SOCIETY BUSY PLANNING WINTER CAMPAIGN

the summer months. And the fair, in since its closing, has not been shout its attractions though at best is become a harren place. The form buildings have offered blandishmats to many prominent society folkring the sales.

Mrs. Schuyler and Mrs. Alvord leave morrow for the east. Mrs. Allen Lewis it seek her winter rest in California take has not yet made her plans and y delay her departure till after the ristmas holidays. The approaching Halloween season is ing talked of and there will be a mber of interesting entertainments nong the younger folk as is always a case. The Thanksgiving season will low closely upon that with its festivies and its few days of respite for stunts. It is said that before that time air will be full of weddings and pld can look upon his finished work. It is said that before that time is marriage of Governor Chamberlain, to his athern fiances. Miss Deborah Boatan, is set for November 29. Miss Pat-Bryan's marriage is expected to take are in early November and a number the other bappy engagements that ye been announced recently will be nsummated soon. There are some defitted exposition engagements which see the few knowing ones chuckle with light, but they cannot yet be made lown.

A good deal of farewell entertaining

ide.

a. Adelia B. Scott, who has acted hief hostess of the Idaho building ughout the entire season, left Monevening and there was a large coof friends at the depot to bid her peed. Mrs. Scott had the reputation sing one of the loveliest and most lectual women at the exposition, to nothing of her beauty.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

One of the pleasant occasions of the exposition commission and others connected with the fair was on last Tuesday evening, when at Walter Shaw's beautiful axhibit room on Washington street they met to do honor to Edyth Tozier Weathered and Mrs. J. J. Morgan. These two women have spent the entire sumer in an endeavor to entertain our guests, and the many speeches and the presentation to each of a dozen solid silver spoons and an autograph album containing the names of all those prominently connected with the fair, demonstrated that their efforts to entertain had not been in vain. The remarks by Senator Fairbanks of Massachusetts showed the appreciation of western hospitality. He stated that Mrs. Weathered and Mrs. Morgan had done much to form a favorable impression for Oregon and to acquaint the commissioners to form a favorable impression for Oregon and to acquaint the commissioners with one another than could possibly have been done in any other way excepting by the weekly outings. The clam and salmon bakes and crawfish suppers on the bank of the river, the launching parties, the trips to coast and valley towns, all combined to make a pleasing and instructive summer. "We leave," said Senator Fairbanks, "with the kindest impression of Oregon."

Colonel Filcher of California remarked that he knew before he came to Portland that the California people would have a pleasant time because Mrs. Weatherred lived here; she had been forsmost in the social whirl at other expesitions and was ever arranging pleasant outings, not only for the western delegations, but for all the commissioners. Mrs. Weatherred, he declared, had been the means of bringing the commission in closer ties of friendship than all other arrangements put together.

Commissioner Wiggins of California and many others had much praise to friendship than all other arrangements put together.

Commissioner Wiggins of California and many others had much praise to give Mrs. Weathered and Mrs. Morgan, and they each responded in appropriate remarks. Mrs. Weathered stated it was the duty of every citizen to give all the time that could be spared to the visitors and that all personal grievances. disappointments and short-sighted arguments should not be magnified, but crowded back as far out of sight as possible, and we should improve the opportunities that confront us and do our duty to our guests. Mrs. Weatherred had known a great many of those connected with the exposition at others where she has been Oregon's commissioner, and, as she stated, she had done everything in her power to get them here; she had exploited the many attractions of her city and state, now it had been her duty to make her word good and give them an opportunity to sajoy them. Mrs. Weatherred's remarks were highly appreciated, and none hesitated to say she has certainly been properly titled "the western hostess."

Mrs. Fielding S. Kelly was among the entertainers of last week and gave her first big function since her trip to the orient last spring. Friday, a week ago, she entertained about 30 of her younger women friends, both married and unmarried. Thursday of last week a pretty afternoon, included some 60 guests of her older friends and a similar affair Fgidsy was given for as many more. In the first afternoon Mrs. Allen Ellsworth and Mrs. James Watt poured and Mrs. Sanderson Reed served ices in the drawing-room. Friday Mrs. George S. Whiteside and Miss Glisan poured and Miss Grace Warren and Mrs. Sanderson Reed assisted in the dining-room.

