FERRY IS INEFFECTIVE AGAINST THE ANGELS

Captain Dillon Presents a Patched-Up Team Yet Manages to Trounce Portland-Nagle Pitches a Steady Game and Held Webfooters Safe.

(Journal Special Service.) Los Angeles, Nov. 25.—The Los Angeles team looked more like a crazy quilt yesterday than anything else, but yet managed to beat the Giants 3 to 2. The visitors evinced not the slightest disposition to win, tossing the ball around in a manner that would make a "one old cat" game look respectable.

Seals Win Out. (Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, Nov. 25.—The Seals got busy yesterday in the last two innings and won out from the Tigers.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

Between halves in the Yale-Princeton game the Tiger rooters sang this song with great effect: "Way down in old New Jersey, in that far-off jungle land, there lives a Princeton Tiger who will eat right off your hand. But when he gets in battle with the other beasts of prey, he frightens them almost to death in this peculiar way."

FACTORS THAT BROUGHT TERRY BACK TO RING

What was the principal factor in bringing Terry McGovern back into his old-time form? asks a writer in the New York World. This question brings to light one of the most peculiar traits in a fighter's make-up. In nearly every camp when he is in training for battle is a comrade who is kept there for the purpose of keeping the fighter in the best of spirits.

PRACTICE CLUBMEN THE STADIUM

Two Hours Vigorous Work Too Much for Multnomah Players Last Evening.

BACK FIELD SHOWED UP IN SPLENDID FORM

Betting on the Thanksgiving Game Still Favors Oregon, But Multnomah Hopes to Change Prevailing Feeling—Special Practice Sunday.

Last night the members of the Multnomah football squad were mightily well pleased when Coach Overfield announced the practice over after two hours of hard work, and it is a safe bet to state that every man sought his bed as early as possible. The workout last evening was satisfactory in a way, but not so much so as to cause the club backers to go into raptures of anticipation over the club's chances and scores.

Coach Overfield has ordered a practice for every man on the squad tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, and it is quite likely that the team that will represent Multnomah on Thanksgiving will be selected at that time.

Beginning last night practice was conducted in secret. Coach Overfield deemed this method a necessary precaution in order that the club's interests might be fully protected. It is expected that at least 40 men will turn out tomorrow morning so that the coach may get a daylight line upon them.

COLUMBIA TIES WITH THE HIGH SCHOOLERS

Fumbles Prove Costly to Loneragan's Team in Yesterday's Scrimmage on Field.

The Columbia university football eleven played a tie game 5 to 5, with the High Schoolers yesterday afternoon on Multnomah field. The score does not show the superior strength nor the better all-around playing of the Columbia team. High School's touchdown came early in the first half during a scrimmage, when it looked as if a play had ceased. Coffey broke through and ran 25 yards toward Columbia's goal, but as the ball bounded over the line a High School player fell upon it for a score. The goal was missed.

BRUNSWICK BOWLERS WIN FROM GOLDEN WESTS

The Brunswick bowlers took two games out of three from the Golden Wests on the Portland alleys Thursday evening. Captain Closest of the Golden Wests had the high average, 176; he also had the highest single game, making 223 in his third game. The scores were:

YALE IS HOT FAVORITE OVER THE CRIMSON

Ell's Team Is in Prime Condition While Coach Reed's Eleven Is Weakened by the Loss of Captain Hurley.

Chief interest in the football world today is centered at Cambridge, Massachusetts, where the magnificent eleven of Yale and Harvard will meet to settle their annual dispute on the gridiron. The Harvard management has arranged for the seating of 4,000 spectators, a tremendous gathering. On account of the criticism directed toward football by President Roosevelt and Dr. Elliot, a special effort will be made by the members of the teams and the officials to eliminate everything that savors of unnecessary roughness. Harvard supporters are considerably crestfallen over the loss of the clever player-out of the game, Yale backer who is widely enthusiastic over the prospects and are wagering 2 to 1, and even 5 to 1 that Ell will emerge victorious. Both Yale and Harvard have many backers in this city and the outcome is awaited with great interest.

CORVALLIS ATTACK WAS OF FIERCE VARIETY

Bishop's Players Unable to Make Yardage Against Sturdy Farmers—O. A. C.'s Victory Puts the Football Situation in a Peculiar Light.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Corvallis, Or., Nov. 25.—The powerful Willamette university football eleven went down to defeat yesterday afternoon before the Oregon Aggies with five touchdowns scored against them, and a total of 28 points. The result was a surprise to even the supporters of the orange men, and will be even more of a surprise to the football circles of the entire northwest. The score is the result of straight football, without a single fluke or chance play, and was all made by dint of hard line bucking and short end running which the powerful Willamette team was powerless to stop. It made apparently no difference whether Stockle's men went at the formidable line of the Salemites or essayed an end run, the result was the same, and the net result a constant driving of the men from the state capital backward until the last of the white lines was repeatedly crossed. Two of the touchdowns were made in the first half, during 28 minutes of play, and the other three in the last half, occupying 25 minutes, the last three formations for the final touchdown being made within three quarters of a minute.

