

SOCIETY BUSY IN LAST FOUR NIGHTS OF FAIR

THE close of the exposition, while it is not bringing on many...

spite of the stormy evening elaborate gowning was the rule. The pretty reception rooms with their billiard and yachting pictures, the billiard room and the broad, surrounding verandas were overrun with the company.

SOCIETY AT THE EXPOSITION.

Cards have been sent out for a musicale at the Washington building to-morrow afternoon...

William Miner and by Mrs. Cartwright. A chafing-dish luncheon was served by the hostess after cards, and her gift friends, Miss Sally Carter and Miss Florence Wilson, assisted her.

IDAHO HOSTESSES AT THE EXPOSITION.

Mrs. Wilbur Chaney

Mrs. J. McGlinchey

William Miner and by Mrs. Cartwright. A chafing-dish luncheon was served by the hostess after cards, and her gift friends, Miss Sally Carter and Miss Florence Wilson, assisted her.

By Dr. E. L. House at his parsonage, Miss Lettie J. Newman was married to Floyd T. Steele of Dawson City, Alaska.

Miss Belle De Haven of this city was married to C. N. Churchill of Salem last Monday.

Miss Ella Frost of Albany was married to Ernest F. Hamilton of this city Wednesday noon at Albany.

Mrs. Millie Perkins is planning to give a series of six organ recitals this winter and the opening one will take place at St. David's church.

Frederick W. Goodrich has arranged to give a series of six organ recitals this winter and the opening one will take place at St. David's church.

Miss Mattie A. Yoder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Yoder of Oregon City, was married at home Wednesday evening by Rev. J. Henry Wood of the Methodist church of Woodland.

Miss Christine Hagemann and William E. Benton, recently of St. Paul, were married at home last Saturday evening.

Miss Amalia Hoffman and H. C. Toelle of Hillsboro were married at noon Monday at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Lorna Pearl Landess and Austin Sims were married with a very simple ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents.

Miss Maud Leobald and C. Lee Ladd were married last Sunday at St. Mary's church in Albina.

Miss Maud Eden of this city was married to Michael Landers of Cleveland, Ohio, Friday, September 22.

Miss Martha Amanda Thompson and Lloyd Mackenzie were married here last Saturday.

Miss June Danna and William Pollock both of Albany, were married Tuesday at the bride's home.

Miss Augustus Stanger and John Knapler were married Tuesday, September 13, by Rev. J. C. Hughes of St. Lawrence's cathedral.

Miss Louise G. Spencer was married to R. D. Powell of Seattle Wednesday.

manoroff were members of a Chicago party visiting here the last of the week.

Misses Sadie and Iva Ford, daughters of Dr. T. B. Ford of the east side, left Tuesday to attend Willamette university at Salem.

Mrs. Mathew F. Gevurtz has returned from Durfur, where she visited friends. She has been very ill.

Mrs. and Mr. William Rosch of Pennington, N. J., returned to their home in the city last week.

Mrs. E. Easton and two sons, Alton and Irving, of Durfur, are in the city.

Mrs. and Mr. Fred Clarke of The Dalles were in the city to attend the marriage of Miss Palmer and Arthur Clarke, Wednesday.

Mrs. and Mr. William Wilkinson and daughter of Joseph, Oregon, are visiting friends.

Mrs. R. G. Brooks and daughter were prominent people here from The Dalles.

Mrs. and Mr. F. M. Olds are visiting relatives in Salem.

Mrs. and Mr. John Swink and daughter, Miss Swink, and Miss Eva Skanland visited here last week.

Mrs. and Mr. F. M. Riley of Jefferson, Iowa, Mrs. Emily Kaw of South Dakota and Arthur Junk of Inwood, Iowa, who have been visiting in Salem, were visitors to the exposition during the week.

Mrs. C. A. Curran and her daughter, Miss Ima, of Albany, are visiting the fair.

Miss Frances Patterson of Independence, has returned to continue her studies in the Portland schools.

Miss Nellie J. Reynolds and Miss Vida Davis of Chicago are here visiting Miss Cornelia of Astoria and other friends on the east side.

J. Ed Sullivan has left for his home in Bangor, Maine, after visiting his cousin, the Misses Dinneen, at their home, 251 Twelfth street and other friends on the east side.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan and Gertrude Dinneen on Wednesday and Thursday visited Mrs. A. Sullivan and son of Cedar Mills, Oregon.

Mr. Phillip Gevurtz has returned from a two weeks' stay at Carson mineral springs.

Miss Helen Logan and Miss Minnie Lay were visitors from The Dalles last week.

Mrs. Preston W. Search and her son Frederick of Pendleton are visiting the fair.

Miss Basie Merrill of Albany is the guest of relatives in the city.

Professor and Mrs. E. A. McAllister of the University of Oregon returned to Eugene early in the week after a week's stay in Portland.

Mrs. David Link and her small son of Eugene are guests here.

Prominent Astoria people entertained last week were Mr. and Mrs. I. Bergman. He came to Portland for a 10 day visit.

Lawrence Balling, who has been visiting her parents for the past three months, left Tuesday afternoon for Baltimore to continue his studies at Johns Hopkins university.

Misses Alice Bretherton and Ella Dobbie went to Eugene Tuesday, where they are this year seniors in the state university.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson of Salem were guests here last week.

Miss Lettie Goddard, daughter of H. W. Goddard, visited friends in Albany early in the week, and thence proceeded to Eugene to enter the junior year in the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Roney of Eugene are in the city. Mrs. Roney is one of the most beautiful and prominent society matrons of her town.

E. B. C. Wright of New York, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt in the city, will be visiting King's Heights home, left last week for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. McCullough of Spokane are in the city, guests of Mrs. Allan Wright.

