

CHARGES PLOT TO SALOONMEN

Dr. Brougher Says They Have Conspired to Hurt Reputations of Opponents.

WOULD LURE THEM INTO DISREPUTABLE HOUSES

Preacher Defies the Liquor Men to Attempt to Do What He Calls a Dirty, Low, Lousy, Scandalous and Contemptible Thing.

In introducing Sam Jones yesterday afternoon at a great mass meeting for men at the White Temple, Dr. J. W. Brougher said:

"I'm gonna hit 'em till I haven't any hands, and then kick 'em till I haven't any feet, and then bite 'em till I haven't any teeth, and then, damn it, I'm gonna hit 'em till I haven't any brains."

saloons in the city that pay licenses of $400 each. The city has a population of 140,000. The $200,000 you receive in liquor licenses divided among 40,000 people is about $1.40 a head. The saloon men have bought you at $1.40 a head. Hogs sell at something like $14 a head, and you ought to wish you were a hog."

OPPOSES AMENDMENT.

Rev. Andrew Montgomery Declares That Favored by Liquor Interests Unfair.

Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery of the Third Baptist Church at a prelude to his sermon last night, discussed the proposed amendment to the local option law. In part, he said:

"On the sixth day of June, 1904, the legal alcohol in the state of Oregon was the local option liquor law. This was among the first laws to be enacted in this state by the direct vote of the people."

"Furthermore, all those who have labored to secure the initiative and referendum amendment to the state constitution will undoubtedly resist the enactment of an amending law, the effect of which, if passed, would be to bring direct legislation into discredit."

FLAYS THE SALOONS.

Dr. Wilson Declares Proposed Amendment to Local Option Law Unfair.

"The proposed amendment to the Oregon local option law is unfair, and all in the interest of the saloons. It would practically nullify the present law, which is a good and effective measure, and is doing what was expected of it," declared Dr. Clarence T. Wilson, president of the State Anti-Saloon League, in a talk preceding the sermon at Grace Methodist church last evening.

NEW APPLE LAND GAINS FAME

Rogue River Valley Products Bring as High Prices as Best of Hood River Fruit.

GROWERS EXPORT TO ENGLAND AND ORIENT

Thousands of Acres Coming Into Bearing Each Year But Market Demand is Keeping Far Ahead of the Supply.

"You do not hear much about the Rogue river orchards, but they are shipping hundreds of carloads of apples to New York, England and the orient every year," said John D. Olwell of Medford, at the Imperial hotel. He is a member of the board of regents of the state agricultural college, served several terms in the legislature and is a member of one of the largest apple exporting firms in the state.

ABOUT INDULGENCES.

Father O'Hara Explains Position of Catholic Church on Question.

"An indulgence is simply the remission of part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin after the guilt of the sin has been forgiven," said Father O'Hara in his sermon last night at the pro-cathedral. After declaring that indulgences are a permit to commit crime, and declaring that it does not take the place of repentance, Father O'Hara said:

"The governor of a state grants an indulgence when he remits part of the sentence of a convicted criminal. St. Paul exercised this power in regard to the sinful Corinthian whom he first excommunicated and then pardoned in the name of Christ when the unfortunate man gave evidence of repentance."

SERMON AND CONCERT.

Rev. David Leppert Preaches Strong Sermon and Signs Beautifully.

At Hassalo-Street Congregational church yesterday Rev. David Leppert occupied the pulpit morning and evening in the absence of the regular minister. It is said of many preachers that they "occupy" a pulpit, but Dr. Leppert fills it with a service of sermon and song. He is one of the strongest pulpit personalities on the coast. Absolutely fearless, yet gentle, in his speech, he goes to the heart of things as they exist. His sermonizing is an interesting mixture of the exhortation of the old-fashioned pulpiteer and the style of the modern evangelist. Possessed of a splendid baritone voice, he sang from the pulpit at both services, to admirable organ accompaniment by his wife. Some of the selection were of his own composition, and deserve to rank with the best evangelistic music.

TALKS TO WOMEN.

Dr. Martin Tells Much-Needed Truths to Audiences That Crowd Church.

The mass meeting for women only at the First Christian church, Park and Columbia streets, yesterday afternoon was the largest gathering ever assembled in the church. Dr. S. M. Martin spoke on "Womanhood and Home." The poor housekeeper, the immodest woman, the extravagant and the stingy woman, the vain butterfly of society, were all there. Dr. Martin told much-needed truths. Dr. Martin thinks women ought to vote, and found that the majority of his audience agreed with him.

CALVE CONCERT.

Both dining-rooms will be used Monday night after the concert. Reservations for tables should be made early.

Counterfeits Have Good Ring and Only Experts Can Distinguish Them.

Spokane merchants are more busily engaged in trying the ring of 5¢ and 10¢ gold pieces than they are of examining silver pieces and noting the figures on paper money. And all because a gang of counterfeiters in Spokane and vicinity with an exceptional fine imitation of the yellow legal tender. Just where the spurious money comes from it is not definitely known, but George Z. Baker, United States marshal for the eastern end of Washington, who is registered at the Imperial hotel, says it is reported at his home, Spokane, that it emanates from the Palouse country, Washington.

"The matter has been called to the attention of the secret service department," continued Mr. Baker. "The Palouse country has been suspected because most of the coin comes from its direction. The workmanship is exceptionally fine and the ring quite true. It takes a man or woman of experience to detect the good from the bad."

"Railroad construction work is receiving considerable attention in Spokane just now. The Canadian Pacific road is building rapidly toward our city. It has reached Sandy Point today. The contractors say that they will have rails laid into Spokane by June of this year. Our city is not doing much with the proposed road across the mountains into British Columbia. From what little I have heard I imagine that the more far-seeing merchants and business men do not think that a cross-mountain road will do them as much commercial good as the promoters of the line argue."

CARBOLIC ACID KILLS BENJAMIN F. HAYDEN

Benjamin F. Hayden, 61 years of age, died yesterday under circumstances which point strongly to suicide. His death occurred at the Fashion livery stables on Washington street, of which he was one of the proprietors.

A post-mortem examination by the coroner today showed that death was caused by carbolic acid. In one of Mr. Hayden's pockets was found yesterday by the coroner a partially empty bottle of the drug.

Mr. Hayden visited the stable earlier than usual yesterday morning. The employees noticed nothing strange about his actions, but shortly after 11 o'clock they heard groans issuing from the rear part of the barn. They found Mr. Hayden lying upon the floor in a dying condition. A physician was summoned, but the man expired before his arrival.

Mr. Hayden had been a resident of Portland for the past 11 years, but had no relatives in this city. He came to Portland from Rochester, New York, where he was born. He served as a private during the civil war and was a member of the G. A. R. For a time after his arrival in Portland he was manager of the firm of Hayward & Co.
