

TRYING TO FIND GOOD COAL

R. B. Ross Says Oregon Can Produce as Good Quality as We Use Now.

PLENTY WITHIN REACH OF TRANSPORTATION

Now That Coal Is in Strong Demand, Says Mr. Ross, Portland People Should Encourage Opening of Mines Near Home.

"Never in the history of the coal industry has the business been so prosperous as it is today. Many millions of dollars are being spent each year to increase the output," said R. B. Ross, a Portland coal mining expert.

"Oregon men have found workable seams, but they say it is of poor quality. That will depend on what we judge it by. If we compare it with Pennsylvania, West Virginia or Ohio coal, then it would be poor, indeed.

"Some of our people are disposed to value the coal by what they pay for it, but, while money can pay the freight, it cannot change the quality of the coal," said Mr. Ross.

"Washington coal is much better than Wyoming coal. But if we can develop the coal in Oregon, even as good as those in Wyoming, then we will have made a great advance in bettering conditions in Oregon.

PORTLAND SEEKS TO KNOW WHY THE DISCRIMINATION

A rate of $5 on oats from Minneapolis and St. Paul, granted by the Hill railroads to Seattle exporters on a government contract for Philippine army forage, is being investigated by the transportation committee of the Portland chamber of commerce.

LODGERS ESCAPE FLAMES IN NIGHT ROBES

Women Climb Down Fire Escape and Are Afraid to Jump to Ground.

Men and women, clad only in night-robes, were forced into the streets last night by a fire that occurred at the Anders apartment house, Tenth and Washington streets, shortly after midnight.

Several women rescued themselves by climbing down the fire escapes. The escape on Tenth street ends about 17 feet above the pavement. It was crowded with women who were afraid to jump.

The fire is said to have started in a pile of rubbish in the basement of Carter's restaurant on the first floor of the building. It had spread through the basement before discovered and on the arrival of the department had gained good headway.

On the sidewalk in front of the building this morning Policeman Gittings found a lady's hand satchel, containing a number of articles of jewelry and a small purse. The purse contained a small amount of money.

OCEAN LINER DELAYED.

Baroness Impeded Her Progress Across the Atlantic.

This was the excuse recently given by the officers of a big ocean liner which reached her destination three days overdue. The power was there, but her progress was retarded by the barnacles, which had gathered on the bottom and sides of this great vessel.

In referring to the matter a member of the firm of Woodard, Clarke & Co., our local druggists, registered yesterday a parallel case in the field of medicine. It is old-fashioned cod liver oil, which contains medicinal properties capable of splendid work as a body-building, strength-giving medicine, yet on account of the system-clogging, greasy oil which it contains, its medicinal powers is impeded and its value lost.

My Life a Sermon of Thankfulness

Says Rev. J. Stoddard, D.D., Great Pulpit Orator and Former Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, in gratefully acknowledging the debt he owes to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. Impressive truths from the lips of this distinguished divine, who bids his ailing brother be of good cheer and prophesies that health, strength and the joy of living will return to him:

REV. JAMES STODDARD, D. D., Former Rector Church of the Holy Apostles, Perry, N. Y.

Perry, N. Y., September 21, 1903.

My Dear Brother: "Yes, dear brother, it would give me lasting joy to be at your bedside through these long and trying days; to be able to minister to your physical wants, and to lead your thoughts along paths profitable alike to both of us.

For more than fifty years Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been prescribed by doctors and used in over two thousand leading hospitals as the greatest tonic-stimulant and health builder known to medical science.
