

GOVERNMENT IDEA FROM LIBRARY

Seattle Man Studied Counterfeiting From Public Books in His Town.

NOW OCCUPIES CELL IN THE COUNTY JAIL

Herman Wendt a Studious Man on Topics Pertaining to Secrets of Wise Men and Chemists—Charged With Making Bogus Money.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Dec. 30.—Herman Wendt, now in the county jail accused by Secret Service Operative B. W. Bell with conducting a spurious coin manufacturing plant near the Bay View brewery, studied counterfeiting lore from books secured from the Seattle public library. He is believed to be merely a novice at the business, and the knowledge he possessed he secured through his study of books from the public library, of which he has been a frequent visitor for weeks.

ASKS PARDEE TO NAME HIS PRICE FOR PARDON

Kentucky Man Writes California Governor Letter Negotiating for Brother's Release.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 30.—The Governor of California—Dear Sir—I beg to approach you with a letter in regard to one prisoner in the Folsom State Prison. He is confined in Folsom State Prison for six years. We are much grieved to know this boy got so far from home and got into trouble.

SALE OF UNITED RAILWAYS IS WHISPERED AROUND

Rumor Says Harriman Will Control San Francisco's Street Car System.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) San Francisco, Dec. 30.—The financiers are whispering that there is a great deal of interest in the sale of the United Railways of San Francisco. The whisper even goes further and says that the Southern Pacific as represented by Harriman is to take over, or already has taken over, a controlling interest in the great street railway corporation of this city.

MR. AND MRS. GOULD MISTAKEN FOR ROYALTY.

(Copyright, Hearst News Service, by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Palo, Dec. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Gould, recently passed through here in their automobile. They have had some very amusing adventures on their way down from Paris.

WOMEN REBELS OF TERRIFIC STORM HITS CELTIC

Mabelle Gilman's Parent Is Authority for Statement She Will Wed Corey.

WAITING FOR CLOUD OF SCANDAL TO PASS

Original Intention Was to Have a Double Wedding in Paris, But Cordelia Gilman Did Not Wait, When Mrs. Corey Balked.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) San Francisco, Dec. 30.—In a letter to friends in this city, Mrs. Nettie Gilman, mother of Mabelle Gilman, for whom Millionaire William E. Corey has sacrificed his home, announced the engagement of her daughter to the Pittsburg steel magnate.

Waiting for Scandal to Pass

The widespread notoriety which Corey's affair with the actress obtained, caused a postponement, and only part of the plans were carried out. Cordelia Gilman married in Paris and is now comfortably settled. Her husband is said to be a French nobleman, and Mabelle Gilman is given credit for the match.

Gay Times Ahead

To her friends Miss Gilman never made any secret of her engagement to the Pittsburg millionaire. The latter's wife made arrangements for getting a divorce. Several months ago she told friends whom she met in the east that she would marry the steel man, and at the same time told of her sister's engagement to the French nobleman.

SAYS LOS ANGELES IS PREY OF GRAFTERS

Mayor of California Town Makes Starting Charges in Public Manner.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Los Angeles, Dec. 30.—Mayor Owen McAlester today reiterated his charge that grafters had been preying upon the city for years. In round numbers he said $170,000 had been collected, so he had been told by people who thought it necessary to pay tribute to the government in control.

Many Naturalizations

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., Dec. 30.—During the year just closing 157 persons have been naturalized in Clatsop county. Nearly all were Scandinavians, although many nationalities were represented. One hundred and ninety marriage licenses were issued and 24 divorce suits filed.

White Star Liner Deluged by a Huge Wave That Carries Away Iron Bulwarks.

WOMEN FAINT AND CHILDREN SCREAM

General Panic Results—Vessel Struck Just as Presents Had Been Distributed to Little Ones on Christmas Day.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) New York, Dec. 30.—Bringing a story of a terrific storm at sea, the White Star liner Celtic reached New York today. Never in the history of Captain Ransom or of any in the memory of his crew has such a severe voyage as the one just ended been experienced. Christmas festivities were at their height in the second cabin when the worst wave struck the ship tearing away a part of the bulwarks of three quarter inch iron and sweeping away an iron companionway weighing four tons.

Savage Organization Will Be Heard in Portland in Greatest Works.

The Savage Grand Opera Company, which is to appear here in a repertoire of pronounced standard during February, has just closed its annual engagement in Washington, D. C., under circumstances which indicate that the country is music-mad.

UMATILLA WATER USERS BEGIN SELLING STOCK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Echo, Or., Dec. 30.—The first stock in the Umatilla River Water Users' association, as well as for the Klamath Falls Water Users' association, have been forwarded to the secretary of the latter for approval.

LOEB IN NEW YORK POLITICAL FIGHT

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The name of William Loeb, Jr., was unexpectedly introduced into the Republican fight situation in the state tonight. The news came from Washington, but neither at the capital nor among those who are in the secret would any one indorse it as being even semi-official.

MANY CALLERS GREET LORD AND LADY CURZON

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) London, Dec. 30.—Lord and Lady Curzon were besieged daily by callers after their arrival from India and all of their friends have remarked not only on Lord Curzon's healthy appearance after his serious illness, but also upon Lady Curzon's complexion, which the Indian climate does not appear to have affected at all.

