NORTHERN PACIFIC BUYS LANDS NEAR THE PORTLAND DEPOT

Northern Pacific railway interests have ground for excellent terminal property to the north of the present terminal company's holdings.

These facts were brought to light by an investigation to determine what had been securing options of late in the vicinity of the terminal grounds.

The facts disclosed by the records give additional assurance that the Northern Pacific will build into Portland. All proceedings have been in this direction and it is difficult to explain on what other motive they would be acquiring so much valuable land adjacent to the present terminal grounds.

WASHINGTON KEEPS OPEN HOUSE AT FAIR

The festivities at the Washington building, Lewis and Clark exposition, continue. This is South Bend and Pacific county week, and socially will compare favorably with the many other notable weeks celebrated by Washington people.

Mrs. F. A. Haseltine of South Bend is hostess-in-chief and is assisted by Mesdames W. H. Boner, A. J. Cole, J. W. Kleeb, H. A. Peoples, J. Pinder, W. D. Murdoch, G. W. Patterson, J. W. Driscoll, W. A. Barrows, W. E. Greenway, O. Habeshaw, W. J. P. Tranter, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Martin, Mrs. J. P. Fraser and Miss Alice Martin.

Another feature of the afternoon was the musical program, in which Mrs. J. J. Kellher rendered a vocal solo, accompanied on the violin by Miss Bessie Brown, and on the piano by Miss May Ross of Hwaco and Miss Elizabeth Har-