One of the great features of the game was the stubborn defense of O. A. C. The University eleven could not penetrate the line. Seven times they had the ball, and as many times failed to make yardage. An entire yardage of six or seven yards represents the sum total of the distance they carried the ball on formations.

The greatest distance they forged ahead on a single play was two yards on a fake play. O. A. C.'s Great Advance. The O. A. C., on the other hand, carried the ball at will. They were held but twice, once on Salem's seven-yard line shortly before the close of the game. A great asset in the Oregon offense was Walker and Dolan, whose heavy weight bunched with the heavy backs in interference made an assault better perhaps than the O. A. C. men have ever manifested heretofore. The shifting of Walker to the new position has put him into a position where he should prove himself even a greater man than he was at center. If yesterday's playing by him in that position means anything, Dolan on the other side of the line is a fair match, and the pair of men of the first class.

The new score puts a strange aspect on the football situation. The University of Oregon was only able to defeat Willamette 11 to 5, having made yardage on the Salem men but twice. Stanford could make but two touchdowns on Bishop's men and Berkeley could not score, while the Oregon Aggies roll up a score of five touchdowns. Several Willamette men expressed wonder after the game how it happened that U. of O. won a victory at Eugene November 11.

Another feature of the game is that it was played by Stockle's men with Pilkington, Lawrence and Williams, all stars, out of the lineup. Following the Fall. This is the way the play went: Nace kicked off and Rinehart was downed on the 30-yard line. Griffith went through for 10 yards and followed it up with four more. Root got away for 25 yards and after a few line bucks Rinehart was forced to punt from Salem's 40-yard line. Willamette tried two downs and was forced to punt. O. A. C.'s runner was stopped on the 40-yard line, the starting at their own 40-yard line, the O. A. C. men carried the ball to Salem's 15-yard line and lost it on a fumble after a sly yard back by Dolan. Salem and Oregon were tied 7-7. From center, O. A. C. went at straight football for a touchdown without a break. Willamette kicked off and Rinehart was stopped on the 35-yard line. O. A. C. rushed the oval 25 yards and Rinehart was stopped on the 10-yard line. From center, O. A. C. went at straight football for a touchdown without a break. SULLIVAN WHIPS GARDNER Twin Receives Decision at Close of Twentieth Round From Referee Welch. (Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, Nov. 25.—At the end of 20 rounds last night in one of the hardest punching contests seen here in a long time Referee Jack Welch awarded Mike ("Twin") Sullivan the victory over Jimmy Gardner. Sullivan was on the offensive throughout the contest, and was practically carried out of the ring by his seconds. In the early part of the fight Gardner showed an advantage, but after the 10th round Sullivan kept coming at his opponent with great ferocity and wore him down with terrific fighting. Even up to the 15th round honors were apparently divided, but in the two succeeding rounds Sullivan inflicted severe punishment, his opponent being almost knocked out. After the fight Gardner declared that the decision was eminently fair and that Sullivan's victory was made possible on account of the extra weight allowed him by the catchweight conditions. BOWLING BY TELEGRAPH STIRS UP THE PINNERS The telegraphic bowling contest which takes place tomorrow night has sent the blood of the local fans up to the fever point, and deductions are being made right and left as to the chances of Portland's representative, the Golden Bods, when stacked up against the older and more experienced team from the other cities. Every man on the team is on edge and if confidence has anything to do in deciding the winner Portland will be very close to the top. Much will be expected from the fans themselves for encouragement and that a great many of the fair sex will be present is assured. The line-ups of four teams are still to be heard from, namely, Los Angeles, Tacoma, Spokane and Anacortes. San Francisco will use a code system entirely their own in forwarding scores and their plan should be adopted in future matches by the Western Bowling congress, where a universal code could be used and furnished by the association. Play will start at 7:45 sharp by all teams with the exception of those cities that are affected by the difference in time, where the first ball will be rolled at 8:45. Returns will be read after each game, giving the individual score of each bowler. Following is the line-up of such teams that are in: Portland—Ball, Cagen, Pollack, McMenomy and Kruse. Subs—Janney and Mackey. Salt Lake—Zimmerman, Probst, McLeod, Zehring and Smith. Subs—Janney and Talamantes. Denver—Gaston, Harper, Yeager, Bishop and Burke. Subs—Rowe. San Francisco—Williams, Duffield, Berelson, Martin and Burke. Oakland—Deushie, Burnett, Parker, Hartley and Merrill. Subs—Gragg. Seattle—Mahken, Sherrer, Sheffer, O'Donnell and Jenkins. Subs—Stovall and Warren. Butte—Sheehan, Ellis, McMillan, Richley and Kirkpatrick. Subs—Taylor and Van, Ellis. Southern League Meeting. Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 25.—Pursuant to the call of President Kavanaugh, the directors of the southern baseball league assembled in Memphis today. The meeting is to wind up the business of the past year and arrange preliminaries for next season. No action is to be taken at the present time in regard to the rumored transfer of the Birmingham franchise to Mobile or some other city. Manager Deal Addressed. Vals, Or., Nov. 25.—The county court has adjourned after a session of two days. The official matters that were before the court were the application of James the building of bridges and the petitioning and the settling of a post road.
