

morning. These shoes were not injured by the fire other than by water and smoke, and are, therefore, for wearing purposes, as good as when they left the Some pairs of ladies' sho this is a fair sample of all the bargains that will be obtainable at this marvelous sale. Clothing and men's wear is being now sold at prices similar to the Richard H. Keogan has brought suit against the University Lumber and Shingle Mills for $10,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained while working as night watchman for the company. He says that while inthe company. He says that while in-apecting the company's property. May &, he slipped on a plank and fell 30 feet onto some rocks, breaking four ribs and receiving injuries to his back, spine d internal organs.

VS.

J. L. Mitchell, secretary of the Order of Washington, has been appointed re-ceiver for the Fraternal News com-pany. He filed an application for a re-ceiver for the company resterday af-ternoon. It is alleged that the com-pany owes $400, which it is unable to pay; the assets are $150 worth of office furniture, a subscription list valued at about $200 and $200 in open accounts.

Tomoriow morning the 60 candidates for patrolmen in the police department of the city will have their agility tested on Multhomah field. Each will be re-quired to run 100 yards in 15 seconds. The timokeepers will be Professor Krohn, physical instructor in the city schools: Tom Tracey and Jack King, the sprinter. the sprinter.

Mary Williams, charged with stealing $1.50 from the pockets of Patrolman H. Carlson on July 23, 1905, was found

Miss Cora Harding is in Portland see-ing the Lewis and Clark fair at the ex-

THE ESTACADA IN LINE OF O. W. P. ELECTRIC BY IN THE HEART OF THE PINES ON THE CLACKAMAS RIVER. ESTACADA, OREGON A POPULAR REALTH AND RECREATION

TICKET OFFICE FIRST AND ALDER STS.

L. E. MARTINEZ, Manager BETACADA, OREGON.

