TODAY'S MARKETS

Great Damage Is Being Done to the Oregon Potato Industry by the Action of the Railroads in Withholding Sufficient Cars.

SHORTAGE OF CARS HURTS TRADE

Potato Men Complaining Because California Dealers Get All They Want.

SHIP TRAINLOADS WHILE OTHERS WAIT

Wheat Is Weaker—Hops Firmer and Some Sales Are Made Higher—Tone in Poultry Vastly Improved and Eggs Are Stiff at Top.

Front Street, Nov. 15.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:

Wheat market is weaker.

Flour market is dull but unchanged.

Hops are selling higher.

Eggs very firm and scarce.

Poultry selling at advance.

Dressed hogs arrive freely.

Dressed veal come rather lively.

First car California cauliflower.

Cabbage has a dull feeling.

Fancy tomatoes are higher.

Car cranberries and sweet potatoes.

Great shortage in cars again.

Salmon supplies rather small.

Potatoes and onions firm.

Great Shortage in Railroad Equipment.

Never was the shortage in cars more pronounced in this territory than today. Potato shippers are up in arms and say they are losing considerable money because of the action of the railroads in keeping the rolling stocks out of Oregon. The claim is made that California shippers secure all the cars they want, but those in Oregon are told to wait. One dealer in this city claims he has an order in for a car to load potatoes at a nearby point for about a month and there is no indication that he will get the car in the near future. Other potatomen make the same assertion. Says one of these: "California potato-growers are able to get plenty of cars to do business with. They are shipping entire trainloads of potatoes to the far south, while we are compelled to sit by and suck our thumbs. Some of us have purchased potatoes but have not yet taken them in. The market is liable to advance and then, some of the growers will refuse to deliver. That's where one pocket-books are touched."

Potato Market Is Firmer.

There is a firmer tone to the potato market on account of the better feeling and higher prices in the California markets for fancy stocks. Fancies only are wanted, as the south has plenty of ordinary stocks. The shortage in cars is the main regulator of the potato situation. The onion market is dull but firm. Prices the same.

Eleven Cents Paid for Hops.

Eleven cents is being quite freely bid and one sale at that figure was reported yesterday at Independence. In that section many offers of 11c have been refused during the past 48 hours. Of the situation in the general market, and especially New York, the Producers' Price Current of that city in its issue of November 11 says:

	Bales.
Receipts for week	4,954
Receipts from September 1	17,412
Receipts same time last year	30,444
Exports to Europe for week	500
Exports from September 1	1,800
Exports same time last year	29,497
Imports for week	514
Imports for September 1	5,915
Imports same time last year	1,130

The sharp decline lately noted on the Pacific coast caused brewers to take a little more interest in the situation, as prices were tempting and, with a more active demand and heavy sales during the week advices are reporting as much as 3,000 to 4,000 bales purchased in one day, the market has developed rather more steadiness. Sales have ranged from 6½@7c for common up to 11c for choice. On the local market exporters are still buying steadily choice states at 20½@22c and probably have taken in the neighborhood of 4,000 bales so far and such grades are steadily held, but poorer states are almost entirely neglected. The German market shows weakness and quotations have been from 5 to 7 marks lower. A heavy business is reported on the English market for all serviceable grades.

Wheat Market Is Weaker.

There is a weaker tone to the wheat market and some dealers are talking of dropping the price 1c per bushel. The claim is made that prices are too high, considering the quotations on flour. Exporters say they cannot do business at the values offered by the orient. The flour market is quiet but unchanged.

California Cauliflower Arrives In.

The first car of California cauliflower of the season came in during the morning from Los Angeles in good shape. It sold at $1.80@2.00 per crate.

Some fancy tomatoes from the same place found a good demand at $1.40. Other grades ranged from $1 to $2.25 per crate.

Another car of cranberries and a car of sweet potatoes were among the arrivals of today.

Cabbage is a trifle too plentiful and prices are ranging lower with a duller tone in the market.

Poultry Selling at Advance.

The tone of the poultry market shows considerable improvement. Receipts are quite fair but demand is increasing and dealers experience no trouble in selling at quoted figures.

Ranch eggs very scarce with prices at the very top. Eastern stocks firmer but unchanged.

Dressed hogs are coming too freely and few sales are being made today at the top. Veal is likewise coming more freely. Prices the same.

The following prices are being paid along Front street by the trade for choice quality in round lots. Producers' prices are so specified.

AWAIT NEWS FROM ARGENTINE

Wheat Crop of That Country Will Either Make or Break the Prices in European Markets

CHICAGO PIT CLOSE IS LOWER AS RESULT

Quotations Lose an Eighth to a Quarter Cent—Cables Disappointing With General Downward Tendency—Trade Is Quiet.

WEDNESDAY'S WHEAT MARKET.

	Close Wed.	Close Tues.	Loss Tues.	Close Year Ago
December	$ .86 A	$ .90¼ A	$ .00¼	$1.11
May	.88¾ A	.88⅝ A	.00¼	1.11½
July	.83½	.83⅝	.00¼	.97

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Logan & Bryan say: Slightly lower cables and large receipts in the northwest gave the wheat market an easier tone at the opening, but the decline culminated in the first hour, after which the improvement was slow and unsteady, with final prices ⅛@¼c lower. The situation at the moment seems to revolve around Argentine. News from that country is conflicting and any estimate on their crop is of vital interest to the European countries and will do much to make or break prices abroad.

Runs Into Resting Orders.

As in wheat, the low point in the corn market was reached early in the session, with the close unchanged to ¼c lower. At the low price the market seemed to run into resting orders, from which the rally developed. Sentiment is mixed, leaving the market much two-sided.

The oats prices are well held, considering the other pits and the large advance the market has had.

Provisions closed 5c lower. If the packers' ideas as to continued liberal receipts of hogs are realized, their support to the speculative market cannot be expected.
