WANT LOW LEVY.

St. Johns Business Men Fear Taxes Will Be Too High for Comfort. Heavy property owners of St. Johns will object strongly to the raising of the tax levy there, and the dream of the council to secure a 10-mill levy on the assessed valuation of $1,250,000 probably will not be realized.

MY NEW OFFICES

Dr. N. J. FULTON, Naturopath. Are a great improvement over the former ones in the Lewis building. I have abundance of room here, and my methods are certainly worthy of investigation when an allopathic faculty of the Medical Congress, recently held in Portland, came to my treatment. I am satisfied, he said, "that drugs will not reach my case," and that they would not. But my treatment did, and it will reach yours, too.

CHURCH IS FREE.

Sunnyside Congregational Body Decides to Meet All the While Alone. A new era dawned Tuesday for the Sunnyside Congregational church, when the members of the congregation decided that in the future they would meet all the obligations of the organization without aid from the missionary society, which in the past has paid a large part of the minister's salary.
