

VETERANS IN CAMP AT DENVER

Thirty-Ninth Annual National Encampment of the Grand Army is Opened.

AN ENORMOUS FLAG FEATURE OF PARADE

Initial Day of Gathering Devoted to Reception of Delegates and Social Reunions of Old Regiments of the Boys in Blue.

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, Colo., Sept. 4.—The thirty-ninth annual national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic opened here today. Thousands of visitors from all parts of the country are congregated here and the hotels are crowded. The local hosts desire the greatest credit for the completeness of their arrangements. The veterans were received by committees upon their arrival in the city and escorted to their respective state headquarters, where they registered and were assigned to their quarters.

There is nothing in particular on the program for today, excepting a general and informal reception of the visiting veterans and informal gatherings at the various headquarters. Tomorrow will be the day for receptions and on Wednesday the parade will be the principal feature. The line of march will be only two miles in length and over unpaved streets. It has also been ordered that the march music must not be played too quickly, so as not to tire the veterans.

One of the great features of the parade on Wednesday will be the division including the Denver post. The veterans of that division will carry an enormous United States flag, 115 feet long and 85 feet wide, with a union field 13 by 33 feet. Each star will be two feet in diameter. The business sessions will be held on Thursday and Friday.

The national headquarters are at the Brown Palace hotel, where the commander and his staff are holding forth. At the same time the National Woman's Relief corps of the G. A. R. is holding its annual encampment here.

G. A. R. encampment work opened this morning with 50,000 veterans in the city. Local railroad officials anticipate fully double that number before Wednesday. After the warm weather of the past two weeks, Denver today is blessed with a cool spell. An immense Labor day celebration is today's feature. In the morning parade 10,000 men were in line and all points of vantage were occupied by visiting veterans.

Local committees are handling the vast crowd admirably, and many veterans are camped in the public school buildings.

Already interest of the veterans centers in the fight for commander-in-chief, Corporal Tanner of Washington today seems in the lead. Other prominent candidates are General George Stone of California, Robert V. Brown of Ohio and General Charles Burrows of New Jersey. Controversy between the local G. A. R. committee and Bulkley Wells, adjutant-general of the Colorado National Guard has brought forth a sharp reprimand from Governor McDonald to the latter. Wells refused to permit the local militia to participate in the big parade next Wednesday, unless the committee paid a proportion of the expenses of some of the companies from outside the city. The governor has ordered the militia to take part in the parade.

GRAND COMMANDERY OF TEMPLARS IN CONCLAVE

(Journal Special Service.) Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Sept. 4.—The annual state convocation of the grand commandery, Knights Templar, opened here this morning with a large attendance. The morning was devoted to the reception of the arriving commanderies and visits at the headquarters. In the afternoon there will be a grand band concert and in the evening an exhibition drill by the Malta commandery of Binghamton, New York. The principal event for tomorrow is the grand Knights Templar ball at Convention hall.

Remarkable Attendance. Increase 400 per cent past month. On Saturday many unable to secure admittance. Additional accommodations are now necessary for visitors to the "trip to Siberia." This refined and instructive attraction is fast winning public approval.

DIPLomat HELPED EXPLOIT CONCESSIONS RECEIVED FROM VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT

ACTED PART OF AGENT FOR OHIO REPUBLICANS

Quarrel Among Directors of Orinoco Company Lays Bare Reasons for Minister's Appointment—Kept His Friends Posted on Prospects.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Sept. 4.—As a result of a dispute between the minority and majority stockholders of the Orinoco Company, Limited, claimant of the famous Manoa concession, further disclosures of a sensational character concerning the Venezuelan concessions bid fair to receive a thorough ventilation in the courts.

Not the least interesting phase of the internal dissension in the company is that it has brought to light the prominent part played by the interests identified with the Orinoco Company, Limited, associated with some Ohio Republican politicians in furthering the appointment of Francis B. Loomis, now assistant secretary of state, on his Venezuelan mission in 1927. The correspondence has disclosed, by inference at least, that among the Loomis "pushers" an understanding existed as to the exploitation of Venezuelan concessions.

Politicians desired an American minister at Caracas who was friendly. Letters indicate that Loomis, while minister at Caracas, apparently looked over the ground carefully and kept his friends and backers posted as to the prospects of the country. He predicted a "gold boom," and the like, and gave other information such as speculators and promoters welcome when coming from an American minister.

MEXICAN GIRL ABDUCTED AND TORTURED

Pretty Eloise Rodriguez Brought to California and Subjected to Many Indignities.

(Journal Special Service.) Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 4.—The abduction of pretty Eloise Rodriguez from Mexico, her subsequent torture in an infamous resort, and her eventual sale to a Mexican for $75, has stirred the Mexican consulate here to a rigid investigation of what is believed to be an established traffic in white slaves. All the facts and a statement of the cruel case—the abduction of the young girl from her home in Mexico, secret removal to California by Elmer Hernandez, her imprisonment in a Crowswoth Park resort run by Juana Guerrero, "alleged" searing of her breast in a dive with hot irons to make her submissive, finally her sale to Pedro Rodriguez for $75—have been submitted in detail to the Mexican consulate by Riverside peace officers by request of the acting Mexican consulate.

THE BABY SHOW COMMENCES TUESDAY

Three Additional Carloads Arrived Saturday.

All Will Be Displayed in Main Salesrooms Floor of Eilers Piano House—See the Beauties in the Show Windows.

