IN THE GREAT STORE'S STYLE SHOPS

Again we say—NO FORMAL OPENINGS THIS FALL, too busy to stop for dress parade. But here, tomorrow, we hold our second informal presentation of the newest in Autumn Merchandise and the latest in Fall Modes and Fashions. Full season shows in Millinery, Suits, Wraps, Gowns, Furs and Waists, Silks and Dress Fabrics, Laces and Embroideries, Underwear and Hosiery, Neckwear, Gloves, Shoes, Men's Outfittings—in short, everything for household use or personal wear of women, misses and children, and Furnishings for the sterner sex. Tomorrow's events will be so really important in the Fashion world bounded by the store's shopping limits that every woman in Portland should enter the date in her engagement book, and folk from out of town should plan to come to the store. It is no longer an open question—people have come to absolutely KNOW that the OLDS, WORTMAN & KING STORE SETS THE STYLES FOR THE PACIFIC SLOPE. That's provable in many ways—by the extent and elegance of our importations; by the high class, genteel tone of the vast stocks shown; by the evidence of your own trained eyes. Tourists know that few stores in the eastern states show such stocks or give an equal service. Not a store in all America, located in a city TWICE THE SIZE OF PORTLAND SHOWS STOCKS EQUAL TO OURS. And Portland people appreciate their BEST and FOREMOST STORE. Few stores with the convenience and SAFETY one meets with at this store; one shops with more safety and with greater satisfaction in Portland's stores than in either the shops of New York or Paris. If you go to London you'll find stupendous solidity combined with a heavy feeling of somberness connected with shopping amid the surroundings of the better metropolitan stores—and should you not buy you'd be asked "what you came in for?" And you'd sure not like London styles, in the majority of things. In connection with this elaborate but informal display of the new and beautiful, a lavish lot of matchless bargains has been arranged in every section of the store. A GRAND DOUBLE ATTRACTION WILL FILL THURSDAY'S HOURS WITH BUSY BUSINESS, SPLENDID AUTUMNAL STYLE SHOWS AND UNMATCHABLE BARGAINS IN PLENTITUDE ALL OVER THE STORE.

GREAT SALE OF HOUSEFINDINGS AND CULINARY NEEDS IS ON AT THE STORE

FIRST, THIRD AND FOURTH FLOORS PARTICIPATE WITH ENTHUSIASM

Things of beauty and of art that housewives need every day. Work-savers and worry-savers—the sale stocks abound with them. Implements and utensils desired to lessen the drudgery of housework—surely such an end is worth planning for? And there are money-savers, too—well bought lines of down-to-date appliances on which makers have joined with us in lessened profits. Start—if you will on the ground floor in the spacious "Domestic" aisles. There the shopper finds hosts of wonderful values in linens for the tables, towels and other fabrics for household use, many underpriced so that it pays to do holiday shopping now—to furnish the Thanksgiving tables. Pass along up by rapid transit to the Third Floor, where spread out before you in almost endless array is handsome chinaware and a wonderful variety of the little things so much needed in the kitchen. Here, too, one finds just the STOVES AND HEATERS she is looking for at prices less than she had planned to pay. Another jump and we land on the Fourth Floor, among the magnificent array of House-Fittings, Carpets, Rugs, Curtains, Draperies, Beds, Bedding, etc. And the sale comes in need-time. Why? Because September is a busy month with housekeepers getting homes in readiness for fall and winter. And—true to the OLDS, WORTMAN & KING idea of helpfulness, we time the sale to meet the first fall needs of the housewife. The store turns to your advantage its ability to gather very largely at lowest prices, and puts economies within the reach when to save on what one must of necessity have is an added satisfaction. Every Portland housewife should scan the list carefully and act quickly. First Floor—Domestic Section.
