

EVERY ADVERTISED VALUE IS INTENSELY INTERESTING

Here's Stirring News of Special Values, Seasonable and Timely for Saturday Shoppers, in Combination With A GRAND FASHION SHOW, Illustrating Highest Expression of Acknowledged Authorities on REIGNING MODES FOR WOMEN

Ethics of Modern Store-Keeping

The following from an eminent retail merchandising authority—no less than the "DRY GOODS ECONOMIST," issue of August 16—voices the sentiment of the country, or that part of it interested in progress and improvement in store-keeping, along the lines of early closing. As this store has been, and stands today, a leader in the early closing movement—and stands alone so far as other stores are concerned locally—this comment by the leading dry goods authority in the world may be of interest to our readers. We reproduce it verbatim:

"After every possible argument had been brought to bear upon retailers, it has become a pretty general custom for stores in all the principal cities, at least, not to keep open at night. It is very disappointing, therefore, to find that one of Buffalo's leading department stores has decided to remain open until 10 o'clock Saturday nights in the future. IT IS TO BE HOPED, IN THE INTEREST OF THE SALESPERSON AND THE TRADE IN GENERAL, THAT NONE OF THE OTHER STORES WILL FOLLOW SUIT, AND THAT THE CONCERN REFERRED TO WILL RECONSIDER ITS DECISION."

PUBLIC OPINION is ever on the side of RIGHT after all, when PUBLIC OPINION KNOWS THE RIGHT. We are sincerely thankful to our great public for their loyal support in our campaign for PRINCIPLE, and shall go on in the fight for shorter hours for store helpers as brought about by early closing until the movement becomes general and the sentiment unanimous among the better class of stores of our city. In doing Saturday shopping of course our patrons will bear in mind that THIS STORE IS NOT OPEN EVENINGS. WE CLOSE AT 6 P. M.

Chat On Clothes-Craft OF INTEREST TO DRESSY WOMEN

A TALE OF SMARTLY FASHIONED SUITS—WOMAN-PLANNED BUT MAN-TAILORED.

Stocks splendidly ready for a fresh onslaught each day of eager buyers who are quick to discern surpassing values as distributed to the patrons of PORTLAND'S LARGEST, FOREMOST APPAREL STORES FOR WOMEN. Cloth is dear; will get dearer and dearer until sheep are clipped again. The world is eighty million sheep short; more than that—we've eighty million less than ten years ago, while demand for wool is increasing. Result: So much trickery in cloths that one has to choose her store carefully. In choosing our suits we start with the cloth. That must be the best, then comes the tailoring—a point that's made this store famous—it must be faultless and absolutely style correct. Woman planned styles, which accounts for their beauty, man tailored, which explains their absolute correctness, in all—sensible. The apparel stores on Second Floor are full to overflow of what critics at large pronounce the best display of women's authoritative style apparel in all the west. Suits for living in, gowns for social functions, coats and wraps for every occasion—ditto waists, petticoats and skirts; furs for these chilly days—but our story today is of some
