MUST SECURE PERMITS TO BURN SLASHINGS

Farmers and Lumbermen Have Erroneous Ideas About State Law on Forest Fires.

Farmers and lumbermen throughout the state are of the opinion that they will be at liberty to burn slashings without any restrictions after October 1; they are in error. The law passed by the last legislature does not take precedence of the government law regulating the setting of forest fires; it was intended to make the forestry laws more stringent.

After October 1 slashings may be burned, but a permit must be secured from the officers of the county in which it is desired to set the fire. The government law will continue in force and any one who sets a fire and carelessly permits it to injure property will be liable for the damages and subject to a penalty.

Parties securing permits to set fires will also be held liable under the state law for any damage resulting from carelessness on their part.

CITY'S GROWTH IS REMARKABLE

Shown Unmistakably in Marvelous Increase of Pupils Asking Admission to Schools.

MANY WILL NOT BE ABLE TO FIND ROOM

Notwithstanding the Many Additional Buildings Constructed Lately Some of the Classes Will Be Overcrowded for a Time at Least.

"There is not a vacant room on the west side of the river to accommodate the increase of grammar school pupils," said Superintendent Frank Rigler, at the meeting of the board of school directors last night. "I recommend that two small rooms in the Chapman school be enlarged and used as classrooms."

"Fill the two vacant rooms in Atkinson school with grammar grade pupils," suggested Director Wittenberg. "What will you do with the overflow from the high school?" inquired Mr. Rigler. "We have been planning to use those two rooms for high school classes. The schools will open so late this year that we are likely to get all the children from the hotbeds and the coast on the opening day and I fear we will have trouble."

It was the opinion of the directors that portable rooms would be required to accommodate the overflow. The increase of pupils at the high school has been enormous. Three years ago three rooms were required; now there are 20. Superintendent Rigler and Architect Jones will consider the situation and report to the board at the next meeting.

Director Williams was the only member who opposed the introduction of domestic science in the schools. It was suggested that the girls be taught sewing and cooking while the boys were in the manual training rooms.

"Why not let the children learn these things at home?" inquired Williams. "All this business is foolishness. I believe manual training is a failure."

"I do not agree with you," replied Director Wittenberg. "I feel that manual training has proved a success."

Superintendent Rigler explained that principals who opposed manual training refused last term to change their schedules of recitations to accommodate the pupils who were in the manual training classes. While the boys were away the girls recited and the boys had to make up the work given over in their absence. He was of the opinion that if the girls could devote their time to domestic science while the boys were in the workshops it would be a satisfactory innovation. The principals were instructed to make written reports of their ideas of manual training, and further discussion was postponed until the next meeting.

Miss Lena Hadaway, teacher in the Hawthorne school, tendered her resignation, which was accepted. She was recently married. Miss Katherine Franklin, teacher in the Chapman school, resigned, as she was traveling in Europe.

ENDEAVORERS' INSTITUTE BEGINS TOMORROW

Program Arranged for Entertainment of Prominent Workers in the Field.

The Christian Endeavor institute of the northwest will begin tomorrow, September 13, and continue to Friday at the First Congregational church, corner Park and Madison streets. A report of Christian Endeavor workers from all parts of the United States will be present, among them Von Ogden Vogt, general secretary.

MAYOR FAVORS LIFE PRESERVERS ON BOATS

Mayor Lane has approved the ordinance providing for the carrying of life preservers and life-buoys on motor boats on the river, and the law will go into effect immediately. Owners of many boats have already provided life preservers and buoys for the safety of passengers. The enforcement of the new ordinance will fall under the jurisdiction of the harbor-master.

VOTE IS HEAVIEST SINCE START

Balloting Shows Popularity of The Journal's Offer of Winter Trip to Hawaii.

MISS PHILLIPS STILL LEADS FIRST DISTRICT

Three Other Candidates Are Close Behind Her—Miss Fletcher of Pendleton Displaces Miss Proebstel of La Grande in First Place.

During the past two days the voting for candidates for The Journal's Hawaiian trip has been the heaviest since the event opened. The coupon department has been snowed under by ballots and it required many hours of extra work before they could be counted, credited and published today, so that each candidate might know her standing.

In the first district the voting has been very active. Miss Minnie S. Phillips continues to lead, having 27,701 votes to her credit. Miss Laura Baty is a close second with 26,172 votes. Miss Sadie Wintemantle holds third place with 25,224 votes. Miss Belle Madigan of Olds, Wirtman & King's store has jumped into third place with more than 23,000 votes and is developing considerable strength.

Miss Henriette Winkelman is now in sixth position. A new candidate has been nominated in the first district. She is Miss Alvena Horn of Oregon City and her nomination was accompanied by 3,000 votes.

Miss Fletcher's Advance.

