GREATEST QUARTERBACK IN WESTERN GAME

Eckersall of Chicago Considered by Experts to Be Fleetest and Headiest Player in West.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Waiter Eckersall, quarterback of the University of Chicago football eleven, is the griditron idel of the west. Here it is believed that he has no peer in the country as a quarterback, as an open field runner, as a strategist in running an eleven, as a punter or as a goal kicker. Certain it is that no player west of the Alieschenles compares with him, and a western man will tell you that his equal cannot be found in the east.

Eckersall is a small follow, weighing anly 145 pounds, and is but 5 feet 6 inches tall. He is capable of running 160 yards in a track suit in 0.10 1.5 and when the footing is sure and hard he can run the same distance in a football suit in one second slower time.

This seems aimost beyond belief, but the little fellow has done it time after time. On a day when there is no breeze he is capable of punting from 66 to 76 yards at every attempt. From any point within the 46-yard line he is a sure goal kicker, his record being 27 goals out of 50 attempts at drop kicking from the 40-yard mark.

Running through an open field he is a squirmy as an eel. He leaps and as aquirmy as an eel. He leaps and as a least the form the view of the last haif of the fourteenth, making the same was one of the most brilliantly.

Eckersall never weats protection or any sort, appearing in every game without noneguard or headgear. His jersey is not even padded and the pads in his trousers are as light as they can be made and give any protection at all. He wears the lightest football shoes that can be secured, and thus he is ready at all times to give the Marcomathe benefit of his great speed.

He seldom gets into a hard scrimmage, never being asked to carry the ball except in a trick play, in returning punts and in carrying the ball back after the kickoff. Coach Stage has built his team up around, this one player, and a Marcon defense is always ready to save Eckersall from injury when he is tackled and thrown.

tomed to this position, he will play a better game here than at safety. Long, who is as speedy as any man on the Willamentte team, will play safety. He is a sure tackle and a good man at receiving punts.

With that invincible line, and three strong men backing it up, Multnoman will find it hard to make yardage on bucks. The club men have the advantage of playing on their own field, but Willamette will make up for this, having the control of the c

In this, the most important athletic event of the Pacific coast, two Portland men will represent the Webfoot state in the ranks of the Cardinal. Both of these two men learned the game while playing on the Portland academy eleven and both men are stars on the Stanford eleven. Chalmers played fullback in his "prep" school team and it was there that he made his reputation for consistent line bucking and aggressiveness which has remained with him thus far in his collegiste footbail career. In his freshman year and last year at Stanford he played right half on the 'varsity and at the beginning of this year's season he was elected to captain the cardinal eleven. "Stump" Stott. Stanford's plucky quarter, also made a reputation for himself while playing with the Portland academy and Multnomab club elevens of Portland. During his freshman year he captained his freshman club elevens of Portland. During his freshman year he captained his freshman team, which defeated the California freshmen, and in last year's intercollegiate game he was substitute to Bansbach, playing the last half of the game. It is with these two men and Thompson, another veteran of last year's team, as a nucleus that Coaches Lanagan and Bansbach of Stanford have had to mold the material for a new team. The rewednesday's Examiner: "There was supposed to be a ball game at Oakland yesterday afternoon. There were is really and truly ballplayers on the field and the said is amused themselves if they failed to amuse the few score bleacher warmers. One o' cat may not be a classic game, but it should be revived for the big men from the wet town. Portland in all probability, could win the pennant in the one o' cat league."

WASHINGTON TACKLES SHERMAN TOMORROW

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Washington, Seattle,
Nov. 10.—The university will line upagainst the Sherman Indians tomorrow with a team much stronger than they have put in the field heretofore this season. Although the university boys are rounding into a very strong team the popular opinion seems to be that the Sherman indians are in a class with the California institutions and will be a very lard team to defeat. The best that Stanford could do against the agency boys was 6 to 4.
