

WINGS TO DEFEAT

Portland Plays Local Peculiar Game and Oakland Comes From Behind and Wins.

DUNLEAVY'S HOME RUN FEATURE OF CONTEST

...and Iberg Twirl Beautiful Ball, but Farmer's Support Was of Dark Brown Character—Hoffman and McHale Make Errors.

Oakland 4, Portland 4. Batteries—Cates and McLean; Iberg and Byrnes.

For the need of a player errors were made; for the need of a player errors were made; for the need of a player errors were made.

...too bad to have lost yesterday's game to the Oakland nine, not because the players are not entitled to win their games, but because everything happened the locals but the rank stupidity displayed in handling the Portland team.

...It's hard to have some men play and play 12 innings of good baseball and then have all of their efforts nullified because of the mistakes of a few who either do not know how to handle a proposition or else, a tremendous bluff is being put up to the local public.

...Briefly relating, the Portland players do not know how to stand the property of a lead of one or two runs occasionally. Everybody knows that Cates is a seven-inning twister. During that time he works hard in fielding and batting; yesterday was no exception. Cates had the Oakland men guessing until the eighth inning yesterday, allowing him two hits, six runs and a home run.

CLEARING CHANNEL OF ROCKS NEAR PORTAGE ROAD

Work Starts Next Week at Three-Mile Rapids—Camps Opened at Celilo.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Dalles, Or., Sept. 1.—Work will be resumed clearing the obstructions at Three-Mile Rapids the first of next week. J. S. Amussen, foreman, when seen at the works today, said:

"I am only waiting for the river to fall about a foot, so I can get a scowload of wood, and then we will get to work. I have about 20 men at work now getting ready, and from present indications I will use about 75 men all winter."

He expects to finish removing the obstructions by the next high water, unless more work is to be done than contracted for.

Mr. Amussen thinks that there are other reasons than danger to navigation as reasons for captains not taking their boats up to connect with the portage road. The channel is 250 feet wide and 100 feet deep. While the current is a little stronger than below the Cascades locks, it is perfectly smooth.

The main obstruction to be removed is a point of rock at the head of the rapids. About 25 feet of it will be removed, and after that is done it will be the boats a long and easy swing into the channel.

Camps have been established at Celilo and active work will be commenced on the canal in about 10 days. About 300 men will be employed and the work prosecuted with the utmost speed.

TEN THOUSAND MILES OPENED TO SETTLEMENT

(Journal Special Service.) Corpus Christi, Tex., Sept. 1.—In accordance with a law passed by the last legislature a tract of state lands, comprising about 10,000 square miles, was thrown open to settlement today.

The greater part of the land lies west of a line drawn from here to the southwest corner of New Mexico. There are, however, smaller tracts in nearly every county. The conditions existing in the territories thrown open to settlement vary considerably and while some lands are fertile and well supplied with water, others are not very suitable for agricultural purposes. Some of the barren districts may become available for cultivation by artificial irrigation. Up to the present time the demand for lands under this homestead grant has not been very great.

THE DALLES FIREMEN THREATEN TO STRIKE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Dalles, Or., Sept. 1.—Unless the city council accedes to the demands made by the local firemen the volunteer fire department companies will disband on Wednesday next and the city be left without firefighters, which will mean that insurance rates will go skyward. The firemen demand a new fire alarm tower and bell, additional firehouse and a permanent home for the department.

REDUCTION OF GRAIN RATES.

(Journal Special Service.) Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 1.—The reduction in grain rates announced by the Northwest coast and other western roads went into effect today and the grain movement, which has been somewhat retarded by the announcement, has now fully begun. According to an estimate the western farmers will save about $2,000,000 by the reduction of the rates.

NO MORE SHEET MUSIC IN SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—Two important new rules of the postoffice department go into effect today. One of them is of particular importance to newspapers, while the other principally affects trade magazines and advertising periodicals. Under the first rule the postoffice department will refuse to transmit at newspaper rates any calendars, sheet music, patterns, blocks of wood, cut-out animal pictures, cardboard spectacles, disks of soluble paint, outline drawings, etc., but will demand regular merchandise rates for them. Under the other decision all magazines, containing samples of papers, inserted in the magazines for purposes of advertisement, will have to pay fourth-class rate instead of the cheaper second-class rate.
