Madame Schumann-Heink Appeals to American Government to Secure Family.

KEPT IN GERMANY TO SERVE MILITARY DUTY

Fatherland Holds Estate to Make Sure Heirs Comply With Army Laws - Diva Allowed to Have Three Youngest to Educate.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Nov. 10,---Madame Schu-mann-Heink, the opera singer now ap pearing in "Love's Lottery." has ap pearing in "Love's Lottery," has ap-pealed to the state department at Wash-ington to help her untangle her badly, mixed domestic affairs. Under the Gee-man laws some of her children are de-tained in Germany, while her property in that country is cied up in the courts because of legal proceedings following her second marriage. She has suffered much from illness recently, largely due to worry.

her second in much from illness recently, larges, to worry. The opera singer's marriage last sum-mer to William Rapp, an American, and her desire to bring her sons here to be cducated, is said to be the foundation of the difficulty. This brought her into conflict with the German law, which provides that all German law, which eident son must remain in the German gov-ernment stepped in and said that the eident son must remain in the German military duty.

eldest son must remain in the German military duty. Madame Schumann-Heink after her marriage last summer went abroad with her husband, and after several weeks of futile effort to obtain possession of her children and estate, returned with the three youngest of the family, two boys and a, girl. They were permitted to accompany the mother on condition that they be educated in accordance with the American idea and when the boys were of age to return to Germany boys were of age to return to Germany for service in the army. The other five children, one of whom

The other five children, one of whom is married, must remain in Germany. Four boys, of whom the youngest is 16, being of sige when he must soon enter the army, must remain in Germany. In case the boys now in this country should refuse to return to Germany for military service, their share in the es-tate would be confiscated.

The Big Sale.

The big sale of men's clothing and furnishings now going on at the Lon-don's Clothing Store at 173 Third street is creating quite an excitement among shoppers. The company recently pur-chasts the stock of goods belonging to William Gruber of Omaha. This fine stock was secured at the phenomenally business. They have joined hands with how price of 26 cents on the dollar. This enables the company to sell high-class suits, overcoats, cravenettes, shoes and smaller 'furnishings at one fourth or to hops. They would rule the hop mar-smaller 'furnishings at one fourth or one fifth of the regular price. This does not mean, however, that the goods are anyway inferior. As the stock was purchased at such an extremely low figure, the many patrons of this new store are giad of the opportunity to save money and at the same time ob-tan the very best in quality, style and handsome effects. Large numbers of ta new years' losses in the hop market. They can afford to cut the price below the cost of production. That will drive out the small growers. Per-haps their acreage can be secured at a bargains have ever been offered before to the people of this vicinity.
