SATURDAY IS THE BIG DAY IN The Dress Goods and Silk Sale

FIFTH STREET ANNEX—FIRST FLOOR.

Interest is growing; women are coming from all quarters to get a share of the really remarkable values now ruling at OLDS, WORTMAN & KING'S. Many counters in the annex are heaped full. Many good judges have said that the mills took unnecessary losses for weeks selling Silks and Dress Goods at such prices. But the owners knew their business. Fabrics being woven now are to be distributed at higher prices. It's better to clear out this season's pieces at a loss than to miss them in and confuse merchants who are already doing spring buying. We gain—so do you. The goods are the newest and brightest of the Fall and Winter weaves. Values like these for Saturday.

French Plain Silks for 75c. Handsome New French Plain Silks in all color combinations, all pure silk and possibly the latest styles shown, an unmatched value at $1.00. Special for Saturday only at the yard..... 75¢

Imported Silk and Wool Crepe de Paris. In all the evening and street shades and colors, black and white included; our regular $1.25 value. Special for Saturday at the yard..... 89¢ Our regular $1.50 value. Special for Saturday only at the yard..... $1.14 These are without doubt the best values at the regular price we have ever offered.

LADIES' SLEAVE AND KNEE GLOVES FOR 50c.

FIRST FLOOR.

Ladies' Fine Silk Mesh Gloves, with little palms, Keyser's make, known all over the world as second to none in manufacture, perfect fitting and very durable; also our new and improved Lisle Gloves, made by the best manufacturers and imported direct by OLDS, WORTMAN & KING. Will be sold tomorrow for less than it costs to import them. Come in black and colors; our 55c, $1.00 and $1.25 values. Special at the pair..... 45¢

Knew His Son

When Rudyard Kipling, the famous writer, was a lad, he went on a sea voyage with his father, Lockwood Kipling. Soon after the vessel got under way Mr. Kipling went below, leaving the boy on deck. Presently there was a great commotion overhead, and one of the officers ran down and banged at Mr. Kipling's door. "Mr. Kipling," he cried, "your boy has crawled out on the yardarm, and if he lets go he'll drown!" "Yes," said Mr. Kipling, glad to know that nothing serious was the matter, "but he won't let go."

We receive many commendatory letters from our friends daily praising this and that principle. Occasionally they seem to fear for us, that in the glare of some great temptation of financial gain, or threatened loss, we'll let go—and fall back with the stragglers. Don't fear, friends—we'll not let go of any good. We started the early closing movement years ago and would not retrograde one inch from our position, and call upon our helpers to again work evenings—after dark—not much—don't fear—we won't "let go!"

Improve Each Shining Hour Tomorrow Ten Hours Crammed Full of Busy Business Makes This Store's Day

SATURDAY—AS ON ALL DAYS OF THE WEEK—WE CLOSE AT 6 P. M.—WHEN THE DAY IS DONE: THIS IS THE "DAYLIGHT STORE." The last day of the week is the logical shopping day for the millions—a day of the essentially PRACTICAL. While the great style shows and lavish merchandise displays as exploited here attract thousands of visitors as well as shoppers thro' the week, tomorrow the masses will come upon purely business errands. We therefore crowd today's store announcement with practical information of merchandise in most active demand, and you'll, of course, note the hosts of opportunities for saving money in the spending of it. Visitors are as welcome as ever—the store will be doubly attractive tomorrow. Bigger and better bargains than elsewhere—and more generous choosing. Remember to come before 6 p. m. After that the doors are locked and we're off for rest and recreation 'til Monday.

The Greatest Success Ever Made in Portland by Any Embroidery Merchants Fell to Our Lot Today

Imagine the Marquam Grand management offering $3 Seats to "Ben Hur" for 50c, and you'll get some idea of the stampede for embroideries that took place here this morning. At 8 o'clock when the doors opened there was a rush and even "Standing room" was soon at a premium in front of the embroidery counters, and remained so all day. But such an immense purchase as this we offer is little affected, even by such tremendous selling as took place today, by one day's attack—and the sale goes on tomorrow with equal values. Plan to be early. A word of the bargains:

Hundreds of Thousands of Yards of Beautiful Embroideries in a Bargain Riot!