CLAIRE MONTEITH

Mrs. Henry W. Goode, Who Goes East Today.

initiated through the medium of delicious coffee after an evening of cards and dancing. Every one played "500" and prizes were awarded Mrs. Charles F. Fisher and Dr. W. I. Northrup. Acting as reception committee were Miss Mabel Goss, Miss Lillian Fox and Mrs.
Leiter, and the house-furnishing committee, Walter Goss, C. H. Leadbetter and William Woodard, assisted them.
Dancing followed cards and Mrs. William K. Scott sang a number of pleasing songs. The evening was altogether a charming one and a good introduction for many pleasant evenings to follow at the pretty clubhouse. On Halloween one of the more elaborate affairs will be given for club members.

Colonel Henry Altman, who was president of the New York commission, entertained friends at a dinner for eight at the Portland, Monday evening. Mrs. J. N. Dolph chaperoned the party. Among the guests were Miss Maud Hammell, Mrs. Calef. niece of Major Burkhart; Mr. McClurg and Major James McI. Wood. After dinner Mrs. Calef sang delightfully, and Miss Hammell, who has been assisting hostess at the Idaho building the past six weeks, gave a dramatic reading, which was received with marked enthusiasm. Miss Hammell's talents have met with much praise here and, coupled with charming unaffectedness and graceful dignity, give her a personality which all have found it a delight to know. She left for her home Tuesday evening at Nez Perce. Idaho, where she will remain for some time. Her mother's poor health leaves her winter's plans still in doubt, though she has received a number of excellent touring offers.

Mrs. John Shepard entertained at bridge Friday afternoon in honor of her guest. Mrs. E. H. Houghton of San Francisco. There were 10 tables and prises of beautiful hand-made workbags were awarded the highest score winner at each table. The guests were Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Clarence Nichols, Mrs. J. G. Gould, Miss Mead, Mrs. Warren Houghton, Mrs. Arthur Minott, Miss Flanders, Miss Louise Flanders, Miss Hoyt, Miss King. Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, Mrs. E. H. Brooke, Mrs. William McMaster, Mrs. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. Henry Nunn, Miss Whailey, Mrs. Samuel Heltshu, Miss Heltshu, Miss Beltshu, Miss Josephi, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. R. Lea Barnes, Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. N. E. Ayer, Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Mrs. N. E. Ayer, Mrs. Ernest Tucker, Mrs. Fred Page, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Zera Bnow, Mrs. Charles E. Chenery, Mrs. James Leidlaw, Miss Stott, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Mrs. William Brewster, Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mrs. Morton Insley and Mrs. J. K. Kollock.

The Tuesday afternoon club was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. A. Bailey, 1516 Hawthorne avenue, on Tuesday last. The program which begins the second year's study of an extended course in English literature, was in charge of the hostess. Quotations from Henry VIII were given in response to rollcall. An excellent paper on "Social and Political Conditions in the Time of Henry VIII" was read by Mrs. Stiles. Mrs. Smith told of the value of Henry VIII to England. An interesting account of the humorists in England was given by Mrs. Dunham.

During the social hour which followed light refreshments were served by the

During the social hour which followed light refreshments were served by the hostess. A pleasant feature of the afternoon was the report of Mrs. Stallings, a delegate to the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which met early in the month at Eugene.

Mrs. G. H. Eshelman, will entertain the club next week at her home, 317 Eugene street.

by Mr. and Mrs. Learn during their four years' stay at Montavills.

During that time the church building has been enlarged and beautified and many have been added to the church.

who leaves tomorrow for the winter. Yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves gave the color tone. Her guests were, besides Mrs. Schuyler, Mrs. A. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, her sister, Mrs. Msson; Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. Henry Jones, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Joseph K. Clark, Mrs. J. G. Gould and Mrs. Raleigh Stott.

The first Patton home tea of the year was given Tuesday afternoon and many friends called. The rooms were bright with bowls of scarlet geraniums and the tea tables looked especially pretty with their brilliant garnitures. Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, president of the board, and Mrs. Charles King received the guests, and Mrs. C. C. Rose and Mrs. W. R. Ladd poured tea. A program of music and readings continued throughout the afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Alden Beals and Miss Maebelle Names.

