

GASTRO PREPARES FOR STRUGGLE

Displaying Great Activity in Sending Garrisons and Ammunition to Ports.

THREATENED TO FIRE ON FRENCH VESSELS

Much Alarm in Caracas, Where Semi-Official Press is Inciting People Against France—Moroccan Conference May Delay Action.

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, Jan. 22.—The Willemstad (Curacao) correspondent of the Temps says after the diplomatic rupture between France and Venezuela and the expulsion of M. Taigny, French chargé d'affaires, President Castro threatened to fire on all French vessels arriving at La Guayra. The situation is exceedingly serious. Alarm prevails in Caracas, where the semi-official press is exciting the people against the French. President Castro is displaying great activity and is sending garrisons as well as ammunition to ports.

The Moroccan conference is responsible for French not rushing the Venezuelan question to a rapid conclusion. The government is quietly awaiting to see which way the Moroccan tide turns. It is considered that drastic action against President Castro will not be made until the complete report of M. Taigny reaches the department here. This report is considered likely to come through the hands of M. Jusserand, the ambassador at Washington.

The strictest secrecy is maintained by the French government as to her intentions in the Venezuelan controversy. When, where and how her first move will be launched is not known. The French warships are not in evidence, their whereabouts being concealed. France has assured the United States that the Monroe doctrine shall be adhered to in every respect, and with this assurance the United States has given the French government a free hand in dealing with President Castro. M. Taigny on his way home is expected to New York and from there probably to Washington to confer with M. Jusserand and also may have an audience with Secretary Root.

Time to Pack and Go.

Out annual clearance sale, coupled with the fact that the time is well nigh at hand, presents to the shopping community of Portland opportunities never enjoyed before. Our clearance sale with its deeply cut prices, is not only the broken lines of merchandise, but also the new advance spring shipments, which arrived a little too early for our new season. Rather than to move them we have decided to place them on par with all other stocks and to subject them to the same proportional reductions, to grant the same inducements to our buyers and to extend the same extra special terms. Our lady buyer of our suit and cloak department may well be proud of the ability, taste and judgment she has shown in selecting spring lines of ladies' suits and costumes of such beautiful, charming and admirable styles, fabrics and workmanship.

A glance at our Washington street windows will convince the most skeptical and fastidious shoppers of the advantages we now offer in all sections of the store. Besides, you can pay only a small portion of amount at time of purchase and the balance in small weekly or monthly payments. Eastern Outfitting company, Washington and Tenth streets.

See Nature in Her Winter Garb.

To see the far-famed Rocky mountains in their wondrous winter garb is the treat of a lifetime. The sanyons, peaks and gorges are even more attractive in winter than in summer. The Denver & Rio Grande, popularly known as "The Scenic Line of the World," pierces the very heart of the Rockies, and besides is the only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City, the quaint and picturesque Mormon capital. Stopovers granted on all classes of tickets. For rates to all eastern points call upon or write W. C. McBride, 154 Third street.

NEW BURIAL GROUND LAID OUT ON EAST SIDE

Will Be Called Rose City Cemetery—At East End of Fremont Street.

Owing to the rapid growth of Portland and the corresponding increase in the number of deaths, a new cemetery has been laid out on the east side. Articles of incorporation for the Rose City Cemetery association have been filed with County Clerk Frank S. Fields. The new burial place will be known as the Rose City cemetery, and will contain about 70 acres of land located on a ridge overlooking Portland and the Columbia river.

The new burial ground is intended to relieve the Lone Fir cemetery, which, although not filled, may soon be cramped for room. Attorney Frank Schlegel, Henry H. Heerd and M. E. Heerd are the incorporators, and promise that the cemetery is to be fitted up handsomely. Several thousand dollars is to be expended in improving and beautifying the grounds, it being planned to have only evergreen trees and shrubs, so that there will be no falling leaves. The site of the cemetery is located at the east end of Fremont street just outside of the city boundary line and was purchased from E. L. Caldwell four weeks ago for $12,000. It will contain several thousand lots.

RED SUNDAY IN RUSSIA WAS A YEAR AGO TODAY

Socialists throughout the world are celebrating today the anniversary of "Red Sunday," as January 22, 1905, when the wholesale massacre of workmen in St. Petersburg took place, is called. In many cities celebrations were held yesterday.

In Portland an appropriate program will be carried out tonight in Socialist hall, 309 Davis street. Speeches condemning the atrocities and sympathizing with the revolutionists of Russia will be delivered. J. Stephens of Portland, who is well known in Socialist circles, will be the principal speaker.

In Oregon City there will also be a celebration tonight. Socialists from Clackamas and adjoining counties will meet for the purpose of expressing sympathy with the revolutionists. Contributions will be solicited at both meetings and the money that is raised will be forwarded to national Socialist headquarters and then to Russia.

There was a meeting at the local Socialist hall last night at which J. W. Slayton, national lecturer of the Socialist party, spoke. The subject of his address was, "Socialism: What It Will Accomplish." He discussed the crisis in Russia also.

Slater Files Petition. Salem, Or., Jan. 22.—James D. Slater of La Grande today filed his petition for the Democratic nomination for the office of district attorney.

HOLDS SECRETARY FINAL JUDGE

Judge Wolverton Hands Down Decision in Long-Contested Land Case.

J. P. LEE GETS KLAMATH COUNTY SWAMP LANDS

Took Up Land Under Homestead Act, After D. S. Keans Had Taken It Up as Swamp Land—Decision Likely to Be Final.

