

Visitors Attention! These special weekly sales are events of economy importance to every shopper. After eight-weeks at the fair comes the shopping tour. We extend a cordial invitation to you all to visit our big retail Department store. With us every day is "Market Day." No matter what purchase you make, depend upon it you will save money.

Dependable Goods at Prices That Appeal to Your Welfare

Compliments have been showered on us this fall as never before. We judge their depth of meaning by the increase of sales. Housekeepers realize the value of economy. We want them to realize the full possibilities of economy. We stand ready to save you money on the regular value of almost every class of goods you use in daily life. We're not satisfied to sell merely for the sake of selling. We want continually to add to the store's reputation for style and quality, which means that you can rely perfectly on anything being bought here. Any wants in the line of new merchandise still unsupplied can be satisfied here at money-saving prices all next week.
