

MRS. HIDDEN SURE SHE WILL WIN

Expect Success in Her Appeal From Vancouver Church's Decree of Expulsion.

BLAMES ARNOLD WHO WAS HER PROSECUTOR

Pastor Says Majority Is With Him—Attorney Arnold Says Mrs. Hidden Persisted in Trying to Dominate All Church Affairs.

In the Methodist church of Vancouver there is a strife. It is a war of many against a few, but the few are supported by a woman—there are no signs of capitulation.

Many members fear disruption of the church, many declare the strife must be carried to an end, that disturbers and agitators must be excluded. To members of the church and those who are interested in the lists, the strife is one of earnest, paramount, absorbing importance.

There are various and endless accounts of the beginning of the struggle. Some say it was precipitated by the ambitions of Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden, who believes in women's suffrage.

Others assert that Mrs. Hidden insisted on being a dominant factor in the deliberations of the congregation; that her efforts to dictate and take the leading part for many years have finally caused a rebellion.

Mrs. Hidden blames Arnold. Mrs. Hidden insists that it is neither she nor the pastor, Rev. Thomas E. Elliott, who is the cause of the struggle. She insists that it is the result of a quarrel between herself and Attorney H. W. Arnold, who conducted the prosecution against her at the recent trial in which she was found guilty and sentenced to expulsion from the church.

However, she has given notice of appeal. She says the quarrel began eight years ago and that she has figured prominently up to this time, has really very little to do with the trouble.

The outbreak was precipitated by the presentation to the pastor of a petition asking for the expulsion of Mrs. Hidden. The petition recited that she was a mischief-maker and that she was the cause of all the dissensions in the church. It is said to have been signed by the members.

On its receipt the pastor took the proper steps for a hearing of the case and the trial followed. It was charged that Mrs. Hidden had accused the pastor of being more of a Unitarian than a Methodist and that she had accused him of lying. Great was the surprise of many when she entered a plea of guilty and put it up to the pastor to prove that he wasn't a liar and that he wasn't more of a Unitarian than a Methodist.

She admitted all the charges and defied him to prove that they were untrue. A jury of members of the church returned a verdict against her. Her appeal from its decision will probably be heard during August. The presiding elder of the district will preside over the sessions.

What the Charges Are.

First—That she said Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden is guilty of the offense of lying and bearing false witness:

1. In that, on or about March 9, 1905, she falsely quoted Thomas E. Elliott, pastor of the church, as saying: "I do not care whether you believe in the statement of Jesus Christ or not."

2. In that, on June 27, 1905, she falsely made the same statement in the presence of and to the undersigned and to others, on or about March 9, 1905, she falsely quoted Thomas E. Elliott, pastor of the church, as saying: "I do not care whether you believe in the statement of Jesus Christ or not."

3. In that, on or about March 9, 1905, she wrongfully and slanderously stated to the undersigned and to others, in reference to the said pastor, Thomas E. Elliott, "He has lied from the pulpit and he knows he has lied."

4. It is that, on different occasions and to different persons, some of whom are not members of this church, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the undersigned, she falsely and slanderously committed in the city of Vancouver, county of Clatsop, state of Washington, and elsewhere, against the peace and dignity of the First Methodist church of the city of Vancouver, and the membership thereof, in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures:

First—That each and every offense set out and contained in the above and foregoing charges and specifications was falsely, wrongfully and slanderously committed in the city of Vancouver, county of Clatsop, state of Washington, and elsewhere, against the peace and dignity of the First Methodist church of the city of Vancouver, and the membership thereof, in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures.

Second—That each and every offense set out and contained in the above and foregoing charges and specifications was committed in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures.

Third—That each and every offense set out and contained in the above and foregoing charges and specifications was committed in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures.

Fourth—That each and every offense set out and contained in the above and foregoing charges and specifications was committed in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures.

Fifth—That each and every offense set out and contained in the above and foregoing charges and specifications was committed in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures.

Sixth—That each and every offense set out and contained in the above and foregoing charges and specifications was committed in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures.

Seventh—That each and every offense set out and contained in the above and foregoing charges and specifications was committed in violation of the rules, regulations and discipline of the said Methodist church, and contrary to the teachings of the Scriptures.

PORTLAND MAN MEETS DEATH IN LOGGING CAMP

Crushed between logs projecting from rear cars of two trains, Charles G. Black, a logger, aged 30 years, met with death in a horrible form yesterday morning.

Black was crushed at the hip and lived for four hours before death came. The victim of the accident was employed as a logger in a camp at Buffalo, Clatsop county, Washington. His wife and family live in this city and the body was brought here yesterday afternoon on the steamer Hassalo.

The accident occurred between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning. Black stood at the end of a train from which projected some logs, and was signaling. It is claimed, when without the bell being rung, another train, from the rear car of which logs also projected, was backed into him. He was crushed between two logs and in this position he was held until his screams apprised his fellow workmen of what had happened.

One train was then drawn ahead and he dropped to the ground. The body was summoned and the injured man was taken aboard the steamer here. He died about 12:30 o'clock, en route here. The steamer arrived at 4:10 o'clock and the body was taken to Coroner Finley's undertaking room.

CLARK AND KENTUCKY GIVEN DAY AT FAIR
Joint exercises in honor of William Clark and Kentucky day at the Lewis and Clark exposition will be held at the Auditorium August 1. The exercises will be held at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Colonel L. C. Garrigus will make the opening address and will preside in his capacity as vice-president for Kentucky of the Dixie society of Oregon. President Goods will respond in behalf of the exposition. Miss Caroline Towse, a prominent teacher of Chicago and a descendant of Captain Meriwether Clark, will speak on "Vacation Schools."

Miss Ethel Rhea will sing "My Old Kentucky Home," and Mrs. Sylvia W. McGuire will give a recitation in negro dialect. An address will be delivered by Albert G. Clark, a descendant of William Clark. A number of prominent Kentuckians will also speak. Music will be furnished by the Administration band. Among the visitors on that day will be Mrs. Jennie E. McNaught of Hermiston, Oregon, who is also a descendant of Captain Clark.

A feature of interest will be the presence of Amos M. Green, a native of Kentucky, 99 years old. He is now a resident of Montana and is visiting in Portland.

BENNINGTON TO BE SENT TO MARE ISLAND
(Journal Special Service.)
San Diego, July 29.—It has been decided by the naval authorities that the Bennington shall be sent to Mare Island for repairs. Her hull is to be taken out. The transport Lawton or Bolace will be sent here to remove the convalescents to Mare Island. No new deaths are reported today.

CUT OUT THE WASTE LEAK BY CUTTING YOUR FEED

Here Are Some Cutters That Will Last a Lifetime and Make Money For You Every Day.

Mitchell's Patent Lever Cutter—Has but one bolt, making it simplest and easiest to adjust, and it's impossible for the knife lever to shift out of line with throat plates when this bolt is tightened. Circular knife makes it cut easily. It's adjustable to any length of cut desired.

ALFIE HARD POWER CUTTER—Low priced, strong and easy to operate. Either one or two 11-inch knives. Feed rolls that yield to accommodate amount of matter passing through them. Gives a good, clean cut in five sizes—5-16, 1/4, 3/8, 1/2 and 11/16-inch. The knives and shear plates are both adjustable, and in every way it's far superior to any spiral cutter made.

SAWNEY FOOT CUTTER—Cut them up in nice, fine shavings; don't haggle and squeeze the juice out of the feed. It's indispensable to the Dairymen and Foultryman.