COMING EVENTS.

Asira Circle, Women of Woodcraft, announce a series of winter parties for the coming season...

Members of the Geo Lo Ran club have completed arrangements and announced their annual social dances...

The Congregationalists are preparing for the 57th annual meeting of ministers and church delegates...

The Forestry club announces its opening party for Friday, October 6, at Volker's hall...

ENGAGEMENTS.

Miss Hazel A. Under Fure and George F. Lewis, both of California, are to be married this evening...

The engagement is announced of Miss Florence E. Hayes of San Francisco to Charles E. Williams of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton D. Hill announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Loreta, to Horace Harshel Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wheeler of Eugene are guests in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. West of Glenn Falls, New York, have been the guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hickey of 1710 Twenty-third street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Roney of Eugene are in the city.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Luce and little son of The Dalles spent the week visiting the fair.

Mrs. H. Logan and Miss Minnie Lay were visitors from The Dalles last week.

Misses Alice Bretherton and Ella Dobbie went to Eugene Tuesday, where they are this year seniors in the state university.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson of Salem were guests here last week.

Miss Lettie Goddard, daughter of H. W. Goddard, visited friends in Albany early in the week, and thence proceeded to Eugene to enter the junior year in the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Roney of Eugene are in the city.

E. B. C. Wright of New York, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt in the city, will be visiting King's Heights home, left last week for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. McCullough of Spokane are in the city, guests of Mrs. Allan Wright.

Mrs. and Mr. Louis R. Steelhammer of Salem visited in Portland on their wedding trip.

Miss Pearl Luckey left Monday evening to spend the winter in Pendleton.

STRAY BITS.

Friends of Miss Henrietta E. Moore are congratulating her upon her appointment to the chair of English language and literature in the University of Idaho.

Mrs. Rena Ferguson, a popular young contralto of Pendleton, is in the city for the winter intending to further her studies in vocal music with Mrs. Walter Reed.

A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mrs. L. E. Alexander.

Mrs. W. A. Macmillan visited in Hood River for a few days, returning Monday.

Miss Frankie Crowson and E. F. Brown were married at the First Congregational church, here, last Monday.

Miss Maud Eden of this city was married to Michael Landers of Cleveland, Ohio, Friday, September 22.

Miss Martha Amanda Thompson and Lloyd Mackenzie were married here last Saturday.

Miss June Danna and William Pollock both of Albany, were married Tuesday at the bride's home.

Miss Augustus Stanger and John Knapler were married Tuesday, September 13, by Rev. J. C. Hughes of St. Lawrence's cathedral.

Miss Louise G. Spencer was married to R. D. Powell of Seattle Wednesday.

WEDDINGS.

Miss Mary Della Aumend and James Edward Keegan were married Wednesday morning at St. Mary's cathedral by Rev. Father H. J. McDevitt in the presence of a large number of friends.

Mrs. Reed of Massachusetts entertained at her home at the Guillaume, Wednesday evening, playing bridge.

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett entertained a few friends at dinner Wednesday evening.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Mrs. I. M. Whitcomb entertained with a pleasant evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. George Egbert, 809 Macadam street, Monday, in honor of the Misses Edna and Fannie.

A farewell luncheon was given by Miss Effie and Cleo Houghton Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen Osborne of Indiana, who has spent the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Morton Inslay.

A farewell luncheon was given by Miss Effie and Cleo Houghton Tuesday in honor of Miss Helen Osborne of Indiana, who has spent the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Morton Inslay.

The reception and dance given by the Oregon Yacht club Wednesday evening marking the formal opening of the new clubhouse at The Oaks was one of the delightful affairs of the week.

On Society. One must be correctly dressed, yet one need not be extravagant.

COOPER & SON, Tailors. 214 Third street, upstairs.

JAPANESE ART TREASURES.

Over a hundred Japanese Art Treasures will be on display at the exposition.

Portland citizens are again fortunate favored. The magnificent and costly Japanese exhibit in the Oriental building at the exposition will remain to ornament the homes of our people.

It is guaranteed that each and every member will receive a big dollar's worth of fine Japanese articles of merchandise or manufactures.

Many of the most prominent state, county, city and exposition officials are honorary members of the association and will share in its great benefits.

Those wishing to join this society can do so by applying to the secretary in the Oriental building, Lewis and Clark block, Portland, Oreg., M. Furuya Co., 61 North Fourth street and Fair Japan on the Trail.

It is a rare opportunity to secure a great bargain, worthy of a king's palace.

MUSICAL PROGRAMS AT FAIR SUNDAY.

Eliery's Royal Italian band will play the following programs at the fair Sunday:

Afternoon—March, "No. 11" (Mancini); overture, "Mignon" (Thomas); "Polonaise" (Mulliner); (Chopin); "Cavalleria Rusticana" (Mascagni); "Songs Without Words" (Mendelssohn); solo by Signori Palma and Riso; march, "Coronation" (Hayden); "Angels" (from "Scenes Picturales" (Massenet); "Pillgrim's Chorus" from "Tannhauser" (Wagner); "Gloconda" (Ponchielli); prelude, "Dance of the Hours" (Gounod).

Evening—March, "Wedding" (Mendelssohn); prelude, "Lohengrin" (Wagner).

The high compliment has been paid Mr. Reffling that he is one of the most critical and discriminating buyers of cloth in the United States.

ADD TO HIS SKILL AS A CUTTER AND RELY ON HIS ABILITY TO PLEASE THE MOST CAREFUL DRESSER.

Calling MAKER OF MEN'S CLOTHES 231 WASHINGTON ST. PORTLAND OREGON.