A decision by the secretary of the interior in a land case controversy has precedence or is final when it comes in conflict with an opinion emanating from the bench of a state court, according to the decision of United States District Judge Charles E. Wolverton in the land case of J. P. Lee against D. S. Keans et al. The decision pertains to 2,500 acres of alleged swamp lands in Klamath county, which now goes to Mr. Lee. There is not another land case in the annals of the state that has been as hotly contested. Three times it has been in the federal district court and it has been tried in the state court and federal land office and argued before the secretary of the interior. Keans came into the land in question through his predecessors, who took it up as swamp land. It formed a connecting link between two other large tracts of land which he acquired in Klamath county. Lee took up the land under the homestead act and secured title to it in the state courts. Keans went into court and sought to have any title that Lee might obtain to the land revert to his benefit. Then began the long litigation which was terminated this morning. Attorney Charles I. Schnabel, attorney for Keans, said that the decision would probably be final.

JOE YOUNG IS TAKEN TO THE PENITENTIARY

Man Who Shot Van Dran Today Begins to Serve Six-Year Sentence.

Joe Young was taken to the penitentiary this morning by Sheriff Word to begin serving his six-year sentence for taking an armed Keaspar Van Dran with a dangerous weapon on the morning of May 2. Nearly two weeks ago Young asked to be taken to Salem, but this act was not done pending an attempt to have Justice Bean of the supreme court grant a writ of probable cause. District Judge Cleland having refused to allow a stay. That Young would be taken to the penitentiary last Friday night, so on the afternoon of January 19 Mrs. Young and five children were at the jail to bid him farewell. The parting was a most pathetic one, the children clinging to their father as though to protect him. Although she has tried to maintain her calmness during the trying hours of the past few months, Mrs. Young was nearly overcome when she kissed her husband good-bye.

ICY GRASP OF BLIZZARD

(Continued from Page One.) coast temperatures ranging from 70 to almost 75 degrees, springlike weather prevailing in many places. A cold wave from the west followed and today the same section is enveloped in a chilly blast. The mercury registered 65 degrees at New York yesterday after 60 and at Boston nearly 68 degrees while at Louisville, Kentucky, it was 72 degrees. From St. Paul on the north to Oklahoma on the south almost a blizzard prevailed last night.

COLD WAVE FOLLOWS.

High Temperature Prevailing Throughout Atlantic States Followed by Cold. (Journal Special Service.) New York, Jan. 22.—The unusually high temperature which prevailed yesterday began to drop this morning and before night it is expected zero weather will prevail along the Atlantic coast. The warmest weather for January in 16 years is reported throughout the Atlantic states. In some localities the record has never been exceeded. Yesterday the temperature registered 65 degrees and tens of thousands of promenaders took advantage of the sunshine to parade the city's drives and parks. This city is enveloped in dense fog. Collisions of elevated trains and between ferryboats are reported. None are hurt.

BUSINESS DEMORALIZED.

All Trains at St. Paul Delayed—Nine Degrees Below Zero. (Journal Special Service.) St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 22.—Trains are from one to twenty-five hours late, east and west. The thermometer is nine degrees below zero and growing colder. Business is completely demoralized. Heavy snowfalls accompanied the cold wave throughout the central northwest. In the past 24 hours the thermometer has dropped 40 degrees. Nearly every station reports below zero weather. Heavy snow and a raging blizzard is reported from the Canadian northwest.

Storms Below at Lincoln. (Journal Special Service.) Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 22.—It is now 18 degrees zero throughout Nebraska and growing colder. A gale from the north makes the cold more keenly felt.

Reform in Printing Office. (Journal Special Service.) Washington, Jan. 22.—The president has issued an order doing away with unnecessary printing and providing for the editing of copy so that unnecessary matter will be cut out. An advisory commission will work toward uniformity in the publications.

192 Replies From a Two-Line Want Ad At a Cost of 15c for the First Insertion

The Oregon Furniture Co. desired a man to take care of boilers and to act as watchman. They naturally, as everyone does when in need of help, inserted a classified "ad" in the "Help Wanted—Male" columns of The Journal. The first day 112 replies were received—the second day 49, and the third 31, making 192 replies at a cost of 35c for the three insertions.

Here Is the Ad. And Here Is a Reproduction of the Replies

WANTED—Man for watchman and care of steam boilers, V 10, care Journal. The results form this "ad," said Mr. Linn, "were also very satisfactory. About 80 people came out here to apply for the job. All of which satisfies me that the 'Want Ad' Columns of The Journal are valuable indeed."

This Cut Shows Only the First 112 Answers—They Being Photographed the First Day. The "ad" was ordered for three insertions, but Mr. Fletcher Linn, the manager, says that the first 112 answers were as many as he could go through and the other insertions were not necessary.

Another Resultful Ad. THE JOURNAL want columns are the recognized go-between of those who want and those who want to fill wants. Whatever you want, let it be known in the columns of THE JOURNAL and the want will be filled. Remember, the Rate Is but 5c a Line. Those having rooms for rent, houses for sale, those who want to exchange or buy something, or have lost something, are getting big results through The Journal's "Want" columns. WHY NOT YOU?

WANTED—Man to run ripaw. Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Co. "The results form this 'ad,'" said Mr. Linn, "were also very satisfactory. About 80 people came out here to apply for the job. All of which satisfies me that the 'Want Ad' Columns of The Journal are valuable indeed."