Prominent among fraternal events of the week was the autumn ball given by Astra circle, Women of Woodcraft, last Thursday evening at Woodman hall. The arrangement of the decorations of autumn leaves with the colors of the order and miniature campfires blended into a beautiful color scheme that added much to the galety of the occasion-Astra's guests numbered 140 couptes, and the affair was such an unqualified success that an effort will be made toward arranging for another party in December.

An adjourned meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Taylor Street Methodist church was held last Wednesday in the church was held last Wednesday in the church parlors. Officers were elected thus: Mrs. J. E. Bennett, president; Mrs. W. H. Pope, vice-president; Mrs. Amadee Smith, secretary; Mrs. George Cooper, tressurer. A social meeting followed and the afternoon was much enjoyed. The next meeting will be on the first Monday in November.

Company B. O. N. G., held its first dance this season Friday evening and the Armory was well filled. The hall was draped with flags, Japanese umbrellas and lanterns and Filipino brooms. The O. N. G. band furnished the music. All invitations will be out before the next dance, November 19.

Eureka council No. 204, K. and L. of S., chartered a car Tuesday evening which carried about 45 members, includ-ing installing officers, to Oregon City. The latter assisted in the installation of officers of Oregon City council. An

Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett entertained Commissioner and Mrs. Wilson H. Fairbank at luncheon Friday. Mrs. Mason sister of Mrs. H. W. Corbett, and Mr. Mason were among the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Fairbank will be in the city till the first of the month completing Massachusetts affairs at the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lowis gave small dinner Friday night as a farewel to exposition offices and conditions Mr. and Mrs. Goode, Mr. Hardes and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood were guests.

WEDDINGS.

moon yesterday in St. Mary's church when Miss Marie Helens Rahles was united in marriage to Austin Osburn. The solemn but beautifully impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Father John Waters, before a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

"The bride was presented at the sitar by her brother, Albert W. Rahles, and the matron of honor was Mrs.J. Adrian Epping. The maids of honor were Miss Maud Rahles and Miss Kate Cahalin. W. F. Gratke acted as best man and the ushers were Robert McLean and Harry D. Gray.

"The Church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, ferns, autumn leaves and English laurel being used. The bride's gown was of liberty satin, with a garniture of Irish point lace. She carried a bouquet of Bride roses.

"To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal cortege marched to the elter Miss Missie Breede week. to the altar, Miss Minnie Brooks pre-siding at the organ. A baritone sole "O Promise Me," was sung by J. A. Ep ing their permanent home in this city.

"The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Albert Rahles of Portland and a niece of Mrs. Elese Rahles Devlin. The groom is well known in this city, where he has lived for a number of years. Both have hosts of friends who will unite in wishing them a happy married career.

"Among those who attended from Portland were Mrs. Albert Rahles, Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Rahles, Miss Maud Rahles, Miss Kate Cahalin, Miss. Sadie Conway, Miss Marguerite A. Casey and Mr. and Mrs. J. Adrian Epping."

The first Patton home tea of the year was given Tuesday afternoon and many friends called. The rooms were bright with bowls of scarlet geraniums and the tea tables looked especially pretty with their brilliant garnitures. Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, president of the board, and Mrs. C. C. Rose and Mrs. W. R. Ladd poured tea. A program of music and readings continued throughout the afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Alden Beals and Miss Maebelle Names.

The ladies of the Second Baptist church met in annual session at the home of Mrs. Macharitur on October 11. Reports of the work of the past year were encouraging. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Riebhoff, president; Mrs. Prink, vice-president; Mrs. Bruce, treasurer, and Mrs. Happersett, secretary. Following the business session was a social hour. The hostess served delicious refreshments and entertained in a delightful manner.

Prominent among fraternal events of the week was the autumn ball given by Astra circle, Women of Woodcraft, last Thursday evening at Woodcraft and the presence of about 40 guests, after which adapty luncheon was service with the presence of about 40 guests, after which adapty luncheon was serv

A pretty home wedding took place Tuesday evening, October 17. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fournier, 1490 East Eighth street north. when their daughter, Maggie Fournier, was married to George W. Stitt, Rev. Arden M. Rockwood of Highland Congregational church, read the ring service, The bridal party stood in a bower of flowering plants under a bell of smilax and white carnations. The other rooms were decorated in red and green.

