

KINGS SEND ALICE WEDDING GIFTS

Every Sovereign Power in Europe Signifies Intention of Honoring Miss Roosevelt.

PORCELAIN FROM LOUBET JEWELRY FROM THE CZAR

Prince Henry and the Kaiser Start the Ball Rolling and King Edward and Other Monarchs Follow the Fashion.

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, Dec. 22.—A cable to the World from Paris says that every sovereign of Europe will send a wedding gift to Miss Alice Roosevelt. From Berlin comes a partial confirmation of the report that Prince Henry of Prussia will send a present, and that the German emperor himself has signified his desire to do the same.
In London the report of the Kaiser's purpose has caused the advisers of King Edward to suggest that he, too, send a present, and commands have been sent to London firms to send to Buckingham palace articles from which the king and queen may make a selection.
The King of Italy has also expressed

Miss Alice Roosevelt and Congressman Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati, Ohio, who will be married in the White House next February 15, photographed on their recent oriental trip. Miss Roosevelt is the fifth "official" White House bride. The others were: Miss Maria Monroe, who married Samuel L. Gouverneur in 1820; Miss Elizabeth Tyler, who married William Waller; Nellie Grant, who married Algernon Sartoris; Frances Polson and President Grover Cleveland.

his intention to send Miss Roosevelt a present, and President Loubet of France has given orders to the Sevres factory of porcelain to select two of the most magnificent vases for presentation to her. The gift of the czar will be jewelry. King Alfonso of Spain will send an antique piece of jewelry.
The new King of Norway and the Kings of Denmark and Sweden will send presents, and the Sultan of Turkey, King George of Greece, and many minor sovereigns of Europe will follow the example of the sovereigns already mentioned.

SHORT LINE FOREMEN GET RAISE IN SALARY

(Journal Special Service.)
Salt Lake, Utah, Dec. 22.—Effective January 1, all section foremen of the Oregon Short Line will receive an advance of $5 a month. The announcement is a surprise to the men, as the increase was entirely unsolicited.

The Closing Out Sale

OF

BOWMAN, ELDRIDGE & CO.'S WHOLESALE CLOTHING HOUSE

GIVES EVERY MAN AND BOY A CHANCE TO BUY A GOOD OUTFIT AT LESS THAN HALF THE PRICE ASKED BY REGULAR RETAIL STORES.

During the past year our traveling men have visited every town in the Northwest and we have worked faithfully to build up a successful jobbing business. We have found many obstacles in our way, more, in fact, than we could overcome with our amount of capital.

On December first we decided to go out of business and thought it a good idea to open our doors to the retail trade and give every man a chance to help himself to our large stock at the actual cost to us of manufacturing. Today we have enough clothing on hand, consisting of Men's Suits, Overcoats, Pants and Young Men's and Boys' clothing to start ten good sized retail stores. We are closing out the stock as rapidly as possible to merchants or in single suits to retail trade.

Men's All Wool Suits start at $6.00

Young Men's Double-breasted Suits at $3.95

Boys' All Wool Suits, ages 7 to 16 years $1.95

MEN'S PANTS, with twenty thousand pairs to pick from, ranging in price from $1.00 up to $5.00
