Next week they go south to Los Angeles, where Miss Shaw appears in the Venice Chautauqua. Miss Shaw then goes to summer assemblies in other states, not reaching home until about the 1st of September.

BOOKS

UBSIAN LITERATURE"

Russian Writers of today, and master also in English, his adopted tongue, occupies an unique position. He has been for many years an intermediary, as it were, between Russian and English thinkers. Nothing he has done, in this character, is so important as his "Russian Literature," just brought out by McClure-Phillips. Its sub-title is "Ideals and Resilities," which indicates the viewpoint adopted by the author.

As a nation's spirit is embodied in its literature, this volume is sure to lead to a much closer understanding of the Russian people than English readers have yet been able to achieve.

Kropotkin begins at the very origin of his country's literature in folklore and mythology, and follows its development down to the present day; treating it from the personal point of view, and laying stress upon such authors as Pushkin Gogol, Dostolevski, Tourgeniff, etc. He gives copious extracts from many masterpieces that have not been translated into English. The chapters of the book were delivered as lectures before the Lowell Institute of Boston.

"The Sunset Trail"—By Alfred Henry historic landmarks of America has been to Miss Anthony and Miss Shaw. It is received the local wave Miss Anthony. Miss Shaw, largent and Miss Mary S. Anthony, are ware from 3 to 5, and in that more than 1,500 people were presented in the country. Particularly the sections in the revolutionary war, is syming a public meeting will be a country, particularly the sections involved in the revolutionary war, is studded with monuments, statues and her party and Miss Shaw is entertained at the Metropole in and by Mrs. Emma Shafter Howard. Howard is tircless in her efforts of the country that Mrs. White has entertained at the Metropole in high by Mrs. Emma Shafter Howard. Howard is tircless in her efforts ure for women workers on land me recognition which men workers on land me recognition which men workers after the country must be supposed to learn of her withdrawal from that magazine and they will be some that individuals and as organizations. Mount vernon was rescued, restored and appear the initial number of the Greater West, published and edited by Mrs. White.

It is the intention of the editor to make it a magazine of art and literature, whose interest will lie mainly between the Missisppi river and the Pacific constitutes and the work of the American shought the efforts.

Through the efforts of women many patriotic spots have been preserved. The greater west.

Through the efforts of women many patriotic spots have been preserved. The greater west.

Through the efforts of women many patriotic spots have been preserved. The greater west.

Through the efforts of women many patriotic spots have been preserved. The greater west.

Through the efforts of women many patriotic spots have been preserved. The greater west.

Through the efforts of women many patriotic spots have been preserved. The greater west.

Through the efforts of women many patriotic spots have been preserved. The greater west.

The Alamo by Miss Clars Driscoll. The place where Texas fought so valiantly for her freedom from that monders of the Gira th for her freedom from Mexico was to have been rased and a modern hotel rected, which no doubt would have attracted to itself patronage on account of its historic site, when Miss Driscoll repped in and paid $75,000 for the priviege of restoring it and keeping it as a glorious landmark in Texas' history. It is said she will pay fully the amount of the purchase price to put it in the condition it was when Davy Crockett defended it from the overpowering numbers of Santa Ana.

Several places in Oregon are looked stepped in and paid $70,000 for the privi-lege of restoring it and keeping it as a glorious landmark in Texas' history. It is said she will pay fully the amount of the purchase price to put it in the con-dition it was when Davy Crockett de-fended it from the overpowering num-bers of Sants Ans.

In Honors, Not in Brain

Mrs. White's New Art

dominated by European influences and pollea-dotted with many a whita man's town long years before Salem went hanging her witches, or Pocahontas interfered to save Captain Smith **

There was a beaver day, a buffalo day; and covering both the beaver and the buffalo days there was also a trader day with the Banta Fe and Oregon trails. On the heels of these came the catile day, and the day of the herds, with the sense of a romance, but a chain of short attories whose leading characters hold them together as one, and it is safe to say, it is one of the most faithful portrayals of the cowboy days of Dodge.

