SMALL CHANGE

PEACE CONDITIONS IN LIGHT OF HISTORY

FORTUNES THAT CAME TOO LATE

THE FIGHT AGAINST GAMBLING.

THERE WILL ALWAYS BE gambling, no doubt, as is often said. Laws will not eradicate the gambling propensity...

THE MAN AND THE DOLLAR.

IT IS with the Japanese and Russians as it is with other peoples the world over—money is more important than men. To keep from paying an indemnity...

THE SLUMP THAT CANNOT COME.

THE VERY WISE and farsighted said to themselves at the opening of spring: "We will hold off until after the fair to make investments, for prices will then take such a drop that we will be able to make a big thing out of a little ready money."

THE PLAY

With a line of ticket-buyers extending from the entrance back to Taylor street and around the corner, it looked as though the Baker theatre had made a record yesterday.

LEWIS AND CLARK

Lewis and Clark having taken different directions, each reports the events of August 22 separately in the Journal: Captain Clark writes: "There was a frost again this morning."

EARMARKS OF A BLUFF.

MR. TONG, a special representative of China to our government, sent over, it is supposed, to induce the United States to repeal or radically modify the exclusion law, has already begun to voice his bluff.

ORIGINS OF THE SLUMP.

As so many people have been holding off from making investments everybody will be ready to get busy at the end of the fair. If they are not able to get what they want at the panic prices they counted on there will be such a general stiffening up all along the line that prices for a particular piece of property will seem as usual, relatively cheap anyhow, and they will doubtless make the investment just the same.

VIRGINIA HARNED'S DEATH

She had the stage all to herself, she evidently resolved to make the most of the opportunity. "In the rehearsal she had died expeditiously and but once. Not so on the opening night. Growing weaker and weaker, she staggered into a large arm chair, her customary place for shuffling off her mortal coil, and died there with great effect."

A Paradise for Sportsmen.

From the North Bend Citizen. Coos county is the paradise of the sportsman. In the bay and the fresh water lakes that abound throughout the county there are myriads of ducks, geese and other wild fowl. The great forests abound in bears, eagles, wildcats and deer, while that noble animal, the fast-disappearing elk, roams the wilds of Coos and sometimes comes within gunshot in herds of 50 or more.

The Thrifty Kaiser.

From the Montreal Star. The price of meat in Germany has advanced 50 per cent, and, being of a gloomy disposition, the Kaiser is thinking of making a light lunch of Morocco.

A Duty Cheerfully Passed On.

From the Philadelphia Record. Russia will probably be quite willing to leave to Japan the care of its Sakhalin prisoners.

Chauncey Is Serious.

From the Chicago Chronicle. These are the solemn times when Chauncey Dapp is serious.