The much-talked-of "Baby Show" commences tomorrow morning. Music-lovers and musicians will be proud to honor the occasion. The oldest American piano, having a career of over 82 years, unbroken by any failure or lapse from the highest standard of excellence, is to be shown in its newest and most remarkable form, the "baby" grand; the very smallest grand piano made. The Chickering company have finally accomplished what was for a long time considered impossible in piano-building circles, namely, the reduction of the size of grand pianos without impairing tone quality and durability, at the same time retaining to a remarkable degree the volume of the full concert grand size. The result is the daintiest and most attractive piano that the music world knows, and a piano that any music-lover is in position to possess. The price, as well as the size of these Baby Grands, admit of this. The Chickering quarter grand, as they are technically known, do not weigh as much as the Chickering upright piano, they do not occupy any more space, and are not so costly as the largest of the Chickering uprights. The magnitude and the beauty of the display we are now making must be seen to be appreciated. It is the largest, as well as the most interesting, ever made on the Coast, if not in this country. Fair visitors, in art and music-lovers are cordially invited.—Eilers Piano House, 251 Washington, corner Park (Eight) street.

Strangers in the city are invited to make our store their headquarters while in Portland. Free telephone.

ARMY OFFICERS TO GO TO SCHOOL

War Department Order Provides New and Thorough System of Instruction.

COMMISSIONED MEN MUST STUDY FOR THREE YEARS

Annual Term of Theoretical Learning Comprises Ninety Days in Summer Time—Post Commanders Will Be the Professors.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, Sept. 4.—A general order just issued by the war department at Washington for a new and thorough system of education for army officers in the United States immediately. General Chaffee is the man whose name is signed to general order No. 124, and it is he who intends to see it carried out. The schools, instructions for officers are divided into theoretical and practical. Practical instruction includes drills, field maneuvers, field engineering, military topography, hygiene and other similar subjects.

The annual term of theoretical instruction will consist of 90 school days between November and April. One hour every day will be devoted to recitation. Graduates of special service schools will be excused from recitation on subjects they have successfully completed at any one of these schools, but on no account can they evade taking the practical part of the course. Before they can complete the proposed course each officer must attend three terms.

Buy Exhibition Piano.

Prominent among the numerous pianos sold yesterday was a beautiful Schumann piano selected by Mrs. Olga Hartach Lang. The piano is one of the exhibition instruments displayed in the Eilers Piano House downtown exhibit, and was chosen by Mrs. Lang after careful comparison and trial of other makes carried by the Eilers House, as possessing tone quality, volume and elasticity and ease of action best suited to the needs of a vocal teacher.

Having commenced her studies with Mrs. E. J. Fink, a pupil of Garcia Viardot, and later having studied some years with Mrs. Walter Reed, Mrs. Lang, endowed with a voice of exceptional purity and an artistic temperament, commences her season's work tomorrow, at 715 First street, under exceptionally favorable circumstances, and her success in her chosen work is thoroughly assured.

WANT NO HOUSEHOLD EXEMPTION ALLOWED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grants Pass, Or., Sept. 4.—A suit has been begun by Judge W. C. Hale to enjoin Assessor W. H. Ealling, Judge J. O. Booth and Clark S. F. Cheshire, as members of the board of equalization for Josephine county, from allowing the $300 household exemption to property in making up the assessment roll for 1935. Assessor Ealling went to Jacksonville, where Judge Hanna is now holding court, to have the matter decided, but as the judge has a fall docket there, it was agreed to bring the case up when court convenes in Grants Pass on September 25. The board of equalization will not meet until the first Monday in October.

SASKATCHEWAN OBSERVES FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Birthday of Inauguration of Provincial Government is Publicly Celebrated.

(Journal Special Service.) Regina, Can., Sept. 4.—The first birthday of the new province of Saskatchewan and the inauguration of its provincial government was celebrated here today with great splendor and enthusiasm and in the presence of thousands of visitors from all parts of the new province and the eastern provinces. Governor-General and Lady Grey, accompanied by the brilliant staff of the governor-general and many prominent provincial officials, arrived here early this morning and were the guests of honor at the celebration.

The celebration began this morning with a procession of the school children. While the children were marching the governor-general and his party arrived and the children cheered lustily while they passed in review before the honored guests. After the children had dispersed, the great civic and military parade began. There were many handsome floats, representing the various industries of the province. The march of a large number of cities, territorial legislators and ex-legislators, the Ninth regiment, and all kinds of trades and professions were represented in the parade. The streets were profusely decorated and there were a number of beautiful triumphal arches through which the procession passed.

In the afternoon there will be a big gathering on the exhibition grounds, where the official inauguration ceremony will take place. A civic address will be presented to the governor-general, who will deliver the principal address of the occasion. Then the new lieutenant-governor will take his oath of office. A grand military review will follow, which will probably occupy the rest of the afternoon. In the evening there will be a state dinner at the government house, followed by a display of fireworks and a grand ball in the skating-rink.

CONGO BELLES WEARING MAILSACKS AS DRESSES

(Journal Special Service.) Brussels, Sept. 4.—The Belgian postal authorities have discovered that the natives of the Congo Free State are making a strange use of postoffice property. For some time the pouches in which the Congo mails were carried have been missing from the Brussels postoffice. They have now been traced to the Congo State. It has been found that the native postal officials have distributed them as presents among their female friends. The black women employ the pouches for personal adornment. Having cut out the ends they pull the bags over their heads and fasten them around their waists by means of the leather straps. They are wearing them with evident pride.