Deallala, Cheyenne and on down into Arisona, that has vere been written. It is not written in the "dime novel" style, for any one who has read Mr. Lewis other books would know how impossible it would be for him to write in that way, hut it simply relates in that way, in the sungiclous manipulation of a deck or cards. In the telling of these adventures of his companions in that hair stoical haif-humorous way in which the cuspiclous manipulation of a deck or cards. In the telling of these adventures the author has avoided the bruttil, as indeed there was very thick of the prutal in the way men went about enforcing their code of morals, which in a way was necessary and was done with the prutal in the way men went about enforcing their code of morals, which in a way was necessary and was done with the prutal in the way men went about enforcing their code of morals, which in a way was necessary and was done with the prutal in the way men went about enforcing their code of morals, which in a way was necessary and was done with the prutal in the way men went about enforcing their code of morals, which in a way was necessary and weak done with the prutal in the way men went about enforcing their code of morals, whi "Duncan Polite"—By Marion Keith.
The author has managed to make a very good story, for all a pathetic one, out of the iron-bound faith and strong religious prejudices of the Scotch-Canadians. The preacher of today has liftle place among these staunch, narrow but Godly people, and the coming generations who have broken away and want the merriments of youth, the dancing and music and all the things that make life bright and gay are as thorns in the flesh of those consecrated spirits, who threaten with destruction the church organ and all modern innovations. The book takes its name from the dear, consecrated soul who sacrificed his life that the rules laid down by his father might be kept intact, but he was sorely divided between his faith and his dawning conviction that youth must have laughter, amusement and fun.

Miss Keith has drawn her characters well, and while the minor key prevails, there is a spice of humor well concealed.

To people familiar with the type of "Shakespeare's Christmas"—By A. T. Quiller-Couch ("Q."). In this new volume of tales there is a strange comingling of tragedy and of grim humor, of romantic adventure and of rare fun. The first story which gives the title to the volume evokes the London of the days when Burbage played. The second is a humorous yarn of the fisher folk of Cornwall. Other deals with highwaymen and with spies of the Spanish way, alike in their cunning craftinese and in their ingenuity of device.

The names of the other six stories are: "Te Sexes Give Eur," "Captain Wyvern's

Rain and Fog Fails to Cause Gloomy Feeling at Coast.

MANY PORTLANDERS VISIT THE SEASHORE

Pishermen Have Good Success in Landing Pinny Tribe and All Cottages and Hotels Show Many Persons Are Taking Outing.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seaside, Or., Aug. 19.—Rain and fog during the past week does not seem to dampen the spirits of the visitors to the beach. Bathing is still indulged in by many and fishermen have good sucby many and fishermen have good success.

More Portland people are in town than usual during this season and hotel registers show names of many prominent Portlanders.

Among those at the beach are:

Mr. J. W. Newkirk, cashler of the First National bank, who spent Sunday at Kinnikinic lodge.

Mf. Monte Latz is visiting his mother, Mrs. Latz, at her cottage.

Miss Anna Sherlock is the guest of Mrs. Otto Breyman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lindsey of Boise, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey of Gresham are spending a week at Seaside.

of Gresham are spending a week at Seaside.

Dr. and Mrs. Bell return to Portland during the week after a pleasant stay at their cottage.

Thomas L. Martin and J. A. Meyers return to Portland to take another peep at the exposition before returning to their homes at Boise, Idaho.

County Superintendent R. F. Robinson, accompanied by his wife and son, were at Seaside during the week.

H. W. Behnke has been enjoying an outing at Seaside.

An Idaho delegation visited the town
Thursday.

Thursday.
Mrs. S. H. Maddock is the guest of Mrs. Howe.

Rev. and Mrs. Marcotte and daughter, Mrs. Harrist Marcotte, and Mr. and Mrs. Osbourne are the guests of Mrs. Blaine R. Smith.

A charming bonfire Party was given last Saturday evening by Mrs. John Metager in honor of the Misses Ross. The party assembled on the beach near the Necanicum and built a fire of driftwood. The evening was pleasantly spent with songs and stories. Toasted marshmallows and nuts were served. Those present were: The Misses Janie and Lillie Ross, Pearl Lindsey, Mrs. George Kinney, Mrs. Carison, Miss Middred

Here are three attractive "Between-Seasons" Specials. Not and ends" either-but new, clean goods. We've made these reduce tions just to be busy the fore part of the week.

SPECIAL

REGULAR PRICE, $13.50

Five Shelf Book Cases

We've always sold this Bookcase at $3.50_that's a fair price for it, too. But for the next three days you can have one at almost cost. It stands 3 feet 3 inches high, is 2 feet 3 inches wide and has five deep shelves and brass curtain rod. Choice of golden or weathered finish.

$2.40 Special  $2.40 $7.25 Special  $7.25

MISSION DINING TABLE, with square top and five square legs. Built of se-lected ash with nice, smooth finish and carefully joined and fitted. Extends to six feet with well fitting leaves and easy running slides. Finished in weathered oak.

Sells regularly for $10.00.,

FIRST TAYLOR YOU MONE

FIRST TAYLO

Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter, accompanied by their son, Miles, and daughter, Gladys, are at Camp McFarland.

Mrs. Frank McFarland made a trip to Portland this week.

Wilson Miller visited Camp McFarland this week.

