and novelties of the Fair at ridiculously low prices.

We are offering you a last opportunity to secure a handsome souvenir of the Fair for a trifle—a fraction of the price you would have paid during the Exposition days. Come in and see the largest collection of Spoons shown either during or since the Fair opened.

Fine Leather

Christmas days show their arrival first by the increased activity in our leather department. We are showing the most complete, most artistic and most varied and yet exclusive line in the city. The styles in Small leather ware change more rapidly than in dress, and this year we have many little fancies which are new to Portland and new to New York, for no sooner do they reach New York City than our buyer there rushes a supply on to us. That is why we are more leather wise than some. Come in, look over the display and judge for yourself. Our prices are no more than for the ordinary kind. We can prove it.

Thoughts for Thanksgiving

There is something about the approach of the holidays that naturally we associate in our minds with the things that are best. Good things to eat and good things to wear are integral parts of Thanksgiving and Christmas jollification. You cannot better anticipate the demands which will be made upon you socially and in the "present way" than by turning your thoughts toward our store. Make yourself ready for Thanksgiving by getting into one of our Alfred Benjamin suits. They are rightfully called "Correct Clothes."

All the little niceties of good tailoring which demark good clothes from bad are scrupulously observed in the making of these stylish garments. The late midwinter styles are already in. If you would like to see what is being worn on Broadway this Thanksgiving come in to our store and try on an Alfred Benjamin suit. If you are beginning to think of your Christmas obligations, remember that nothing could be in better taste or more acceptable than the present of a suit or overcoat really to be proud of.

HEALTH NOTICE
Warning against the use of Witch Hazel.
RECENT investigation has disclosed an alarming condition of affairs existing in this widely known family remedy. It has been proven conclusively that unscrupulous manufacturers have been selling Witch Hazel not only below the recognized standard of strength, but which is adulterated with WOOD ALCOHOL (poison), FORMALDEHYDE (poison) or both. These conditions prevail throughout the United States and are especially alarming on the Pacific Coast. Of thirty-three samples of Witch Hazel bought of retail druggists and department stores in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane and Seattle, twenty-seven were adulterated with WOOD ALCOHOL (poison), FORMALDEHYDE (poison) or both. The sure way to avoid the danger incurred in using these poisonous witch hazels is to use the only standard extract of Hamamelis (witch hazel), sold only in original packages as bottled by the manufacturer.
