In Santa's Letter Box:

Immediately upon the arrival of Santa Claus at the store—some two weeks ago—we invited our army of little friends to write him their wants for Christmas. The result has been several bushel baskets full of letters from youngsters living, some of them in far-distant states, but mostly from little lads and lassies whose home is Portland. Every letter has been carefully scanned, and all got Santa's attention. We thank the thousands of children who showed their confidence in the store. We'll strive hard to merit it until after those "Kiddies" become grown-ups. We can't, of course, print all, but have selected a few interesting missives from the pile to reproduce here. The youngsters certainly opened the peep-holes to their hearts wide to Santa, and their messages make us feel all children again together. Worth reading—these:

HERE IS ONE FROM A CLEVER LITTLE ARTIST—WHO ENCLOSED A SKETCH OF "SANTA" NICELY EXECUTED.
"Olds, Wortman & King's is my home."

"Dear Old Santa.
"Dear Santa Claus: As other children are writing for their wants, I will tell you mine: A dress, plaid; a doll, a blackboard and some ribbons. My mother would like a pair of new scissors. My address is —"
"Dear Santa Claus: If you can't fill my wants, write to my address.
"P. S.—I have been a good girl and helped mamma,
"P. S. S.—Heister, my brother, would like a necktie, a blue one."

HERE IS A GENEROUS LITTLE FELLOW.
December 14, 1905.
"Dear Santa Claus: Santa Claus, when you come I will give you some cookies. Santa Claus, will you bring a wagon? I want a drum; I want a pair of slippers for Christmas, and a box of paints, and a brush, and a game of Pinch. My name is —"

HERE IS A BOY WHO WILL BE SATISFIED WITH LITTLE—AND DOESN'T WANT TO "CORNER" ALL OF SANTA'S GIFTS.

"Dear Santa Claus: I want a automobile and a train with a track. Hand-car wagon and a rubber ball gun. Please, Santa, I think this is enough, don't you?"

HERE IS A YOUNGSTER WHO WANTS TO "SHOOT THE SHOTS."
"Dear Santa Claus: Santa Claus, will you please send me some gloves and a piece of shaving soap for father. Please send me a book, a tie, a drum, some candy, and I specially would like you to bring most of all the shoots the shoots. Goodbye. From your little friend —"

HERE'S A LAD WHO OBJECTS TO ASHES IN HIS STOCKINGS. BE CAREFUL, SANTA!
"Dear Santa Claus: I'd like some new blocks and a sheep and a coater, and, please, no ashes in my stockings, and I'll try to be good. I'm going to school. Please don't forget Clifford. West Park street house with porch."
