

Watches Cleaned and War- ranted for One Year for 75c

NEW MAINSPRINGS, 75c. ALL OTHER REPAIRING OF JEWELRY AND CLOCKS AT PROPORTIONATELY MOD-EST PRICES. FIRST FLOOR—NEAR LARGE ELEVATOR.

ONE of the first requisitions received from a newly appointed railway station agent was: "Send me a gallon of red oil for the danger lanterns." That wouldn't be a bad thing for readers of many of the ads. in the daily papers to be supplied with just at this season.
They should hang danger signals on the careless and overdrawn statements of many of the store-writers. A firm advertised the other day a lot of blankets of a certain size at a certain price. A buyer brought one in to the store to show us how she had been cheated by another house; the blanket was under-size, not up to the advertised measurement, and she had paid more for it at a "Special" sale than we had them plainly marked to sell in a regular way. The exact duplicates of ours, except that our blanket was FULL SIZE AND LOWER PRICED. No wonder some stores' advertising is not RESULTFUL, therefore not successful.
TRUTHFUL ADVERTISING IS THE ONLY SORT THAT PAYS. This store is thronged daily—and keeps GROWING, because the great Public has supplied its "danger lanterns" with "RED OIL," and hung them on the careless statements of store-writers who juggle with the TRUTH. A reputation of more than a quarter century of square dealing has helped this store mightily in its BUSI-NESS BUILDING, and stands behind every printed or oral statement it makes.

A GREAT PRE-OPENING EXPOSITION TOMORROW

Of the Low and Medium Priced Hats that May Be Crowded to the Background Next Week.
"BIJOU" MILLINERY SALONS—ANNEX—SECOND FLOOR Paris creates the styles in millinery; Poyanne, Rebaux, Esther Mayer and a few other famous French artists design the hats that are worn by the smartest dressers in Europe and our own country. They have all the richness of color, beauty of design, suggestion of autumn taste and charm about them that requires the handling of a Parisian artist, who knows so well how to blend these requirements so masterfully that the hats are never overtrimmed, but rich, simple and beautiful. Of course the cost of such hats is extremely high, and in order to supply these styles at the greatest possible saving, our own expert milliners—and some of New York's leading artist milliners—have made exact counterparts of hats shown in the swellest Parisian shops, and have priced them at a saving Portland women and eastern tourists will be sure to appreciate. Saturday we invite you cordially to come in and see the immense beauty showing. All leading styles, most of them exclusive with this house. Women's, Misses' and Children's models. Every popular shape and color included. Remarkable values, all—and every taste can be satisfied. You may range in price from 98¢, $1.49, $1.98, $2.49 and up to $16.00.
