THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 30, 1905

nnounce that I am going nomination for state Republican ticket," said r yesterday. Mr. Custer the Union Printing com-ind and his entrance into grape. Orchestral music was given by Parsons and Wilder. ut after the printer on the Republican ticket," said Paul W. Custer vesterday, Mr. Custer a member of the Union Printing comof Portland and his entrance into field increases the number of those pany of Portland and his entrance into the field increases the number of those who aspire to that office to four. The others already openly working for the nomination are Willis Duniway of Portland. W. J. Clarke of Gervals and J. R. Whitney of Albany, present in cumbent. Mr. Custer was not prepared to out-line the special features of his cam-paign, which of course must be made under the direct primary nominating Inw next spring. He has been in Port-and for about three vears. He came cumbent. Mr. Custer was not prepared to out-line the special features of his cam-paign, which of course must be made under the direct primary nominating law next spring. He has been in Port-land for about three years. He came After the presentations had been made by the reception committee dancing was enjoyed. Refreshments were served from booths. from Seattle, where he conducted he Daily Washingtonian, and previ-ualy was a publisher in other sound

Mr. Duniway and Mr. Clarke have en candidates for several months and Whitney is understood to be asking renomination. Politicians expect at others will appear as candidates. It is believed generally that Frank Baker, Republican state chairman, is That others will appear as candidates. It is believed generally that Frank C. Baker, Republican state chairman, is interested in the state printing estab-lishment more closely than as the owner of the plant used in the state printer's office at Salem. Those who study the political game claim quite unanimously that Mr. Baker shares in the profits of the business, and that O' and the state of the plant used in the state over the plant used in the state printer's office at Salem. Those who study the political game claim quite the profits of the business, and that the profits of the business, and that or an opportunity to discuss or an opportunity to discuss of serious compositions, was the thing that made his appearance pleasing last night. It was the unanimous verdict that the clear enunciation of the singers was something so refreshing that it alone Every was compensation sufficient. Every word was spoken distinctly, and even in the German songs by Miss Kirkwood the pronunciation and enunciation were so excellent that a smattering of knowl-edge of the Teutonic tongue enabled one to understand. It doesn't make much difference whether or not Mills is England's greatest basso. He sings pleasingly and there was a burst of applause at the ending of every number by him. Probably he sang Schumann's "The Two Grenadiers" because he felt that he Two Grenadiers' because he felt that he must add something serious to the pro-gram, and because a basso is presumed to render something on that order. Ho was more pleasing in the songs that permitted the man to bring the laugh.

MARCUS MARKS MEETS PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

A Dinner Menu, by "Bix."

From the Lincoln Journal. The bosom of a maliard duck stewed down until there are no juloss going to wante, a baked potato about the size of a gooseegg, two slices of Boston brown bread right out of the oren and spread with butter that has no sthielde regulation, a spoonful of raspherry jelly, a cup of Young Hyson of moderate strength, a piece of pumpkin pie, man's size, and you have a dinner that ought to kkep yor in a good humor until curfew rings.

will it do at this time? Whatever the decision of this council may be will not render Captain Bruin one whit more eligible for the office or one whit more ineligible." ball

Mr. Bailey, during the present month, has filed over 30 complaints in Justice Reid's court, and the crusade has just Councilmen Annand, Belding, Gray, Kellaher, Menefee, Sharkey, Wallace and Wills voted to hold the investigation and Councilmen Preston, Shepherd and The cases filed recently have begun. The cases filed pecently have been against sellers of butter, vinegar, pickles and milk, which Mr. Balley tested and found to be unfit for food. Every case reported to him will be thoroughly investigated, and if the case egun. and Councilmen Preston, Shepherd and Vaughn opposed it. "It's another case of baby play by the city council." said a prominent city official yesterday. "It can accomplish mothing at this time by such an investi-gation other than placing the members in a ridiculous position before the pub-tic." warrants the action an information will be filed against the accused dealer.

COUNCIL MIGHT HAVE PASSED RESOLUTION

Nine members of the city council re-cently held secret meetings and formu-lated plans for investigating the city health department. Men were employed to learn if the health authorities were giving sufficient attention to their du-ties and a special meeting was called for the purpose of hearing these reports and calling for an open investigation, if the situation warranted such. When The Journal announced Sunday "Resolved. That the press of this city be requested to urge upon the citizens of Portland, and especially upon those who employ large numbers of persons, such as factories and department stores, the necessity of taking the usual pro-

When The Journal announced Sunday Reuralgis Pains. The above resolution was prepared to be presented to the city council at the special meeting yesterday by Coun-climan Gray, but could not be con-sidered because it had not been placed on the official statement of the business in being absorbed into the blood, its healing properties are conveyed to every part of the body, and effect some won-derful cures. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Woodard, Clarke & Co.

the office was descrited except for Mr. Fields himself, others came. They must return tomorrow, however. Those who Fields himself, others came. They must return tomorrow, however. Those who secured licenses yesterday are: Jay W. Shipley and Beatrice Good-necht, James Imlah and Jennie C. Kay, Glenn B. Cline and Mary Maska, Fred H. Irvin and Carle Hibbard, John L. Fowle and Harriet B. Mensinger, James Morrow and Wignifred C. McElroy, George M. Connelmann and Anna Borchers, J. V. Bethel and Irene Allsky, J. H. Milner and Georgia P. King, Harry C. Smith and Georgia P. King, Hiram Hager and Nellie Hansen, Carl Eyers and Rena J. Weaver, Lee M. Gleason and Juanita M. Boyd, Thomas J. Killeen and Alice M. Scott, Michael A. Scheppert and Mary Johnson, Grover Morin and Stella W. Womelworf, Jacob W. Peters and Mary Bernhards, Fred Holloway and Marguerite A. McEachern, Benjamin Maxley and Rosa Vetzeb.

CHRISTMAS IN MEXICO.

Special Fullman Excursion Train via Bouthern Pacific Ballroad. On December 16 a special excursion train will leave San Francisco via the Southern Pacific for the City of Mexico Low rates have been made for points on the Southern Pacific in Oregon. Par-ticulars by asking any Southern Pacific agent or writing A. L. Craig, general passenger agent. Portland, Oregon.

on "The Pure Food Laws and Their Benefits to Farmers." Dr. Withycombe will lecture on "Intensive Agriculture." Mrs. Clara H. Waldo will speak on "The Grange" and Mrs. V. W. Royal of Port-land will sing. Friday morning will be devoted to a

Friday morning will be devoted to a discussion of agriculture, horticulture, apiculture, dairying and domestic aci-ence. The afternoon will be given over to the 'women and Miss Engli of the Agricultural college and Miss Lillian Tingle and Miss Raymond of the Port-land School of Domestic Science will give taiks. Professor Goodnough and Mr. Bradley will furnish the music. Professor Kent of the Agricultural college will give an illustrated lecture Friday night on "Breeds of Livestock and Practical Instruction at the Agri-cultural College." W. K. Newell will speak on "Fruits on a Dairy Farm." Music will be furnished by the Russel-vifle grange.

Music will be furnished by the Russel-ville grange. Baturday will be educational day. In-struction will be given by County Super-intendent Robinson and Professor Grout of the Ladd school of Portland and the principals of the Russelville. Monta-villa. Mount Tabor. South Mount Tabor. Arleta and Lents schools. At night there will be a special entertainme by the pupils from the county schools.

Carrying It Far.

Blobbs-Wigwag is always going to h something. Slobbs That's right. marry a girl named Sue. He's even going

Nine members of the city con