

PROSECUTED CASE HELD BY JURY FOR OVER 'PHONE MANSLAUGHTER

District Attorney Secures a Conviction Conducting Case Over Long Distance.

PULLMAN STUDENTS PLEAD GUILTY AND ARE FINED

Were Charged With Inciting a Riot for Hallow-Eve Depredations but Charge is Changed to Malicious Destruction of Property.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pullman, Wash., Nov. 20.—The strange spectacle of a prosecuting attorney conducting a case by long distance telephone was witnessed here today when prosecuting attorney Klipp conducted the prosecution of eight students of the Washington state college in the justice court here over the long distance telephone, the prosecutor being in his office at Coitfax. He secured a conviction and the students were fined $5 and costs, each, which they paid.

On the night of Halloween the students of the state college, as is their usual custom, proceeded to "paint the town red." The citizens had got tired of the depredations of the students on these occasions and when the gang began the destruction of property they were arrested and spent the night in the city jail. There were nine of the students arrested, but one proved that he had nothing to do with the destruction of property, and was released.

The remaining eight were charged with inciting a riot, which is a felony, with a maximum penalty of a term in the penitentiary. The students were badly frightened and their relatives and friends interceded for them, as did some of the members of the college faculty. After several delays the case was called for trial today, and prosecuting attorney Klipp being engaged in trial of criminal cases in the superior court, could not attend the trial here. He used the long distance telephone, however, and agreed to dismiss the felony charge if the eight students would plead guilty to malicious destruction of property, which they did, and were fined $5 and costs, each.

The students who were fined are: Ben Curry, W. Wolfe, J. Aeger, Van Disell, O. S. Johnson, C. R. Lewis, A. T. Olson and F. H. Miller. The affair created much interest in Pullman, both among the students and citizens. The students have been fully warned that a repetition of the offense will result in heavier punishment, and the college faculty has notified them that a similar escapade will result in their dismissal from the school.

Welcome Dynamite, Journal Special Service. Cork, Ireland, Nov. 20.—O'Donovan Rossa arrived today and was greeted by several thousand persons, who participated in the demonstration attending his welcome.

Harrison Van Burkleo, Who Fired Fatal Shot, Must Answer for Slaying J. B. Pipes.

INJURED IN STRUGGLE TO OBTAIN REVOLVER

Victim of Central Point Row Not Supposed to Be Seriously Hurt Until He Suddenly Passed Away Twenty-Four Hours Later.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Medford, Or., Nov. 20.—J. B. Pipes, who was shot at Mee's drug store at Central Point Friday night last and who was not thought to be seriously wounded, died suddenly at 10 o'clock Saturday night as a result of the wound, and the circumstances attending the shooting bid fair to make a very interesting case of it.

In the absence of Coroner Cameron the inquest was held before A. S. Jacobs, justice of the peace at Central Point, Sunday. Deputy District Attorney Clarence Beames representing the state. The coroner's jury was composed of Charles Jeffers, L. J. Purkeypile, J. W. Jacobs, W. S. Eachus, James E. Grieve and S. C. Mianick.

Van Burkleo's Statement. Harrison Van Burkleo, who fired the fatal shot, made a volunteer statement before the jury in which he stated that he and Miss Mary Mee, the proprietor of the drug store, were engaged in conversation at the door of the drug store at the hour of 9:50 o'clock when J. B. Pipes, accompanied by Mrs. Laura Knutzen, a sister of Miss Mary Mee, and Mrs. Knutzen began upbraiding her sister for remaining away from home until such a late hour, alleging that "people would talk about her if she stayed alone with a man at the store so late."

Van Burkleo replied that "people were already talking about Pipes stopping alone with two women," when Pipes assumed a threatening attitude, alleging that he "would make him take back that insinuation," when he, the witness, drew his revolver with his left hand; Pipes grabbed it and attempted to wrest it from him and in the struggle the weapon was discharged, the bullet piercing Pipes' side. "The shooting was entirely accidental," Van Burkleo asserted.

Miss Mee in her testimony strongly corroborated Van Burkleo, but being near-sighted did not see the weapon during the struggle, nor until after its discharge.

Run Away Screaming. Mrs. Knutzen ran screaming from the building when the prisoner drew the gun and did not see the shooting, but does not think there was sufficient provocation for drawing the weapon, and believes it to have been used for the purpose of killing deceased.

No Ojping statement was secured from Pipes, as the attendants did not think he was going to die. In a business conversation yesterday, settling for wages due him, he stated to Isaac Bates that after he told Van Burkleo

He was going to "make him take back that insinuation" the accused drew his revolver with his left hand, he grasped same and Van Burkleo shot him, leaving the impression in Mr. Bates' mind that deceased considered the shooting intentional.

Held for Manslaughter. Beyond Pipes' initials his surname is unknown, although he had been employed at the Mee ranch on Applegate river for more than a year and rumor has it that he was engaged to be married to a sister of Miss Mee, temporarily stopping with her in Central Point. Rumor has also had it that the relatives of Miss Mee were violently opposed to her receiving the attentions of Van Burkleo and there was not good feeling between the two men. The finding of the coroner's jury was that deceased came to his death November 15, 1905, by means of a gunshot wound inflicted by Harrison Van Burkleo November 17; that in the opinion of the jury the killing was not excusable; that Harrison Van Burkleo is guilty of the crime of manslaughter and should be held to await the action of the court.

Accused was turned over to Sheriff Rader and his preliminary examination will be held before Justice A. S. Jacobs Tuesday morning.

NEW 'PHONE BUILDING BUILT FOR ABERDEEN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 20.—John Nelson of Seattle, state superintendent of construction for the Sunset Telephone company, has been in town conferring with Manager Bailey in regard to the new exchange building soon to be erected. A desirable lot on Wishkah street, between G and H, has been secured for a site. The contemplated improvements include the substitution of cable and copper wire for the iron wire now used, and a multiple common battery switchboard. The exchange will be arranged with everything in accordance with approved methods and the entire system so improved as to make it one of the best on the coast.

Work on the structure will begin as soon as material can be placed on the ground. It is estimated that the improvements will cost $29,000.

Another Opportunity. $25 worth of music or a beautiful music cabinet given free as an inducement to close out quick the remaining Exposition pianos, grand pianos and a pianola at Ellers Piano House, 351 Washington street.

ASKS COUNTY TO PAY FOR HERD OF CATTLE

Elgin, Or., Nov. 20.—F. E. Graham has presented a claim against the Union county court amounting to $290 for the loss of cattle killed by the collapse of the Wallawa county bridge. Hector McDonald, who was driving a herd of cattle across the bridge at the same time and suffered a similar loss, has also put in a claim against Wallawa county for damages.

The counties of Union and Wallawa have made arrangements to put up a steel bridge at this place to avoid accidents in the future.
