COUNTRY IS TERROR
STRICKEN AT RAVAGES

Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 13.—According to advices received by Governor Yezzer of Sonora, a band of Yaqui Indians battered a whole family on the El Panasco ranch, near Carbo, belonging to Victor Aguilar, a prominent landowner of Hermosillo.

Rosendo Lopez, major demo of the ranch, his wife and three children were literally cut to pieces by the savages.
A cowboy named Crispin and his son, who put up a desperate fight, likewise met death at the hands of the redskins.
Lopez was blind and carried a babe in his arms, but the Yaquis slaughtered them both. One cowboy succeeded in outriding the Indians and escaping to the ranch Noria del Verde.

ANARCHY ALMOST RULES
IN CITY OF MOSCOW

Moscow, Russia, Oct. 13.—With agitators openly preaching a revolution, and the extension of the strike to a number of large furniture factories, the situation in this city is almost one of complete anarchy. Bands of strikers parade from shop to shop, calling and forcing workmen to join them. Numerous conflicts between rioters and police occur, resulting quite often in injuries and death.

BIDS REFERRED TO
CORVALLIS COMMITTEE

Corvallis, Or., Oct. 12.—At a meeting Tuesday night bids were opened for construction material for the mountain water system of Corvallis. The matter was referred to a committee composed of Messrs. Woodcock, Lees and Eng-leer Miller. They will report at a special meeting tonight. The 5 per cent bondage were readjusted and bids will be opened October 16.

EXCELLENT FRUIT IS RAISED IN WALLOWA

Wallowa, Or., Oct. 12.—A splendid cluster of ripe tomatoes, ten in number, weighing 66 ounces, was grown by Matt Stables on his homestead near Lovely, seven miles from here. They were fully developed and grew on one main stem in a manner that one in the center was entirely hidden by the other nine, which ranged from 11 to 14 inches in circumference and averaged six ounces each.

POLICE USED TO FORCE
CONTRACT IN COUNCIL

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 12.—Guarded by police, the Omaha councilmen were forced to remain in the chamber last night and see a bill passed by the majority providing for a 10-year contract with the Omaha Gas company to furnish illuminating gas to the city. After roll call President Zimman and Councilmen Nicholson and O'Brien started to leave, but were forced to remain to keep the quorum intact.

CARRYING FORWARD
WAR ON SALOONS

Albany, Or., Oct. 12.—Superintendent G. L. Tufts of the Anti-Saloon league has delivered addresses at Sheehy, where the synod of the United Presbyterian church is in session, and at Eugene before the Baptist convention. Tufts says that the organization is preparing for a systematic fight against the saloons in the spring and that an effort will be made to extend local prohibition.

SHOT FOR A DEER
BY HIS COMPANION

Baker City, Or., Oct. 12.—Albert Hueker was shot by his companion, Ross Green, who mistook him for a deer while hunting in a canyon near Durkee Monday. Green bound up the wound and went for assistance, but when they returned Hueker had crawled into the undergrowth in his delirium and could not be located. He was finally found Tuesday with both feet frozen and almost dead. He may recover.
