Great Silk Sale Continues

NEW LINES ARE BROUGHT FORWARD FOR FIRST SHOWING—Annex, Fifth Street.
 These are busy days in the Silk Store. Fashion has never known such a season for Silks—and it seems as tho' this store was doing most of the providing, not only for the wearers, but for the dressmakers, who in turn provide for their patrons. The dressmaker knows best silks and the store that carries them: one of the strongest proofs of the superiority of our stocks is that this house sells fully 90 per cent of Portland's leading modistes. But even with our splendid facilities we were unable to show the entire line of special values either last week or Monday—the balance goes on sale bright and early tomorrow morning. Silks galore—silks for street or evening wear at prices that must send hundreds hurrying here tomorrow. Read:

Correct Foot Dress

Smart Shoes for Dressy Men and Stylish Women

Two things are absolutely requisite in the dress of men who care for that personal appearance which means so much to success in life. No matter how carefully the tailor has looked to the clothes-craft of the garments that help to constitute a man's wardrobe, if the hatter and the shoemaker have not been called in then the effect is spoiled. A hat oft-times covers a multitude of sins of omission and commission in the male garb that a perfect fitting pair of smart shoes helps to excuse. It costs no more to dress the feet correctly and comfortably than it does to make them look gawkish and feel uncomfortable and really ill. But you must come to the store that knows how. This store is in the shoe business with all its might; is better equipped in every way than any other western store to do shoe business as it should be done. New models are here such as you'll see only in the leading footwear shops of the east—shapely, stylish lasts that are exclusive with Olds, Wortman & King in Portland. Yes—we're hot after the man's shoe trade and going to have it—the grapple are out—"STYLE" and LOWER-THAN-ELSEWHERE PRICES.

Of course, you know this great depot of footwear supply leads with HIGH-GRADE SHOES FOR WOMEN
 Even the exclusive shops cannot boast of a stock so large or diversified as here. Shoes at $3.50 are our leaders, better ones at $4, $5 and $6, to be sure—and cheaper ones at the lowest prices quoted in the city on shoes of QUALITY. But the shoes at $3.50 are invested with as much grace, as much style and as much exclusive character as any five-dollar shoe of which we know other than ours. Take, for instance, the world-famous "Gloria" Shoes, leader in quality and style—Queen of the Pingree family of shoes—yes, $3.50. A few distinctive mentions in SHOES FOR MEN. A RARE BARGAIN IN SHOES FOR WOMEN:

PORTLAND'S LARGEST AND FOREMOST DISTRIBUTORS OF WOMEN'S APPAREL.
 This store sells more garments for women's wear than ANY OTHER TWO PORTLAND STORES COMBINED! Strong statement, perhaps, but backed by FACTS. If in doubt, investigate. No wonder, then, we have such masterful control of the markets and are absolute arbiters of low prices on attire bearing the etiquette of STYLE and QUALITY. Monday's express brought to the store the largest single shipment of Women's Coats and Tailored Suits ever received by any western house. Sent on by our buyer—Miss L. Bernard—now in New York. We shall start tomorrow

SUITS in the lot of swell arrivals ranging up from..... $15 TO $75

Some with velvet collars edged with broadcloth, with gilt ornaments at lapel. Cut steel buttons seem favored by the makers. Broadcloths also figure in the materials. Sweeping Sale Women's Knit Underwear

Starts Wednesday—First Floor.
 The tremendous selling of the past month has reduced many lines to mere remnants—oddments and endments, as it were. Some of the best sellers cannot be replaced at this late day from the mills. We never allow our stocks to become encumbered by odd lots or ends of lines, rather a loss now—all at once, and over with. What seems a remnant to us would do some smaller stores for a line, and there's a plenty of all sizes for the individual patron. But we must close all broken lines and propose to do it in one determined, sweeping slaughter. It starts tomorrow. Thousands of dollars' worth of women's seasonable weights in new knit undergarments from the best and largest mills in America—also some grades of imported underwear at less than mill or import prices. All arranged for quick selling on one long special table in Knitwear Aisles—First Floor. Some of the special values are:

 A sale opens Wednesday morning in the Domestic Shop—First Floor—that should interest hundreds of housewives and prospective brides who have bed millinery to purchase. Especially when special sales are offered as here—tomorrow.
