Year. "I am the only Oregon man who is interested in the proposed road," said Mr. Sheridan, after the council meeting yesterday. "Eastern capital is back of this enterprise. Our first work will be to build the road from Portland to Salem and after a time extend it to Eugene. It will be a standard-gauge road, equipped somewhat after the manner of the Oregon Water Power & Railway the Oregon Water Power & Rallway company's line up the Clackamas river.

"We are of the opinion that our pro-posed road fully equipped will cost in the neighborhood of $1,500,000. We have not made our surveys yet, and will not do so until the city council grants the franchise for a road in this city. That is what we are now after. As soon as we get that we will go to work." The franchise petition was referred to the street committee.

A rumble is heard in the background, the hurrying clatter of horses' hoofs, and then the race is disclosed to the audience. Twa

The Names of Those Who Got Them, and Further Particulars. Sale of Exposition Pianos at the House of Eilers Attracting Keen Judges of Piano Values From Everywhere. Yesterday the Biggest of All Big Days

The word 'busy' was never before for thoroughly exemplified than at the bilers Plano House yeaterday. Three or for years ago the sale of a single Baby for the sale of a single Baby for the sale of a single Baby for the sale of the single Baby alued at $750, $800 and $1,000, respec-tively, were disposed of at Ellers Plano house, in addition to which no less han 32 fine Planois Planos, Planos, Pla-bas and Organs found buyers: every for the sales department was busy for the sale department was busy for the

Became Excited.

Became Excited. In one instance two callers were par-ticularly anxious to secure a certain in-strument, and the second gentleman, who spoke for it a little later than the other, even offered a bonus in excess of the sale price to secure it. Neverthe-less, he was informed by the manage-ment that this could not be done, all planos being marked in plain figures, and thus the instrument was sold to the first gentleman who had asked for it. This is only one instance of how quickly competent judges of plano worth seize upon the beautiful instruments offered at these cut prices during this sale. A Regular Portland Day. A Regular Portland Day.

several buyers delaying their final de-cision. Stop and think a moment. Ellers Plano House actually sells in one day as many instruments as some dealers, with quite pretentious establishments, too, would consider a fair yearly output. Don't you realize how it is that Ellers Plano House is in a position to sell each plano at a very small margin over ac-cual cost? Is 4 to be wondered at that Ellers Plano House can furnish a retail buyer a good, reliable, warranted mu-sical instrument for less money than what the average dealer pays for them at the factory? COMMITTEE AGAIN DODGES

Both Vaughn and Gray Measures Are Referred Back, Several Being Undecided.

Again the box ordinances have been referred back to the liquor license com-mittee to be doctored. The opposing factions in the council were affaid to have their respective ordinances voted on yesterday, as several councilmen were undecided.

It was said that the Vaughn measure had gained strength since the meeting of the committee Monday, when four members of the committee recommended the Gray ordinance and three decided on a minority report favoring the Vaughn ordinance. Although Council-man Annand voted for the Gray ordi-nance in the committee meeting it was reported yesterday that he had decided to support the Vaughn measure. Coun-climan Menefee was still undecided and other councilmen who had not read the Gray measure declared they would not vote until they knew what they were voting for. It was said that the Vaughn measure

The provisions of the two ordinances are practically the same, but if is al-leged that the Gray measure is loosely constructed and would never stand in a court. The Vaughn supporters agreed to eliminate hallways from saloons and the Gray supporters decided to exempt-hotels. All the ordinances and amendments which have been introduced will be sifted down to one ordinance and it is thought that at the next meeting of the iquor license committee the warfare over the box ordinance will be ended by all the members voting to recommend the reconstructed measure to the coun-cil.
