SECOND ATTEMPT TO

For the second time in the last few days, what is believed to have been an attempt to assassinate C. C. Caples of 395 North Nineteenth street was, made Sunday night. A shot was fired at his house shortly before midnight, the bullet passing through a window casing, over a bed and into the oposite wall.

A few nights ago a buleit was fired through a window at an earlier hour. The curtain was down if the time and the occupants of the house were in another room.

Judge Frazer Says More Than One Hundred Girls Were Lured From Right There.

PARENTS TRUSTED IN ITS REPUTATION FOR DECENCY

Thus Girls Were Allowed to Go There Unattended-Matiness Also Dangerous Because of Attendants at Theatres Looking for Prey.

At the annual meeting of the city board of charities last night Judge Arthur L. Fraser of the juvenile court offered a severe criticism of those parents who allow their young girls and boys to attend places of public amusement without escorts.

"It is the wrong system—it is shameful," said the judge, warmly today, "and I cannot understand why so large a percentage of parents fall to recognise the practice as an evil.

"Many girls are lured to their ruin by the young hoodlums they meet at public places, especially in the outing parks, and boys, too, are helped on to their downfall by this same element. Of course we do not hear of all such cases, but judging by the percentage of them reported to us, I've little or no doubt that more than 100 girls started on the downward path by attending the Oaks last summer.

"Week after week in investigating."

'I do not mean to criticise the management of that resort. In fact, I would compliment the management for its sincere endeavor to preserve order. The place, each time I visited there with my family, bore an air of respectability that was beyond reproach. But in my remarks last evening I referred to the Oaks because from that park most of our cases have come. This is but natural. The attendance is larger there than at samy other of the surrounding amusement resorts, and above that its reputation for respectability is such that mothers entertained no fear in allowing their children to go there—unfortunate though that conclusion may have been.

"I have no doubt, from what we have observed here." continued the Judge, "that quite as many girls have come to their ruin by being allowed to attend matinees alone. There they meet young ushers and water-carriers, who are on the lookout for prey, and the next thing we hear is of some young couple in a pitiable plight.

"I am glad that we are gradually get-

"I am giad that we are gradually getting at a remedy."

A brief address was made at the meeting by Mrs. M. R. Trumbull, and C. E. Ladd, I. N. Fleischner and C. Lombardi were reelected directors for a term of three years.

The report of the treasurer showed that the total receipts of the board of charities for the year were $6,497.03, and tha there was a balance on hand of $199.94. The report follows:
