

TO IGNORE TARIFF IN MESSAGE

President Roosevelt Will Probably Omit All Reference to Customs Duties.

SILENCE IS PRICE OF RAILROAD LEGISLATION

Executive May Also Cut Out Reference to Reciprocity in Order to Insure Safety of Other Measures—Stand-Pat People Insistent.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Washington, Nov. 11.—In his annual message to congress President Roosevelt may ignore the tariff and reciprocity questions.

There is no secret about the fact that high tariff advocates of the "touch-not" stamp have been urging him to speak his mind, being the president's mind to the belief that the president's mind is their mind.

Silence is considered the price of safety for some of the president's measures which stand apart from the tariff, and if he considers their interests paramount, he may keep his pen off the subject of Dingley duties, even though the victory over the inclination to rap the stand-paters come after a hard fight with himself.

The president's message is practically complete, though this statement ignores a possible tariff reference. Party leaders who are interested especially in legislation which will call for comment or recommendation have been consulted and the president has ignored neither friends nor foes of projects which he thinks congress should forward.

There are those who have been in the chamber of the council who say the president will not verge on radicalism, but the prophets do not believe that legislation, about which all are at sea except the president and three members of the house committee of interstate commerce.

OFFICIAL SWEARER FOR THE FIREMEN

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—Samuel Yauchin paid $500 for the exclusive right to swear and use vulgar language in and about the fire house of the Bryn Mawr volunteer fire company, preventing the title of "official swearer."

The duties of the official swearer are to be set out in a series of rules, with penalties which, it is expected, will force all other members of the fire company to call on him when there is any swearing to be done. If it shall appear at the end of a year that no one except Yauchin has uttered an oath in the fire house Yauchin will pay $500 into the treasury of the company.

AMERICANS IN DANGER

Renewed Rioting Threatens Lives of Foreigners—Troops Are Furnished.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Washington, Nov. 11.—Cablegrams were received this afternoon from Spencer Eddy, chargé d'affaires at St. Petersburg, indicating that renewed rioting with danger to the lives of American citizens was expected at St. Petersburg tomorrow. Mr. Eddy expressed the opinion that the reports are much exaggerated, but at the same time he evidently took the precaution to have the Russian government handle the matter so far as the protection of United States citizens was concerned.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) St. Louis, Nov. 11.—The instantaneous response of the Hebrews of St. Louis to the call for assistance for the relief of Jews who are suffering in the Russian Empire, was a splendid example of the success of the relief meeting to be held at Shaarath Temple tomorrow. Several thousand dollars were received today by Moses J. Foley, chairman of the committee on permanent organization for the mass meeting in response to an appeal which was published in the papers this morning. This sum will be largely increased at the meeting tomorrow.

KAISER READY TO STRIKE

Two-fold tale is being repeated and we are again murmuring. Panic stricken Jews are fleeing from the city. Every boat is thronged. Reactionaries assert this move of Witte is to secure the support of the radicals. Jewish bankers called upon Witte. The premier looked ghastly. He denied the rumors of the proposed massacre of the Jews and assured the callers that every means will be taken to protect their lives.

By clever handling of the press Witte has stopped practically all opposition among the people. The papers all print excerpts from American and European papers praising the premier.

COMPROMISE OFFER OF THE O. R. & N. ACCEPTED

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) New York, Nov. 11.—At 8:30 o'clock this evening the court and Colonel Raley, representing the O. R. & N. company in the assessment court, signed papers fixing the rate at which the railroad is to be assessed in Uintah county at $10,000 a mile. Assessor Strain in 1903 raised the railroad assessment from $4,000 a mile to $12,000. Ever since there has been a content and the court has accepted the compromise offered by the company. It was agreed last night to accept the compromise but today's session was occupied in a dispute as to whether the county should refund the penalty tax paid by the road on $9,000 already paid on the assessment. The company lost its contention.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Aberdeen, Nov. 11.—Not the slightest clue has been found of the fate of H. P. Smart who disappeared a week ago Wednesday leaving a letter saying he was going to commit suicide. He was about 32 years old, an employee of Grays Harbor Commercial company, and was very popular. (Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Baker City, Or., Nov. 11.—An unknown person has been opening individual mail boxes in the postoffice here for the past week, and in spite of efforts at detection, has not been discovered. Let US Contribute to Your Business Success

False teeth are made to your measure—if they fit. It is the same with a suit of clothes. You can no more expect to find a perfect fitting suit in a job lot of clothes than to run onto a satisfactory set of teeth in a barrel of odds and ends in the dentist's laboratory. Fit is everything in a suit of clothes. There is as much difference in the shape and size of men's bodies as there is in the roofs of their mouths. The dentist takes your measure with plaster of paris—we take your measure with the tape and the yard stick. Both are necessary to get a perfect fit. We will fit you for $20. We will make a suit which subscribes exactly to the peculiar stature and proportion of your body for $20. All wool worsted chevot—plain grays—checks—and plaids. Imported Venetian cloth lining—hand sewed with silk. Come in and look at the cloth in the bolt. Give us one trial—let us show you how much we can contribute to your appearance and comfort and business success for $20.