A sister of the bride, Miss Florence Fournier, was bridesmaid, and Spencer Fournier, was bridesmaid, and Spencer Fournier, her brother, attended the groom. Other relatives were present, The bride wore her traveling gown of gray and her only ornament was a gold cross, the groom's gift. After the ceremony, supper was served in the dining-room.

Mr. and Mrs. Stitt left on the night train for a tour which will include the train for a tour which will include the sound cities and British Columbia. After that they will be at home in the city.

Miss Bertha E. Elston was married with a simple ceremony last Sunday evening to Bobert W. Kent at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret A. Elston, in Montavilla. Rev. William S. Gilbert officiated at the ceremony. Miss Olive C. Sherman was bridesmaid and Dale Rees was groomsman. About 20 guests were present.

Miss Elvira Lee and Lorenzo D. Ewing were married at the manse of Calvary Presbyterian church last Wednesday evening, Rev. William S. Gilbert officiat-ing. Mr. and Mrs. Ewing will spend six weeks in eastern Washington and

Loew, both of Marion county, Indians were married at 271 College street, by Rev. Henry A. Barden, last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Loew will make their home in Seattle. Henry A. Lytle and Mis Caroline W. Freudenthal, both of Washington county, this state, where they will continue to reside, were married by Dr. Clarence True Wilson of Grace Methodist churc

Miss Carolyn C. Bruce and Charles Cain of San Francisco were married at Calvary Presbyterian manse Thursday, with Rev. W. S. Gilbert officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Cain will live in San Francisco.

Miss Susie Vander and Victor J. Green, both of Seattle, were married by Rev. William S. Gilbert at Calvary Pres-byterian manse last Saturday noon.

Miss Josephine Wilson and William A. Johnson were married by Dr. F. Bur-gette Short at 221 Eleventh stret Tuesday. They will live in the city.

Miss Elizabeth Butzer and Charles L Winters were married Tuesday by Dr. F. B. Short at 585 Montgomery street. They will reside in Portland.

Miss Gertrude Jackson and A. A. Young were married at the Taylor Street M. E. parsonage Thursday by Dr. F. Burgette Short.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Invitations are out for an introduc-tory recital at First Unitarian chapel by Miss Dorothea Nash, pianist, assisted by Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodle, con-tralto, next Saturday evening. The pro-

by Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie, contralto, next Saturday evening. The program follows:

Piano (a) "Gigue and Gavotte" (Corelli, 1658), (b) "Etude in B flat minor" (Mendelssohn), (c) "Noveilette No. 5" (Schumann); arietta, "Non Posso Disperar" (De Luca, 1516); piano (a) "Impromptu in F sharp major (Chopin), (b) "Preludes in G major, F major, A major and C sharp minor" (Chopin); songs. (a) "Home Sickness" (Hugo Wolf), (b) "The Wandering Minstrel" (Hugo Wolf), (e) "May Night" (Johasin Brahms); piano, (a) "Dawn," arranged from Indian melody (Arthur Farwell), (b) "Etinceiles" (Sparks, Mosskowski), (c) "Consolation," in E major (Liszt), (d) "Fruehlingsrauschen" ("Rustle of Spring" (Sinding); songs. (a) "The Maiden and the Butterfly" (d'Albert), (b) "Thy Name" (Mary Knight Wood), (c) "Spanish Love Song" (Chaminade); piano, "Abendastimmungen, 1-2 "Evening Thoughts") (Scharwenka); "Rhapsodie in D minor" (Brahms).

sodie in D minor" (Brahms).

