OAKLAND PLAYS SLOW AND RAGGED GAME

Setting of McCredie's Pets Was Too Much for Mr. Blexrud, as His Offerings Were Treated to Terrific Whacks and Bangs.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) San Francisco, Nov. 11.—Blexrud was rather easy for the Giants yesterday, being unable to keep his curves out of harm's way. The fielding of the Commuters was not of a high order of excellence, loose playing being responsible for several of Portland's runs. Jones was in the box for the visitors and managed to keep Van Haltren's gang busy guessing. The game on the whole was not a very exciting contest, few plays being pulled off that furnished any difficulty.

FOOTBALL DAY ON THE COAST

Many Important Games Being Played This Afternoon Between Crack Elevens.

MULTNOMAH TACKLES WILLAMETTE TEAM

Berkeley Plays Stanford, Sherman Engages Washington and Oregon Will Scrimmage With Corvallis—Multnomah Looks Like Winner.

Today is a real football day on the Pacific coast. From California's orange-scented fields, Washington's frost-hitten lands, Nevada's sagebrush commons and Oregon's sawdust gridirons the shouts of thousands of throats will rise this afternoon in response and encouragement to the plucky elevens that are battling for supremacy.

In Seattle the Sherman Indians are playing Coach Cutts' team of the University of Washington. Oregonians are equally interested in the Oregon-Corvallis game at Eugene and the Multnomah-Willamette contest in Portland.

Here in Portland interest centers in Multnomah's game with Willamette on the club's gridiron. While the impression has gone forth that the Salem men will have a walk-over with the club men, the honest feeling in Portland is that Multnomah will win by at least two touchdowns.

At Corvallis the Sherman Indians will engage the University of Washington team. The game will be called at 3 o'clock sharp and the lineup will be as follows: Multnomah. Position. Willamette.

INDIANS READY FOR WASHINGTON CONTEST

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Washington, Seattle, Nov. 11.—Coach Hempel and his foxy bunch of redskins from the Sherman Indian school arrived in town yesterday.

Coach Hempel of the Indians has every confidence in his team and said: "With a disorganized team, three men out on account of injuries, and but poorly familiar with the signals and plays because of but little previous practice, we lost to California yesterday and after this we outplayed Stanford, although they won from us 6 to 4."

The braves are a husky bunch. Led by big 200-pound Luba, who will be pitted against Big Pullen, the whole team is in the best of condition.
