VOLO THE VOLITANT MISSES HIS LEAP FOR LIFE

Barnum's Daredevil Bike Rider Has Narrow Escape From Death in Helena.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Helena, Mont., Aug. 10.—"Volo the Volitant," who makes the "leap for life" with Barnum & Bailey's circus, had a narrow escape from death in this city last night while performing his feat. As it was, he was rendered unconscious for half an hour.

When he revived he gamely announced that he would be on hand tomorrow for the repetition of his act, which consists of riding down a steep incline on a bike. At the bottom there is a sharp upturn, which forces the wheel to fly through space for a distance of 30 feet to a receiving stand. Volo's wheel failed to strike the center of this stand, hitting its edge, and throwing the wheel and rider to the ground.

Several persons fainted, but Volo's wife, who makes the "dip of death" in an automobile, continued the performance, after having been informed that her husband would recover. Volo's name is Thomas Butler. He was taken west in the circus hospital.

ACTING MAYOR OF NEW YORK SUED FOR DIVORCE

Wife Asks Separation From Charles V. Fornes, President Board of Aldermen.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Charles V. Fornes, wife of the president of the board of aldermen and acting mayor of the city, has brought suit against her husband for a separation, on the grounds of desertion, asking an allowance of $5,000 a year. The plaintiff is now a resident of Poultney, Rutland county, Vermont, and the suit is brought in that state. Papers were served on Fornes when he stepped off the steamer on his return from Europe a short time ago.

The case will come to trial in September. It is understood that Fornes will fight it. Mr. and Mrs. Fornes were married six years ago, and have lived together for four or five years. Mrs. Fornes was a Miss Elisler, sister of Effie Elisler, the actress, and her father was for many years a salesman and an employe of her husband in the woolen goods business.

Fornes was 55 years old, a bachelor, and his bride 32 years old when they were married. They have no children. According to statements of close personal friends of the acting mayor, he never had a quarrel with his wife, and paid all expenses. These friends say that Mrs. Fornes has social ambitions.

FRESH FIND OF RUINS OF CLIFF DWELLERS

(Journal Special Service.)

Santa Fe, Aug. 10.—The ruins of a communal building containing 1,500 rooms, never before visited by white men, has been discovered 30 miles west of Santa Fe, and half a mile south of the famous stone lions of Cochita. The discovery was made by A. B. Chaycroft of Santa Fe, who is out with Edgar L. Hewitt of the ethnological bureau taking photographs of the thousands of cliff and cave dwellings found west of the city, on the proposed Paparito Cliff-dwellers' reserve.

The ruins are perched on a high mesa, which is an ancient burial ground. In the ancient reservoir near the building a cedar tree over five feet in diameter was found growing. Professor Hewitt will begin the work of excavation next week. The ruins are the largest of the 20,000 communal cave dwellings in the reserve.

CENTENNIAL MILL BUYS TACOMA GRAIN COMPANY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 10.—The Centennial Mill company of Seattle has purchased the controlling interest of the Tacoma Grain company, including its 40 elevators on the line of the Northern Pacific, between Tacoma and Spokane, and its flourmill at Tacoma, for $300,000. The company will be operated independent from the Centennial, but on a friendly basis.

GASOLINE MAIL CARS ON HARRIMAN SYSTEM

(Journal Special Service.)

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 10.—Gasoline mail cars for service on the branch lines of the Union Pacific are under contemplation. Already the cars are being built in the shops here for freight and passenger service, and when these go into commission, if the present plans are carried out, the government will also put into service mail cars with at least 15 feet space for clerks. Rapid service will be instituted to take the place of that now carried by passenger and freight trains, making it possible to double the daily delivery of newspapers and letters to towns now poorly served.

The Union Pacific motor car, which was recently returned from Portland, will go into service as soon as minor repairs are completed on the Kearney division of the Callaway branch, 65 miles long, making two trips daily.
