years ago by Bishop Conary of Los An-geles, at the time rector of the Catholic university at Washington, to convert some of the Catholic colleges at present existing in the United States into regu-lar high schools, is also to be looked into. The plan has recently received much encouragement from several American bishops, who regret the fact that thousands of Catholic children, after ending the course of studies in the parochial schools, are obliged to at-tend the public schools because no such educational institutions have been pro-vided exclusively for Catholics, except was robbed of jewels valued at $2,000 during the passage across. Mme. Journet and her maid, Louise Semon, occupied room No. 14, the door of which was left open last Monday night, it being very warm. Mme. ## REDUCED SEASIDE RATES Via the A. & C. B. R. to Clatso

Vin the A. a. C. R. Z. to Clatsop Beach. In order to promote a big winter travel to the coast the above company has named the very low rate of 14, good going Saturday morning, returning Mon-day evening, and $2.50 for the round trip on Sunday. Several hotels at the beach will remain open all winter and cheap rates will be made to induce patronage. All information at the city office, 248 Alder street, or telephone Main 305. (Joarnal Special Service.) Yonkers, N. Y., Nov. 28.—The citizens of this city are considerably agitated over the prospect that on January 1, 1996, the city will find itself without a common council and unable to trans-act any legislative business, sell any bonds or levy any taxes. Today a suc-cessor to Alderman John H. Coyne, who had been elected mayor of Yonkers on the Democratic ticket at the last elec-tion, is to be elected. It is contended that the seven aldermen who were elected at the last election will hold office legally, while the aldermen Sonti-wick, Beckert, Lochr, Ferguson, Reagan, Stillwell and Coyne's successor cannot

Telephone Main 806. wick, Beckert, Loshr, Ferguson, Reagan, Stillweil and Coyne's successor cannot hold office legally after January J. because their terms do not epd in odd-numbered years, as required by the con-stitution. They were elected last year for a two-year term. If that opinion is sustained by the courts, Yonkers will have only seven aldermen, while it requires eight to make a quorum. This state of affairs is due to a conflict be-tween an act passed by the legislature last April, and section 3, article 12, of the state constitution, which applies to cities of the third_class. Dinner to Jerome Dinner to Jerome. (Journal Especial Service.) New York, Nov. 98.-District Attorney Jerome would find little time for his official duties if he were to accept even a small part of the invitations that have poured in upon him ever since his re-election. The dinner which the City club is to give in his hanor and in cele-bration of his secont victory will take place tonight and many of the leaders who rallied the reform forces to the support of Mr. Jerome will be present. Gured Consumption. Mrs. B.-W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan. writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bot the of Bailard's Horehound Syrup, and it qured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." Sic. Spc and LLOB Sold By Woodsid, Clarks & Co. ably Provide Relief.

It was disclosed at a special meeting of the city executive board yesterda; that there was a river gravel trust in this city and that three, large con-tracting firms were implicated. It was said that these three firms had a corner on all the river gravel and that other contractors who bid against them for street improvements and were awarded contracts could not obtain gravel from trust. A large number of contracts for the improvement of striests recommended by the street committee were awarded, the most important being a contract for the big fill on Grand avenue between East Oak and East Pine street, to the Pa-cific Bridge company for $15,503. The extension of time on the contract for the laying of a bitulithic pavement on Second street was granted the War-ren Construction company to January 1. If the work is not finished by that time the contractors will be fined $5 a day for every day of delinquency.

TO STOP WORK ON YUMA RECLAMATION PROJECT

'(Journal Special Service.) Washington, Nov. 25.—The supreme court of the District of Columbia has been petitioned by the Irrigation Land & Improvement company to enjoin the secretary of the Interior for further prosecuting the work on the govern-ment's proposed irrigation system at Yuma.
