

WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE REACHES HOME AND MORE TROUBLE

Dear Tommy: Papa is awful busy at the office, so I made him an arrangement like this.

He looked it over and thought it would facilitate getting out the correspondence.

When he tried it, the machine worked like a charm, and he was pleased.

Then Miss Clicker got ready for a trial.

But she is not heavy and her chair went like a shot.

You bet there was trouble for me then. Yours, Willie.
