

AFRAID TO WINTER IN CAPITAL

Czar Does Not Dare to Return to St. Petersburg During the Troublesome Times.

WORKMEN WILL ENFORCE EIGHT-HOUR DAY DEMAND

Resolve to Use Force if Necessary—Terrible Riots in Progress Near Odessa and Over a Hundred Killed—Revolt at Vladivostok.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, Nov. 14.—At the workmen's meeting today it was decided to demand an eight-hour day and to use violence if necessary to enforce the demands. The League of Leagues has passed a resolution condemning the declaration of martial law in Poland. An Odessa dispatch says that terrible riots are in progress at Krivoe Rog, near Odessa. Over 100 are reported killed. It is said that the reason that the czar is going to Tsarskoye Selo, instead of spending the winter in St. Petersburg during these troublesome times, is because it is believed that he should be near White at all times. It is reported that insurrection has broken out in Vladivostok where gendarmes and troops are fighting in the streets and many have been killed. It is reported that Georgia is in the possession of revolutionists, who are armed with modern weapons. In order to restore peace in the various provinces it has been decided to send out aids de camp of the emperor with almost dictatorial powers to take complete control of affairs and restore order. Count Witte is said to have advised martial law for Poland.

TAMM WORKER CONFESSES

Member of Election Board in Murphy's District Tells Secrets to Grand Jury.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF BALLOTS IS UNDER WAY

Hearst Fights to Have Discrepancies in Tally Sheets Corrected, While McClellan Wants No Investigation of Ballot-Boxes Made.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Nov. 14.—The ante-rooms were filled with witnesses when the grand jury resumed the inquiry of the election frauds this morning. It is reported that a member of the election board in Murphy's district has confessed. Alderman Hargerty was arrested this morning on a complaint of assaulting a Hearst watcher. He pleaded not guilty and was held in $1,000 bail. The official count began today in each of the four counties included within Greater New York. Lawyers for Hearst and the Democrats appeared before the board. Hearst fights to have discrepancies in the tally sheets corrected, the protested ballots counted and the ballot boxes opened, and the ballot recounted after rehearing where there is evidence of fraud. McClellan fights to confine the canvassers as closely as possible to the face of the official returns, which show that McClellan was elected by about 3,000. A contest in the courts seems inevitable. The forces of Attorney General Mayer and District Attorney Jerome are active in preparing for the prosecution of the perpetrators of the fraud.

TAFT IS THE BARON OF WASHINGTON

SAYS ANKNEY OF WASHINGTON DELEGATION STANDS AS UNIT AND WILL FIGHT FOR APPROPRIATION TO IMPROVE COLUMBIA RIVER—IDAHO ALSO SOLD FOR OREGON'S CAUSE.

ECONOMY MAY SAVE LAYING A NEW MAIN

It Would Cost Three Hundred Thousand Dollars to Install Meters, but New Pipe Line to Bull Run Would Cost Six Times as Much.

With the combined forces from three states—Oregon, Washington, Idaho—the congressman, senators and business men of the Pacific northwest empire will bring their batteries of argument to bear upon the men at Washington who hold the purse-strings, and it is believed will succeed in getting enough money appropriated to continue work on the Columbia river jetty and the Cello canal. Senators Fulton of Oregon, Levi Ankey and Samuel H. Piles of Washington, W. B. Hayburn and Fred T. Dubois, Idaho, and Congressman Wesley L. Jones, Francis W. Cushman and William E. Humphrey of Washington, and Burton J. French of Idaho, are the men whom the people of the three states must depend upon to lead the campaign. They will be supported actively by business men and commercial interests of Portland, Walla Walla, Lewiston, and every town along the Columbia and Snake rivers within navigable limits. The congressional delegation of the state of Washington is a unit on this question. Every man of them is pulling for appropriations for the Columbia river jetty and the Cello canal, said Senator Ankey, who came to Portland today to attend a meeting of the chamber of commerce, trustees and transportation committee to consider the plan of a campaign that is to be carried on at Washington for securing the desired appropriations. "The Columbia river is more ours than it is yours of Oregon," he said. "We own more of it than you do. It is half ours to the place where it leaves Oregon, and all ours beyond that point. Therefore we feel an ardent interest in its improvement. We do not know why Mr. Taft has taken the position he announces against river and harbor appropriations. It is likely, however, that he has taken to heart the statement made officially to congress by Leslie M. Shaw, secretary of the treasury—and a very good one. "Mr. Shaw said the treasury is 'in the hole' and warned congressmen and senators against spending money. He said the treasury is $22,000,000 behind; that expenditures must be chopped off and revenues increased to make both ends meet. He asserted that he had no knowledge of irrigation projects, or all of the projects for which money is to be appropriated—all of them might be good projects—but there was a limit to the amount of money in his charge, and he was not prepared to consent to go slow on expenditures. With this talk, Mr. Taft evidently agrees. He has determined to hold the expenses down, and he proposes to do this by chopping off rivers and harbor appropriations. "Taft Important Man. "When there is trouble in Manila, who goes to fix it? Taft. When there are diplomatic strings to be pulled in Japan, who goes? Taft. When the canal matters have to be straightened out, who is pressed into service? Taft. When the president is out of town, who sits on the hot seat? It is only fair to assume that Taft, in his very powerful official at Washington. "I don't know about getting the ap-

METER PLAN MAY BE SOLUTION

Mayor Orders Registers Installed to Test Efficacy of Proposed System.

EARLING MUST SHOW THE SEATTLE COUNCIL

North Coast Road Asks for Franchise but City Fathers Are Wary.

Instructions were given the municipal water board yesterday by Mayor Lane to begin a series of experiments for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of water which may be saved by installing meters in every house in the city and by charging for the amount consumed. It is the plan to select a block in some thickly settled residence district and place a meter in every house. Another block is to be selected with a meter attached to the pipe supplying the entire block, unknown to the householders. By this means a comparison may be made between the consumption of water in houses where there are no meters and where there are none. The experiments will cost about $5,000, most of which will be expended in the purchase of meters. If the experiment is satisfactory, meters will be installed in every house in the city. It is thought that this plan will do away with the necessity of having to lay another pipe line between the Bull Run headworks, for eight or 10 years to come. The cost of the meters would be about $300,000, while a new pipe line could not be laid for less than $1,500,000. If it is found from these experiments which I have ordered that it would not be a paying proposition to put in meters, then we will have to lay another pipe line," said the mayor today. "The people of eastern Oregon are deeply concerned in the completion of the government irrigation projects," said Senator Pierce this afternoon. "I am deeply disappointed if the Umattila project is to be abandoned. The most important thing before the people of Oregon today is getting water on the west land. "But irrigation work will go forward even if the government does not carry it on. W. J. Furnish is engaged in a private enterprise on a scale even larger than the government's. It will be about 10 miles long and will irrigate about 30 miles of main canal. This is a private enterprise and is located about the proposed Umattila project. Furnish will supply the water as much territory as would be supplied by the government project. "Senator Pierce is confident that Governor Chamberlain will be successful in looking for a bill. "I do not believe Chamberlain can be beaten, no matter what the Republicans nominate. He is in a strong position. The party line has been all shot to pieces, and thousands of Republicans will vote for Chamberlain next June."

W. H. JOHNSON STRUCK BY ENGINE AT KALAMA
