GOVERNMENT MONTHLY REPORT ON COTTON

Washington, D. C., Oct. 10.—Government cotton report: Over most of the belt for the week ending October 9 the weather was favorable for picking cotton. Raims interrupted the picking during the early part of the week in portions of Texas, Oklahoma, Mississippi and Florida, and in local areas in Alabama and Mississippi. Reports indicate the general condition over most of the cotton area is but slightly damaged as compared with the previous week. A slight deterioration is shown in Florida and portions of the central and eastern districts, where insects have been very destructive. The boll weeville are reported in increased numbers in Texas.

FIVE ON TRIAL FOR MURDER AT CHEHALIS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Chehalis, Wash., Oct. 10.—Before Superior Judge A. E. Rice yesterday afternoon Joe Kachiski pleaded guilty to manslaughter. Kachiski and four Polak countrymen, John Guerla, Mike Guerla, August Spindol and George Chroback, were charged jointly with murdering Joseph Bonnett, another Polander, Sunday night, July 16. Bonnett was beaten to death with a club and stones about half a mile west of Pe Ell as he was going to his home at McCormick. The cases against the Guerla brothers and Spindol were dismissed. Chroback, who is a brother-in-law of Kachiski, refused to plead guilty and will be tried Friday. The trial will be by aid of an interpreter as the prisoner and many of the witnesses, including the discharged prisoners, do not speak English.

This is the threat that Carlo Bonando is said to have made in the presence of Louie and Peter Feraris one evening several weeks before Bonando was killed. During the trial of Louie Feraris, charged with murdering Bonando, Peter Feraris, a brother of the accused, occupied the witness stand nearly all morning. He said that he had heard the threat made by Carlo.

The witness also testified that he had heard Carlo Bonando threaten the life of Louis Feraris, saying that if he caught him down town some night he would kill him. Peter Feraris said that he did not know why Carlo was so angry unless it was because Louie had taken his sister away from the Bonando home one evening when she was visittaken his sister away from the Bonando home one evening when she was visiting there. The two families were neighbors. The witness also testified that he had seen the knife offered as evidence in Bonando's possession many times before the killing.

"Is your brother Louie a quarrelsome boy or a peaceable one?" was asked Peter.

"He "is

Peter. ... "He is a good boy and even if one would strike him with his fists he would do nothing," was the reply.

When asked by Deputy District Attorney Moser why he had not told of the alleged threats made by Bonando at the coroner's inquest, the withess replied: "A man cannot remember everything."

Peter declared that he never knew that his brother owned a revolver. He said that on the evening of the killing he had given his brother $10. When Louie was arrested after having shot Bonando more than $100 is said to have been found in his pockets. Attorney Long, who is assisting Mr. Moser, this morning said that the state would show that Feraris had this money with him to heip him make his escape after shootto help him make his escape after sho

Mrs. Ralph Duncan testified that on the night of the killing she had seen Bromberger with a bleycle on Sheridan street, between Fearth and Third streets right after she heard the shots fired. W. H. Foss, who also claims to have heard the shots, said that he did not see Bromberger. Bromberger was the first witness for the defense; he testified that he had seen Bonando strike Feraris several terrific blows before the latter fired.

Dr. C. Candisni, local Italian consul, testified regarding the pronunciation of the words. "Don't kill me," in the Piedmontese and the Italian tongues. By illustration he showed that they were not at all alike.

A state's witness testified that a few minutes before the shots were fired he had heard Bonando exclaim, "Don't kill me," but that the words were spoken in the Italian Tongue. It is claimed by the defense that this could not be, as the two would have conversed in Piedmontese. ledmontese.
The defense scored an important point yesterday efternoon. Frank Gacatto, who conducts a frocery store on the cor-ner of Fourth and Sheridan freets, tes-tified that Bonando, Sr., father of Carlo and John Bonando, had purchased a 50-gallon barrel of wine on July 6 last, 15 days before Carlo was killed. Gecatto said that the empty barrel was returned