In the second district Pendleton is making a big fight. For quite a while Miss Molly Proebstel of La Grande was the leader in this district, but the position has been wrested from her by Miss Agnes Fletcher of Pendleton, who has 11,134 votes. Miss Proebstel, however, is a strong second with more than 10,000 votes. In the third district Miss Emilie Crossen of The Dalles continues to lead with 10,895 votes and Miss Stella Richardson of Hood River is a close second. Miss Hattie Barton of Baker City leads the list in the fourth district, with Miss Effie Mae King of Ontario second.

After many days of close fighting Miss Amelia Williams of Kelso has again regained first place in the fifth district. Not only has this change occurred, but Miss Katherine Gore of Kalama has jumped into second place, while Miss Heavren of Vancouver, who was the leader, is third.

In Other Districts.

Miss Madge Batten of Eugene continues in first place in the sixth district, having 12,709 votes to her credit. Miss L. Belle Darby of Salem is developing much strength and has jumped into second place with 9,265 votes. Close behind her is Miss Mary Davidson of Salem, and for fourth place the contest between Miss Emma Moffat and Miss Lizzie Veatch is very close. In this district Maude Blair is a new candidate and she has 1,069 votes. In the seventh district Miss Bertha Courtemanche retains first place, with Miss Marie Hostetter of Hillsboro second. The contest in the eighth district continues to be lively. Miss Edna Parsley of Roseburg is the leader with 12,333 votes. Miss Dale Harmon is second with 10,170 votes and Miss Louise T. Jones in third position.

President Tucker of the American bar association, says there are too many laws. There are certainly too many lawyers.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Portland.

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous ills. Plenty of evidence to prove this.

Mrs. C. Richards, wife of C. Richards, painter and living at 471 Market street, says: "Mr. Richards values Doan's Kidney Pills very highly. He has had attacks of kidney trouble for years. He is a painter by trade and there is no doubt but the turpentine had had more or less effect on his kidneys, as I believe most painters are more or less afflicted with kidney troubles. Last fall he had an acute attack when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to our notice, and got him a box. They so regulated his kidneys that relief came in a remarkably short time. I have heard him express his appreciation of this reliable remedy."

MANY EASTERNERS SAW THE FAIR

Fifty-Four Thousand Tickets Validated at Union Station Since May.

THIS WAS VERY SMALL PERCENTAGE OF VISITORS

August Saw Greatest Business Done in Certifying Return Tickets, When More Than One Thousand People a Day Were Sent Home.

Up to Sunday night 52,540 round trip tickets had been validated at the validating office in the Union station since its establishment in May. The records show that 1,900 one-way tickets were handled by the office, making a total of 55,540 tickets.

The figures, however, are no indication of the number of visitors who have passed through Portland since the opening of the Lewis and Clark exposition. Officials at the Union station estimate that the total validations will hardly equal one fourth the number of arrivals at the station during the summer.

The validating office handles only tickets that have been purchased in the eastern states. Tickets purchased in Oregon, Washington, California, Nevada and the western portion of Idaho are not handled by it. By far the largest number of visitors who have come to Portland this summer have come from the states excluded from the boundaries of the validating office.

Officials in charge of the office assert that the states of Minnesota, Illinois and Montana have contributed more generously to the attendance at the fair than have any other states in the jurisdiction of the office. Of these Minnesota has sent the largest number.

For more than two weeks in August the validating office handled more than 1,900 tickets a day. On one day the rush was so great that some 200 persons were forced to remain in Portland longer than they had intended. Over 300 tickets were handled by the validating office last Saturday.

The office was opened May 23 and is in charge of Manager E. E. Franky, who has had a great deal of experience in the work at other expositions. The office will remain open until December 1. It is maintained by the Transcontinental Passenger association, which embraces practically every road in the United States that offers transcontinental service.

"Portland has certainly had a rush of business this summer," said Mr. Franky. "Every morning there is a crowd of from 300 to 500 people around the window of our office, and everybody seems to want to be waited on first."

"We have had trouble only once and that was unavoidable. There was an unexpected and unprecedented crowd on that day, and one fellow who tried to get in ahead of everybody else and was prevented became ugly. He circulated a great deal of misinformation about the working of our office, but was unable to cause any real trouble."

"It is impossible to give an accurate estimate of the number of tickets that will be handled by December 1."

CHILDREN WILL ENJOY CARNIVAL AT THE OAKS

Extensive preparations are going on at the Oaks for the children's carnival day on Wednesday, September 20, when the Oregon Water Power & Railway company will admit free every boy and girl up to the age of 15 years. The park will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening. There will be a novel baby-carriage and go-cart parade. There will be a May-pole dance, dancing in the pavilion and a parade of Cinderella, who will offer a pair of golden slippers to any girl from 5 years up to 15 years who can wear the pair she has on. The Oregon Water Power & Railway company will provide plenty of cars and trailers that will run from 8 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening.