Mrs. Imogen Harding-Brodie and Miss Hilda Hegele gave a complimentary musicale to the pupils of Mrs. Walter Reed Saturday afternoon at Aeolian hall. Both young women were in fine voice. E. E. Coursen proved a perfect accompanist. Following is the program: "Die Lorelei" (Liszt); "Aus Meinen Grossen Schmerzen" (Franz); "Madel, Wie Bluhtz" (Nevin), Miss Hegele; "Non Posso Disperar" (De Luca); "Indeed, Most Wond'rous It Must Be" (Ries); "Die Mainacht" (Brahms); "The Vaiss Suit" (Brahms), Mrs. Brodie; "Les Adieux Du Berger" (Godard); "Serenade" (Seppfill); "What Is Love" (Owst); "Jeunes Fillettes," old French (Bergerette), Miss Hegele; "Thy Name" (Mary Knight Wood); "When Love Is Gone" (Byford F. Ryan); "Turn Ye to Me" (Scotch Folk Song); "All Through the Night" (Welsh Folk Song), Mrs. Brodie.

Miss Elisabeth Loreta Sill, Whose Engagement Is Announced.

the president and Mrs. Fletcher Linn the secretary of the club.

Frederick W. Goodrich has arranged the following program of organ music for today's services at St. David's Episcopal church:

Morning—Prelude, adagio (H. Gotse); anthem, "The Lord Is Loving" (Garrett); offertory, Larghetto in F sharp minor (Wesley); postlude, "Marche Nuptiale" (Wesley).

(Wesley);
(Wely).

Evening—Prelude, andante religioso (Dreyschock); offertory, allegretto grazioso (Bydney-Smith); postlude in G major (Ch. Collip).

* * Portland Phil-

is now in rehearsal by special requ and it is hoped that a performance be given at Christmas with orchestra. Persons with good voices, willing to attend rehearsals regularly, will be gladly accepted as members. After the "Messiah" performance some works new to the Pacific northwest will Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton, contraite, appeared in recital at Corvallis Friday night under the auspices of the Sorosis Literary society of the Agricultural college. She was assisted by Miss Dorothea Nash, planist, who has just opened a studio in this city. Both performers are well known in Corvallis and were most enthusiastically received.

A "cafe chantant" will be held in St. David's church on Tuesday evening next id of the deficit on the choir mer camp. Several well-k ses will assist in the program.

STRAY BITS.

Friends are regretting the Illness of Mrs. Frank V. DuMond, which has lasted now for two or three weeks, and will necessitate her remaining here at her mother's home after the departure of Mr. DuMond. Her prolonged stay, by the way, is the only recompense, for now she will leave after the rush of the fair season and there will be opportunity for visits with her. She is much admired by her friends for her sweet manner and artistic disposition. Mr. DuMond will start east tomorrow and his wife will remain with Mrs. Henry Misses Helen and Jessie Reid of England, who recently arrived to spend the winter with their aunt, Mrs. J. Thowinter with their aunt, Mrs. J. Tho-burn Ross, were entertained list week by Mrs. W. B. Gilbert at her country home, Greenway, at Ridgefield, Wash-ington. Before that they spent a fort-night with friends in Astoria. They are being delightfully entertained, and are charming English girls.

Mrs. R. M. Schofield, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Page, on Portland Heights, will leave the latter part of this week with Major Schofield

Mrs. Carl Harbaugh of Seattle will remain a guest at the Williams home till the middle of next month. Bhe and Miss Williams are receiving solicitations on the illness of their father, Judge

Only the Best

Forsythe's Waists

Forsythe is the one waist tailor who has succeeded in putting so much art and grace in his garments that a single style is as suitable for an afternoon call as for an outing. They combine the very smart, dressy appearance with negligee com-fort. Being absolutely unshrinkable, their durability is remark-

Made in all the best materials adapted to general, outing and traveling uses, priced from THREE SEVENTY-FIVE

SEVEN FIFTY.

ROBINSON & CO. 289 Washington St.

The Needle Craft Shop 207-208 Alisky Building, Third and Morrison Street Take Elevator at 265 Morrison St.

The only shop in Portland devoted exclusively to Art Needlework and supplies, with a complete stock of new and up-to-date Pillow Slips, Center Pieces, Stamped Shirtwaists, Linens, etc. Portland Agency for

Richardson's Grand Prize Wash Embroidery Silks

FREE LESSONS IN EMBROIDERY EVERY DAY. Class in charge of Mrs. M. C. White, formerly with Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

SPECIALS THIS WEEK 18-inch Center Pieces in a variety of new designs, stamped on finest quality Art Linen; special 196

The Needle Craft Shop Suites 207-208 Allaky Building, Cor. Third and Morrison.