And what woman doesn't want a plenty of new and dainty embroideries at this season—with the fall and winter sewing all ahead and lots of pretty undergarments to make for all the family femininity? This sale is especially exceptional from the fact that embroideries cost in market today a fifth more than these cost in regular way last year. The market has been steadily climbing for months and embroideries are higher today than in years. And we are—as usual—prepared to do the UN-usual. While the manufacturers are hunting high and low for operatives to help them fill their orders, while there is a great scarcity in the great embroidery centers of the dainty product—WE are "bearing the market." Prepared for this great sale months ago, secured the embroideries at less than the then regular prices. Sale lasts thro' Saturday. Better be early. You will if you'll peep at the embroideries in a Fifth street window. Now the bargain story:

LOT 1—Consists of fine Cambric and Nainsook Embroideries from 3 to 10 inches wide, in very beautiful patterns, worth regularly 15c, 18c, 20c and 25c per yard. Special at 45¢ for a strip of 4 1/2 yards, and 65¢ for a strip of 6 1/2 yards.

LOT 2—Consists of beautiful Nainsook, Cambric and Swiss Embroideries and Insertions, some very fine little baby embroideries, some medium width for trimming waists and fine underwear, some wide embroideries suitable for trimming skirts, etc. Also some very elegant wide embroideries worth 75c and $1 the yard. In this lot the cheapest embroidery is 35c the yard, nothing less than 30c in the regular way. During this special sale the whole lot will be included at 90¢ a strip of 4 1/2 yards and $1.30 for a strip of 6 1/2 yards.

Another Day of Strenuous SUIT SELLING SATURDAY IN THE WOMEN'S APPAREL SALONS—SECOND FLOOR. LARGEST SUIT AND WRAP STORES WEST OF CHICAGO.

Suits or Coats at $18.50

WOMEN'S TAILORED SUITS FOR $18.50. Tho' we sell more suits at higher prices than the above-named, we offer this week the best value at the price we have ever known shown by any house in America. It again illustrates our absolute supremacy in the apparel market. The nearest we are approached locally at this value is by a house that shows a suit not quite so good as these we offer, BUT AT A HIGHER PRICE. They call it "A $25.00 and $27.50 value sold by them at $20.00." Our price is $18.50. The suits: Navy, black or gray mixtures, chevrons and homespuns. Cut in Readington styles, coats with leg-o'-mutton sleeves, notched collar. Skirts full plaited, 9 and 18 gored. Very smartly tailored. Vest value you ever saw, with all the wearing season ahead..... $18.50

HANDSOME COATS AT $18.50—MATCHLESS VALUES. We've arranged several lines to be offered at the above price, and allow choice of all leading styles. Empire modes, Raglans or Box Coats, all in the popular three-quarter lengths, materials the smart manish mixtures in the rougher effects so much favored by swell dressers. Buttons and strappings the trimming accessories. Outside patch pockets are a feature on many. Some have velvet collars; others have collars of the materials. These are the much-advertised "$25.00 values" of some stores. Price here..... $18.50

SUPERB LINGERIE WAISTS. Magnificent hand-made creations. Prices run from $7.50 to $28.50. Dainty mulls and lincens predominate in the showings.

WOMEN'S NEW COATS. Overwhelming assortments and wide choosing in the great convention of new Fall Coats. Three-quarter and full lengths. Serges, broadcloths, chevrons, coverts, tweeds and fancy manish mixtures share in popular favor. All the favored shades of colorings. Choose from the simple and plebian garments, yet full of style as a nut is full of meat, at $7.50, or run along up the price scale to the Patricians at $185. Stop where you will at the in-between price stations, you'll find here each garment best at its respective price in America.

CHILDREN'S NEW FALL COATS. Very smart and natty garments, long and graceful, made of sturdy materials, including serges, chevrons and fancy mixtures. Coats for girls from 6 to 12 years of age.

RICH NECK FURS. The largest and finest assortment of superb Neck Furs ever shown by any one Portland house. The lines are too varied for description in detail. Suffice to say, all the very newest ideas of America's leading fur houses engaged in manufacturing high-class fur garments and wraps. Sables, Isabella fox, black marten, mink, squirrel and bear..... $2.50 to $175
