

Grand Free Exhibit of the Famous Weller Group of Art Pottery From the Exposition

On the Third Floor. Those wishing to select pieces from this extraordinary exhibit of world-famous pottery celebrities may do so at a sharp reduction from Exposition prices. As an exhibit it is worth coming miles to view. The entire collection has been moved here from the Fair and may be seen now in its entirety, except what has been selected by connoisseurs the past four days. Articles priced at from 75c to $30 at the Exposition may now be had for HALF. Visit this FREE ART EXHIBIT FRIDAY. Take any elevator to Third Floor.

130th Grand Friday "Economy Sale"

The "Economy Sale" Is Just 2 1/2 Years Old Tomorrow

And what a sturdy lad he's grown—and a good lad, too; helping those in need of help, always willing, never failing, never disappointing. A little mischievous to be sure—raising ructions with competing neighbors and sending 'em to cover much like squawking hens before a lusty youngster who cries "Shoo!"—but, after all, we wouldn't any of us be without him. The people love him and he even serves to keep the wits of competition sharpened and its conscience awake. Yes, the "Economy Sale" has grown wonderfully—has wormed itself into an impregnable niche in the people's hearts. And now on this semi-yearly anniversary tomorrow

$25.00 Suits for $19.95

$32.50 Suits for $26.78

$35.00 Suits for $28.95

FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY, you can come expecting to receive the actual values we state, and even more than we promise. Here's a stroke of good fortune at the very threshold of the new season—splendid luck for you and for us. Our buyer—Miss Bernard—now in New York City, came across a maker of High-Class Tailored Suits who was about to close his winter lines preparatory to entering upon spring business. Some of his choicest models remained. In conjunction with a leading Chicago house we took his entire remaining numbers at prices so advantageous that you get them at a big discount off their intrinsic value. We could easily get regular prices for them, but that's not our way; our prices are based absolutely on cost to us. These Suits are bona fide bargain worths. They'll prove genuine surprises for you, but we want you to raise your bargain expectation to its highest pitch, and still we'll surprise you with the values. The lots are so varied that the word of description can only be brief. Materials of chevrot, broadcloth and tweeds, in plain black, blues, browns, garnets, grays and plums of varying shades and a splendid assortment of fancy "mannish" mixed effects, are expertly tailored in the long-coated model, some tight-fitting at front and back, others tight at back with loose fronts. All are severely tailored, coats with leg-o-mutton sleeves and velvet collars, others having collars of material. Skirts in plaited effects. For Friday and Saturday only—two days—we shall offer the—

One of the largest eastern manufacturers of Fine Millinery, from whom we buy many of our most charming Hats, favors us at the close of his season—twice yearly—with the balance of his stock at a price that averages us half the worth of the Hats. This millinery is among the choicest shown by leading makers and we look forward to this event each season with much enthusiasm, as it means opportunity for us to offer our patrons handsome Hats, exquisitely made, at about half price. If you were asked offhand the price of these Hats we shall sell tomorrow at $1.49, you would certainly say, "Not less than $5.00"—and you'd be right—standards geraged by most millinery stores. Skilled hands prepared these clever Hats—unusual care was given to them. The styles are distinctive and out of the ordinary. In this sale will be found all the latest, most popular shapes, embracing Polo and Dress Turbans, high-back shapes, Sallors, Cowboys, etc., in a full line of colorings that include grays, tans, reds, greens, browns, navys and plain black or white. The collection of shapes and colorings is remarkably large and you will certainly agree with us that these are the smartest Hats you ever saw at double-the-price. Sale opens at 8 a. m. Values to $4.00. Special Friday at
