Oregon Agrics Will Put Powerful Team in Against Their Washington Brethren.

WILL REPRESENT TEAM OF SEASONED PLAYERS

Coach Steckle Will Send His Best Men Against Visitors-Willamette's Defeat of Pullman Yesterday Will Compel Corvallis to Work Hard.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Corvailts, Oct. 19.—Local interest is a considerable tension over the game re next Saturday afternoon between ne elevens of the state colleges of Wasirngton and Oregon. Nearly all the mem bers of the team played together last were only beaten by the narrowest marins by Idaho and the University of Washington, in the case of the latter team only by a goal kick.

The team that Dr. Steckle will put on the field against them is an aggretion of seasoned veterans, probably last Christmas. The team work may not be quite so perfect, and the speed will probably not be quite so great, but in all other respects the team will be superior. Every player in the line is a veteran, with a captain and ex-captain of the Albany college eleven as units the Albany college eleven as units in the phalanx. These are Sam Dolan, right tackle, and John L. Griffith, who, ight tackle, and John L. Griffith, who, rith Emily and Kenneth Cooper, will has the ends, or if need be, do stunts a halfback, at which position Griffith very capable. Lawrence and Dolan fill be the regular tackles, Dunlap and hundy the regular guards, and Dow Valker center, with an abundance of ood men available for all these places good men available for all these places in case of emergency.

The backs will be the same that played in the Christmas game on Multinomah field. They are Root, right half; Williams, left half; Rinehart, quarter, and Abraham, called here the "pile-driving Swede." fullback. Three of these backs have a stripped weight of 53 pounds and they are fairly speedy. Best of all, however, as a resource for the game, is the belief that the defense of the team is of a quality never before attained here. It is yet new, and the attained here. It is yet new, and the occasion early for certain measurement of what this defense really is, but Dr. Steckie's own belief is that, barring accidents, it will show to a good advantage in Saturday's game, and also against the University of California in the game at Berkeley the following Sat-

UMPIRE'S DECISIONS

Local Fans Blame Ed Rankin for the Loss of Yesterday's Game to 'Frisco.

San Francisco 4, Portland 2. Batteries-Williams and Wilson; Esick and McLean.

Ed Rankin was given a warm reception at Recreation park yesterday, the fans thinking that Ed was not in favor of the home team. Of course no one will ever be able to say that Ed is dishonest, because he has always borne a reputation for honesty and fair play. It's hard to please a home crowd when the home team loses through errors and other things. It looks to the fair-minded that Ed would not intentionally give Portland a rough deal, because he was the lone man in that entire engagement yesterday who was a real representative of Portland. The rest were strangers. Even if things did go against Portland,

Ed Rankin is too loyal a Portlander to add to local misery by rubbing it in. One must consider that umpires are as fallible as players, and that a team making five errors, one of which is responsible for two runs, and a passed ball for another run, has very little license to win a game, especially when the other team plays erroriess ball. Anyway, the game was lost, the crowd was angry, McCredie was chased to the clubhouse and mean things were said about Rankin. This is the sad, sad story merely this and nothing. story, merely this and nothing more. Here is the official tabulation: PORTLAND.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

The Willamette 'varsity eleven de-feated the Pullman team yesterday aft-ernoon on the Willamette gridiron by the score of 11 to 6. The game was the hardest-fought contest ever witnessed in the capital city and it was won through superior generalship and bet-ter team work at the earliest stages. The Pullman men were flushed with their successes in several games, and were confident of defeating Willamette, thereby adding one more scalp in the quest for northwest championship hon-ors. It was a truly great game of football. The young men charged with great force, tackled unerringly and ran with daring and judgment. Willamette, in tight places, showed better training, though in several instances their quarthough in several instances their quar-terback gave impossible plays, on the third down with four and five yards to go, when a punt was most necessary. Pullman's quarterback was also at fault Pullman's quarterback was also at fault in this respect, missing several good chances to drive the ball far into the opponents' territory. Pullman got off, her plays faster than Willamette, but the interference was oftentimes un-wieldy, causing the man with the ball to stumble. Willamette fumbled a number of times, and didn't recover one. In punting Willamette outkicked Pullman.

Pullman worked the Salem boys to a standstill on trick plays. Tackle would be sent around tackle, while the interference would swing the opposite way, and a number of times the Willamette ends were drawn in, once with fatal results, when the fake allowed Pullman to score. The score was 6 to 6 at the end of the first half. The game was cleanly played, but two penalties being inflicted, Pullman being punished 30 yards for holding. No prettier game was ever played in this section of the country, and Corvallis and Oregon had better look to thir laurels. Both Pullments are very formid. and Willamette are very formid-