Mrs. A. R. Middleton and Mrs. A. M. Klein of Portland are at Seaside for an outing.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Brown of Portland have taken the Webb cottage. Dr. and Mrs. Lindsey, Mrs. Brown's parents, are visiting at the Webb-cottage. Mrs. and Mrs. Davies, of the St. Charles hotel, are at the Davies cottage. Mrs. McDonald of Portland is visiting at her cottage.

A jolly party of Vancouver people assembled at a housewarming at Mr. Eichenlobe's new cottage. Every one reports a jolly time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Frakes of Portland

Eichenlobe's new cottage. Every one reports a jolly time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Frakes of Portland are camping near the Colonial.

Portland guests at the hotels are:

At the Moore.

Laura Dunne, R. A. Gray, Miss Anita Teel, W., J. Earlokson, J. L. D. Bevoise, Mrs. Wilber E. Coman and son, Mrs. Frank Ransom and child, Mrs. Lou Darling, Job Brockman, Miss Ellen Low Mills, Lewis Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Good. T. Beverly Keins, Jr., Miss Ray Church, Mrs. Ida Church, Mrs. J. N. Teal, O. M. Smith, M. E. Heath, Miss Burns, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Flanders, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley, Miss Sara' Lewis, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. M. J. Burns, F. P. Russell, H. E. Magre, Charles J. Gray, Mrs. S. Bullock, Master E. L. T. Hlyth, Miss L. Thomas, Arthur De Vore, Mrs. George Bronaugh, Mrs. Jerry Bronaugh, W. C. Shrauer, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Perkins, Charles J. Gray, Miss Rose Bloch-Bauer, Helena Humason, Sam Mountain, Louise Mountain, Eleanor L. Church, Edith L. Huson, L. Seston Taylor, J. F. Daly, Miss Bellinger, G. W. Enis and family, George Hutcheson, N. G. Hufford, Dr. J. A. Rawles, Mark O'Nelli and family. P. H. Coffey, H. O. Bargent, B. F. Holman, J. B. Stubbs, Anna O'Brien, W. C. Noon, Jr., J. B. C. Lockwood, Scott Kent, N. J. Young, C. C. Hughes, George H. Hills, Lloyd R. Smith, George A. Warren, P. G. Wascher, F. Dresser, H. W. Hogue, Myrtic Clarke, Mollie Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Marshal, P. V. Cooper, R. W. Jenkins, Miss Charlotte Reed, S. R. Moren, Miss Amy Heitshen, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth, T. M. Dunn, Mrs. J. D. Tresham, Mrs. Wethered, Chester G. Murphy, D. F. Honeyman, R. I. Glisan, Peter Kerr, Nellie C. Hull, Jenzie Ford, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Tresham, Mrs. Wethered, Chester G. Murphy, D. F. Honeyman, R. I. Glisan, Peter Kerr, Nellie C. Hull, Jenzie Ford, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clodfelder, W. C. Knighton, Mr.

Chapman returned to Gresham after a pleasant outing at Seaside.

Master John Simpson is at Hemlock Hill cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Knudson and Miss Stella Linehan are visiting Mrs. Blaine R. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Potter, accompanied by their son, Miles, and daughter. Gladys, are at Camp McFarland.

Mrs. Frank McFarland made a trip to the state of the st Colonial Guests.

Brown, J. A. Brown, C. W. Dingman.

Golomial Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Valentines, W. B. Hallingoland, Mrs. J. R. Bowles, child and nurse, Mrs. I, B. King and daughter, L. J. Hodson, Misses Ireland, Miss Eddy, Misses Kelley, Ethel Fuller, Mrs. Funk and party, Mark O'Neill and family, Miss Fisher, Miss Bansen, H. E. Fromer, L. R. Allen, Mrs. G. W. Allen, Mrs. Anna Fillke, Berry Litherland, Ethel Palmer, F. L. Litherland and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Clims, H. A. Raymer, Mrs. Libble Ault, Mrs. H. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clodfelter, Mr. and Mrs. M. Knapp, E. Jenneys, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Clodfelter, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Boorp, N. K. Gartin and daughter, L. Schad and family, John McCauly, Mrs. A. Tilzer, Genevieve Stinsman, Ella Hughes, Mrs. M. C. Bowles, Mrs. C. M. Lain, Mrs. E. Chalmer and Children, Miss Maud Dirts, William A. Dirtz, G. Seaton Taylor, Miss Mary Armistead, Miss Boss Lake, Frank L. Merrick, Mrs. F. W. Brockman, Elsah Brockman, Lloyd Rogers, W. E. Adler, Paul De Hans and party, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, Asa Harrison, Nora Harrison, Minnie E. Burke, Alta Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Griffin, E. Braithwaite, Bertha M. Pettigrew, Looksley Zall.

Looksley Hall

O. W. P. SNYDER, M. D