ECONOMIZES BY CUTTING SCRUB WOMEN'S SALARY

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) New York, Dec. 30.—The big insurance companies have started a campaign of economy. President McCaff of the New York Life has cut the wages of the scrub women from $12 a month to $10. The president of the Equitable is trimming the extra pay off for overtime work. A committee representing the clerks entered a protest against working seven hours for nothing and was discharged.

SUNNYSIDE MINING & MILLING CO.

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF OREGON. Capital Stock $1,000,000. 1,000,000 Shares; Par Value $1.00. Fully Paid and Non-Assessable.

TO THE MAN WITH A SMALL SALARY WE APPEAL HELP US DEVELOP THESE CLAIMS AND WE GUARANTEE TO DEVELOP YOUR POCKETBOOK.

Send us your name. We will make you follow. Share right on the new year. Save a few dollars each month. Put in the application below and mail it with 10 per cent of the amount subscribed and make the amount of the monthly payments to suit yourself.

Grand Opera Coming This Season

The Savage Grand Opera Company, which is to appear here in a repertoire of pronounced standard during February, has just closed its annual engagement in Washington, D. C., under circumstances which indicate that the country is music-mad.

UMATILLA WATER USERS BEGIN SELLING STOCK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Echo, Or., Dec. 30.—The first stock in the Umatilla River Water Users' association, as well as for the Klamath Falls Water Users' association, have been forwarded to the secretary of the latter for approval.

LOEB IN NEW YORK POLITICAL FIGHT

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The name of William Loeb, Jr., was unexpectedly introduced into the Republican fight situation in the state tonight. The news came from Washington, but neither at the capital nor among those who are in the secret would any one indorse it as being even semi-official.

MANY CALLERS GREET LORD AND LADY CURZON

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) London, Dec. 30.—Lord and Lady Curzon were besieged daily by callers after their arrival from India and all of their friends have remarked not only on Lord Curzon's healthy appearance after his serious illness, but also upon Lady Curzon's complexion, which the Indian climate does not appear to have affected at all.

ECONOMIZES BY CUTTING SCRUB WOMEN'S SALARY

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) New York, Dec. 30.—The big insurance companies have started a campaign of economy. President McCaff of the New York Life has cut the wages of the scrub women from $12 a month to $10. The president of the Equitable is trimming the extra pay off for overtime work. A committee representing the clerks entered a protest against working seven hours for nothing and was discharged.

Auction Sales

J. T. Wilson Auctioneer.

Tuesday's Sale

On the Premises, Southeast Corner of Fourteenth and Jefferson, at 10 a. m.—Elaborate House Furnishings.

Wednesday's Sale

At the J. T. Wilson Sale Rooms, 180 First Street, at 10 a. m.—Elegant Parlor Furniture, Dining-Room, Bedroom and Kitchen Outfits, Carpets, Rugs, Etc.

Thursday's Sale

On the Premises, 600 East Morrison, Corner Fifteenth Street, at 10 a. m.—The Furnishings of a Large Residence.

Thursday's Sale

At Salesrooms, 180 First Street, at 2 p. m.—Fine Assortment of Ladies' Suits, Skirts, Jackets and Furs.

Friday's Sale

At Salesrooms, 180 First Street, at 10 a. m.—Gigantic Grocery and Fixture Sale.

Saturday's Sale

The D. C. Burns Grocery 174 Third Street Great Removal Auction Sale

Grand Opera Coming This Season

The Savage Grand Opera Company, which is to appear here in a repertoire of pronounced standard during February, has just closed its annual engagement in Washington, D. C., under circumstances which indicate that the country is music-mad.

UMATILLA WATER USERS BEGIN SELLING STOCK

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Echo, Or., Dec. 30.—The first stock in the Umatilla River Water Users' association, as well as for the Klamath Falls Water Users' association, have been forwarded to the secretary of the latter for approval.

LOEB IN NEW YORK POLITICAL FIGHT

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Albany, N. Y., Dec. 30.—The name of William Loeb, Jr., was unexpectedly introduced into the Republican fight situation in the state tonight. The news came from Washington, but neither at the capital nor among those who are in the secret would any one indorse it as being even semi-official.

MANY CALLERS GREET LORD AND LADY CURZON

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) London, Dec. 30.—Lord and Lady Curzon were besieged daily by callers after their arrival from India and all of their friends have remarked not only on Lord Curzon's healthy appearance after his serious illness, but also upon Lady Curzon's complexion, which the Indian climate does not appear to have affected at all.

ECONOMIZES BY CUTTING SCRUB WOMEN'S SALARY

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) New York, Dec. 30.—The big insurance companies have started a campaign of economy. President McCaff of the New York Life has cut the wages of the scrub women from $12 a month to $10. The president of the Equitable is trimming the extra pay off for overtime work. A committee representing the clerks entered a protest against working seven hours for nothing and was discharged.

Portland Auction Rooms

A. Schübach, Proprietor. WISHES YOU ONE AND ALL A Happy New Year Eat, Drink and Be Merry, Then Come to the Auction Sales

Thursday's Sale

At Salesrooms, 180 First Street, at 2 p. m.—Fine Assortment of Ladies' Suits, Skirts, Jackets and Furs.

Friday's Sale

At Salesrooms, 180 First Street, at 10 a. m.—Gigantic Grocery and Fixture Sale.

Saturday's Sale

The D. C. Burns Grocery 174 Third Street Great Removal Auction Sale

Friday's Sale

At Salesrooms, 180 First Street, at 10 a. m.—Gigantic Grocery and Fixture Sale.