

FIFTY AGREE TO MAKE TRIP

Flower of Portland Business Life Will Visit the Lewiston-Clarkston Fair.

THOSE WHO GO WILL HAVE A FINE TIME

Twenty-Five More Are Needed to Fill Special Train, and These Will Be Secured—List of Those Who Have Applied for Accommodations.

Fifty Portland business men have applied for accommodations on the Lewiston-Clarkston special train and the remaining 25 necessary to insure the running of the train will be secured Monday. Seventy-five are needed in all, and the interest in the event among the commercial and financial forces of the city is keenly aroused.

The arrangements that have been perfected by A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines, insure a delightful trip through a region that contributes much to Portland's commercial greatness. "Portland day" at the Lewiston-Clarkston fair at Lewiston, Idaho, will be the occasion for the exchange of courtesies between representative men of the two localities and is expected to strengthen the bonds of friendship and interest that unite the sections. AMERICAN INN SALE

The American Inn to Dispose of Its Furnishings at Lowest Rates Ever Offered for Such Goods in Portland—Sale Opens Monday, October 9, at Exposition Grounds.

In order to dispose of the furnishings that were purchased for the use of the American Inn during the short time of the exposition period, it has been decided to give the housekeepers, boarding-house proprietors and hotel men of Portland an opportunity to purchase these goods at undoubtedly the lowest prices, so that when the opportunity came for disposing of the same they would be in condition to tempt even the most fastidious. The bedding, sheets, towels, chairs, etc., were purchased in large quantities and at astonishingly low prices. Every effort was made to select goods of durable and unquestioned quality, and the inn was particularly fortunate in this respect. The furnishings, chairs, tables, linen, dishes and silverware, were commented upon for their quality by visitors from all parts of the country. It was commonly a matter of topic that such excellent furnishings should be found in an institution of a temporary character.

The wisdom, however, of this policy has been amply demonstrated owing to the great interest which has already been exhibited by housekeepers and others who need to replenish their furnishings and who wish to secure first-class articles at most reasonable and unexpected prices.

The sale of the furnishings will begin on Monday, October 9, at the American Inn and full particulars will be given by courteous employees at the inn under the direction of Mrs. McCready, the manager.

The furnishings include bedding, sheets, pillow cases, blankets, comforters, towels of exceptionally good quality, bath towels and mats, tables, tray stands, silver, glass, linen and dishes suitable for private families (if desired), ranges, steam boilers, refrigerator, dish warmers, ice cream outfit, boilers complete, matting, curtains, carpets, etc.

Purchasers will be allowed to buy in small quantities from a single dozen napkins, if desired, up to over five or six hundred dozen or any line of goods complete.

The building will be sold in its entirety, including all the furnishings, if any one purchaser desires to buy in this manner. It is unquestionably true, however, that in the decision to dispose of goods in very small quantities the public of the city is presented with an excellent opportunity and a large and enthusiastic crowd of purchasers is expected at the inn Monday morning.

Music at Trinity Church. Carl Denton, organist of Trinity church, will include the following selections in the programs of today: Morning service at 11 a. m.—"Andante" (Tschalkowsky); "The Lost Chord" (Sullivan); "Souvenir de Procession" (Gullmant). Evening service at 7:30 p. m.—"Angel's Serenade" (Brass); "Pilgrims Chorus" (Wagner); "Hymn of the Nuns" (Wely); "Grand Chorus in G" (Salome).

THE GREAT FIRE SALE

Of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Men's Furnishing Goods and Men's and Women's Shoes, the success of which has not been approached before in the history of Portland merchandising, has demonstrated to thousands of ladies and gentlemen that

WE HAVE BEEN SELLING CLOTHING AND SHOES AT LESS THAN 25 PER CENT OF THEIR ACTUAL WORTH!

We have simply stifled all competition. None of the stores of Portland have attempted to equal us. It is said that we are foolish for selling goods so low, when we might double the prices and yet "skin" all other dealers. But we will not raise values on this stock. We will sell every dollar's worth at the identical figures we started out with, no matter what others may say.

WE WERE PAID $23,517.35 INSURANCE MONEY
And we took this into consideration in making up our prices. We are not losers on this deal. The insurance companies' money lets us out of the hole, and our friends are reaping the benefits therefrom.
