries are arranged, quite a concourse of celebrities will arrive to aid in drawing up the treaty.

Washington will see but little of the commissioners during the heated term, although, of course, they will come here and leave their cards on such cabinet officers and ambassadors who happen to be here during the dog days. The early autumn session will open with a burst of glory with the grand high commissioners as the main attraction.

Theodore Roosevelt is certainly possessed of a grim sense of humor and has never yet displayed a brighter bit of it than by the funny little order he issued on the first of this month, that hereafter promotion in the army and navy is to be by merit alone; avaunt with political pull. Was not it a lucky escape for Major-General Fred C. Ainsworth, Major-General Leonard G. Wood, Brigadier-General Crozier and myriads of others in the army register who are beneficiaries of political preferment?

Would Dr. Leonard Wood been jumped 800 numbers to be a major-genral had this humorous order been in force at the time? What has Ainsworth ever done to merit the rank that was held by such men as Grant, Sherman, Lee and others?

STABBED TO DEATH IN ROW IN HARNEY COUNTY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Burns, Or., July 29.—Fred Andrews, foreman of the White Horse ranch and former proprietor of the Burns hotel here was killed in a saloon row at Wild Horse, a small settlement 100 miles of Burns in Harney county, near the Nevada line, Tuesday evening, by one of his ranch hands, whose name is unknown. Poor food in the chuck wagon was the cause of a quarrel which arose between Andrews and two of his employes, one of whom is named Foster, and the other is the murderer. While fighting with Foster, Andrews was stabbed in the back with a pocket-knife by his other opponent and died within half an hour. A posse pursued the murderer and caught him 40 miles out. He was brought to jail here, where he is held for murder. The murderer is locally known as "Red."

Naked Wild Man Caught.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Tacoma, Wash., July 29.—William Hines, an insane "wild" man was found lying nude across the railroad track near Crocker yesterday. He refused to get off when the engine whistled and the train was stopped. The crew carried Hines from the track and notified the constable at Crocker, who arrested the lunatic. He refused to talk and was committed to the asylum.

AT THE THEATRES.

Comedy at the Marquam.

"I. O. U.," the musical-comedy burlesque, will be the attraction at the Marquam Grand theatre, on Morrison between Sixth and Seventh streets, tonight at 8:30 o'clock. This laughable skit is presented by the German comedians, Kolb and Dill, together with a company of 40 people. "I. O. U.," which has comedy, catchy music and pretty girls, will be the bill next week at popular prices.

Fine Bill at Cool Grand.

Sunday you will want to go somewhere to amuse yourself. There is fine vaudeville at the Grand and the house is comfortable. Castellat and Hall have a bright farce, Martine and Martine are among the best sketch artists, the Herschorns are clever Tyrolean warblers, Cecile Hobson is an operatic soprano of ability, and the rest of the bill is strictly up to the Grand's standard of excellence.

"In Tennessee."

Those who have not witnessed "In Tennessee" at the Lyric should not fail to avail themselves of the last opportunity, tonight and tomorrow. The play is intensely interesting and contains many thrilling situations as well as plenty of comedy. "In Tennessee" has been one of the Lyric's greatest successes.

At the Baker.

The all-star bill at the Baker is headed by J. K. Emmett and company, who have the best sketch ever seen in a local vaudeville house. Ted McManus and his wonderful trained canine Teddy are features. Stanley and Carlyle, Larry Sutton, Roy McBrain and the Bakerograph complete the all-star ollo of novelties. Next week Harvey and Boyd's minstrels.

At the Star.

O'Brien, Mann and Franks are the feature attractions at the Star and head a very good bill. The clever Anderson children have a very good specialty and sing very sweetly. The Halls, Charles Patterson, Quinlan and Howard, Joseph Bonner and the Staroscope complete the bill.

"Naughty Anthony."

The final performances of "Naughty Anthony" at the Belasco theatre will be given tonight and tomorrow afternoon and night. The new bill, beginning Monday night, will be "Carmen."

GONORRHOEA, GLEET, SYPHILIS, HYDROCELE, VARICOCELE, LOSS OF MANHOOD, RHEUMATISM, BOREMA, ASTHMA and SKIN DISEASES. We want every man afflicted with the above diseases to honestly investigate our special system of treatment. We invite in particular all who have treated elsewhere without success, all whose cases have been abandoned by family physicians and so-called "SPECIALISTS," all whose troubles have been aggravated and made worse by the use of BELTS, FREE SAMPLES, TRIAL TREATMENTS and so-called SPECIFICS. We will explain to you why such treatment has failed to cure you, and will demonstrate to your entire satisfaction that we can cure you safely, quickly and permanently. Our counsel will cost nothing, and we will do by you as we would wish you to do by us if our cases were reversed. Write for our home treatment if you cannot call.
