COUNCIL READY TO BATTLE MONDAY

Three-Sided Contest Imminent at St. Johns in Filling Edwards' Place.

SALOON ISSUE IS THE CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE

Citizens and Local Paper Condemn So-Called Childish Bickering of Aldermen and It Seems Probable Two Places Will Be Licensed.

The east side office of The Journal is in the store of Mrs. F. W. McKinney, 300 East Morrison street. Telephone East 278.

Another of the struggles which have made the various St. Johns councils famous will probably take place Monday night when the council will endeavor to select a man for the place recently filled by C. D. Edwards. Mayor King has his idea of a man for the job; the three members who supported the contention of Mr. Edwards have another plan, and the remaining three councilmen, who held with Mayor King in naming Edwards, will probably have their views on the subject. The mayor is generally reported to favor the selection of a retired business man of the place who has been more or less closely associated with the Monahan faction that held the reins of power during the previous administration, and as the selection of any one who belonged to a former administration would be distasteful to the great majority of the present councilmen, it is likely that a three-cornered fight will be seen Monday evening and a drawn contest similar to that which ensued over the selection of a marshal and the expulsion of Mr. Edwards is probable.

But whoever is chosen to fill the place it is practically certain that he will favor the licensing of saloons. Three of the councilmen stand pat on this platform and the mayor, while he has not been declaring himself, is said by his closest friends to favor the relief of the present financial stringency by any lawful means. With four councilmen for saloons and the mayor willing it is probable that the result of the last two elections will be nullified. Not more than two saloons will be admitted, and these will pay the highest license fee in the state. Several Portland men are willing to pay from $1,000 to $1,500 a year should they be given assurance that only two saloons would be admitted.

It is certain that Mr. Edwards meant his last resignation, even though it was not signed, and he has withdrawn as a factor in the struggle. Meanwhile the contest that arises in the council over practically every important measure has stirred to wrath the citizens, who want results, and from the smallest taxpayer to the head of the largest corporation dissatisfaction is expressed. This week the St. Johns Review in a leading editorial invited the warring councilmen to forget their private battles and to quit the "childish" playing with things of importance, and this is apparently but an echo of the popular complaint.

BUILD HANDSOME CHURCH.

University Park Methodist Church is to be a large Old Building. One of the handsomest suburban Methodist churches will be that at University Park which will be completed next month and formally dedicated by Bishop David H. Moore. During his pastorate Rev. D. A. Watters has greatly increased the membership of the congregation, and so material was this that the old building would not seat the regular audiences. Money was generously subscribed by leading Methodists of the city and suburb and work was commenced several months ago on the edifice. At this time more than $4,000 has been spent in remodeling the building and practically a new church has been built. The main room will seat 500 people, and with the new furniture to be installed the cost of the improvement made this year will reach $5,000.

CARS HUNG UP.

Albino Motorcars Here Day of Storm and Reported Accidents. At noon the heaviest freight car of the Portland Consolidated company jumped the track on the steel bridge, jumped itself across the structure so that cars could use neither track and so that the draw could not be swung. While trying to get up additional power the trolley went astray in the iron work of the bridge, a short circuit was formed and with a cyclonic roar and a burst of flames that sent sparks flying for 20 feet the electricity played with the bridge and trolley pole until the iron was red hot. After an hour's work the car was set on the track and the motor-men started on the task of catching up with their schedule.

LOOKS LIKE A CITY.

Business Street of St. Johns is Greatly Improved. Jersey street, the business thoroughfare of St. Johns, is rapidly assuming a metropolitan appearance. Until recently no street improvement work had been done in the place, and the roads wandered at their own sweet will without even a sidewalk to hold them. The business men agreed to stand the cost of improving Jersey street and for several weeks the work has been carried

ALL OVER FEW PEACHES.

Woman Perhaps Disabled for Life in Quarrel Over Green Fruit. J. L. Patterson of Woodstock will answer a serious charge in Judge Seton's court on the east side September 2. It is alleged that Patterson in a neighborhood quarrel forgot his respect for women and assaulted Mrs. Sophia Witzel, injuring her so seriously that she will be helpless for several weeks and perhaps permanently disabled. The dispute arose over a small peach tree which grew in the back yard used by both families. The contest as to who owned the tree was settled by the fact that the three dozen green peaches led to hot words between Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Witzel, which quarrel was later taken up by the husband of the former woman.

THE AMOUNT WE EAT.

We live not by the quality we eat, but by the variety, but by what the system can utilize. No matter how good or plentiful your food is, it starves the system unless your digestion is good. So make certain that your food is properly digested by taking a dose of Green's August Flower before or after meals. It will not only aid digestion, it will stir the liver to regular action, sweeten the stomach and prevent constipation. Trial bottle, 25c. Big bottle, 50c. At all drug stores. Get Green's Almanac.

on. The street has been graded to a level several feet below the old one and the small curves and angles have been straightened out, the car tracks have been relaid and macadam work is well advanced. Broad plank sidewalks with plank curbs have been built, and St. Johns has for a business street a broad slightly-avenue, wider than most of the city's thoroughfares and level as a floor. Work of a similar nature is being carried on in other parts of the town and other contracts will be let, as the property-owners are ready to contribute their share of the expense whenever the council secures funds to pay for the survey of the streets and the advertising bills.

AT THE THEATRES.

Farewell Performance Tonight.

The farewell performance of the favorites, Kolb and Hill, will be given tonight at the Marquam Grand theatre on Morrison street, between Sixth and Seventh. These German comedians and their excellent company of 40 people will present two musical-comedy farces, "The Skindicate" and "The Kindergarten," which are filled with laughter and catchy music. Popular prices prevail. The sale at the box office in the evening is the largest the Marquam has ever had.

McEwen at the Marquam.

Seats are selling for the world's greatest hypnotist, mind reader and entertainer, McEwen, who will be at the Marquam Grand theatre all next week, beginning Monday. Popular prices will prevail.

At the Lyric.

"The Love That Wins" has but one more day to run. It has been a success from the first and many have been turned away slightly who have been unable to gain admission. Next week "The Siege of the Alamo." Don't forget the grand testimonial benefit to Ella Wilson at the Baker Monday night. Admission 20 cents for reserved seats.

Record Breaking "Audrey."

"Audrey" will probably break the record of the Bolshoi theatre for the week's attendance. Again last night the house was crowded. There will be performances of the romance tonight and tomorrow afternoon and night. The succeeding bill Monday evening will be Clyde Fitch's "The Girl and the Judge."

At the Baker.

There remain but two more opportunities of witnessing the all-star program of the Baker this week. Leon Bonomo, Barney's trained animal, Francis and Francis, Guyton Brown, J. H. Stenhold, Louis Haysley in person
