

PEABODIES MEET AT CHEVALIS

Twenty-Seventh Annual Teachers' Institute of Lewis County to Convene

MANY INSTRUCTORS TO LEND ASSISTANCE

Program of Five Days Sessions Arranged Covering Topics of Various Grades of School Work and Committee Named by Superintendent

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chehalis, Wash., Jan. 22.—County Superintendent R. E. Bennett has issued an attractive program for the twenty-seventh annual teachers' institute of Lewis county.

The institute will open February 19 continuing until February 23, inclusive. The Chehalis high school building has been secured for the purpose of the institute.

The list of instructors includes the following: Principal West, H. C. Johnson, superintendent, Olympia; Mrs. J. A. G. Johnson, superintendent, Chehalis; Mrs. A. J. G. Johnson, superintendent, Chehalis; Mrs. A. J. G. Johnson, superintendent, Chehalis.

Monday—9:30 a. m. opening prayer, Rev. A. B. Baker; 10:30 a. m. session on "Some Changes in Educational Ideas," H. C. Johnson.

Tuesday—Morning session, invocation, Rev. D. A. MacKenzie; 10:30 a. m. session on "The History of the Teacher and District," L. J. Johnson.

Wednesday—Morning session, invocation, Rev. W. J. Dickson; 10:30 a. m. session on "Reference Library for Teachers," L. J. Johnson.

Thursday—Morning session, invocation, Rev. W. J. Dickson; 10:30 a. m. session on "The History of the Teacher and District," L. J. Johnson.

Friday—Morning session, invocation, Rev. W. J. Dickson; 10:30 a. m. session on "The History of the Teacher and District," L. J. Johnson.

Memorial service for the late Queen Victoria, who died January 22, 1901, a memorial service for the late queen was held at the Progress museum today.

Dean Elliot conducted the service, in which the king and queen and other members of the royal family were under the direction of Sir Walter Parratt.

The musical parts of the ceremony were under the direction of Sir Walter Parratt and with the assistance of the choir and orchestra of St. George's chapel.

After the service the king and queen and most of the members of the royal family returned to the castle. The museum was open all afternoon to visitors who had been fortunate enough to obtain tickets of admission.

WESTERN CHURCHMEN MEET AT INDIANAPOLIS

(Journal Special Service.) Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—The intellect and the power of the Episcopal church in the middle west are concentrated in the annual conference of western bishops, which is in session here today.

The conference is an important conference of the bishops of the church in the fifth district, which comprises the states of Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and Indiana.

"What the Episcopal Church Stands For" is the general subject of discussion at the conference, which has to do with progressive work in this part of the continent.

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., Jan. 22.—Whitman college has received word that the University of Idaho will not send a representative to compete in the intercollegiate football game of the inland empire, which Washington State, Whitman, Idaho and University of Montana are members.

At the same time it was also learned that the contest could not be held at Missoula, as was expected, and that Montana will send no representative.

This means that the contest will be between Washington State college of Pullman and Whitman, and that it will be held in Walla Walla, inasmuch as it took place at Pullman last year.

Whitman will be represented by Calvin C. Thomason of the junior class, who won the local contest last December.

MARK TWAIN TO TALK ON SOUTHERN PROBLEMS

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Jan. 22.—Joseph S. Choate, Mark Twain, Robert C. Ogden and Booker T. Washington are to speak from the same platform in California. It had been thought that the speaker would be a most notable meeting for the discussion of southern problems.

The meeting has been arranged by the Armstrong association, which Choate will preside over. Mr. Clemens, whose early life was spent on the lower Mississippi, will speak as a southerner, and Booker Washington, principal of the Tuskegee institute, and Booker T. Washington, who has spent his industrial schools are going for the solution of the race problem.

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL PORTLAND, MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1929

Successor to Otero Takes Oath of Office as Executive of New Mexico

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

Grand Trunk Pacific Secures Large Area Under Premier McBride's Government of Small Cost and Opposition Attack Proceedings

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—One of the most interesting features of the present sitting of the legislature promises to be the discussion of the details of the grant of land made by the government of Premier McBride to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Herbert J. Hagerman, the new governor of New Mexico, a native of Milwaukee, where he was born on December 11, 1871. His father, J. V. Hagerman, was at that time president of the Milwaukee Iron company.

Mr. Hagerman graduated from Cornell university and graduated in law from the University of Colorado in 1895. Two years later he went to Russia as second secretary to the United States embassy, being appointed by the late President McKinley.

He returned in 1901 and upon his departure from St. Petersburg he was decorated with the order of St. Anne by the emperor of Russia. Immediately upon his return Mr. Hagerman took up his residence in Denver, Colorado.

Retires from Navy After Forty-Five Years

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, D. C., Jan. 22.—Today, after a career of 45 years of faithful and efficient service, as an officer of the navy, Henry N. Manney, chief of the bureau of equipment, was placed on the retired list on account of having reached the age limit of 62 years.

Mr. Manney was born in Indiana January 21, 1844, and graduated from the Naval academy in 1866. He has seen service in many parts of the world.

Western Churchmen Meet at Indianapolis

(Journal Special Service.) Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—The intellect and the power of the Episcopal church in the middle west are concentrated in the annual conference of western bishops, which is in session here today.

Stakes Rich Ore in Mine Through an Accident

Visitor Picking With Candestick Discovers a Streak of Bonanza Sulfanite

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, Jan. 22.—A visitor picking with a candestick into what was supposed to be the foot wall of a drift shaft from the level of the Conestoga shaft of the Idaho Springs mine yesterday discovered a streak of sulfanite ore, assays of which made today show it to contain 121 ounces of gold and 58 ounces of silver a ton, or having a market value at the sample assay of $2,485 a ton or $123 a pound.

Stakes Rich Ore in Mine Through an Accident

Visitor Picking With Candestick Discovers a Streak of Bonanza Sulfanite

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, Jan. 22.—A visitor picking with a candestick into what was supposed to be the foot wall of a drift shaft from the level of the Conestoga shaft of the Idaho Springs mine yesterday discovered a streak of sulfanite ore, assays of which made today show it to contain 121 ounces of gold and 58 ounces of silver a ton, or having a market value at the sample assay of $2,485 a ton or $123 a pound.

Stakes Rich Ore in Mine Through an Accident

Visitor Picking With Candestick Discovers a Streak of Bonanza Sulfanite

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, Jan. 22.—A visitor picking with a candestick into what was supposed to be the foot wall of a drift shaft from the level of the Conestoga shaft of the Idaho Springs mine yesterday discovered a streak of sulfanite ore, assays of which made today show it to contain 121 ounces of gold and 58 ounces of silver a ton, or having a market value at the sample assay of $2,485 a ton or $123 a pound.

Stakes Rich Ore in Mine Through an Accident

Visitor Picking With Candestick Discovers a Streak of Bonanza Sulfanite

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, Jan. 22.—A visitor picking with a candestick into what was supposed to be the foot wall of a drift shaft from the level of the Conestoga shaft of the Idaho Springs mine yesterday discovered a streak of sulfanite ore, assays of which made today show it to contain 121 ounces of gold and 58 ounces of silver a ton, or having a market value at the sample assay of $2,485 a ton or $123 a pound.

Stakes Rich Ore in Mine Through an Accident

Visitor Picking With Candestick Discovers a Streak of Bonanza Sulfanite

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL PORTLAND, MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1929

Why should one reserve her frank words or some spontaneous expression of it for her personal friends or the people she believes to be socially important?

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

Grand Trunk Pacific Secures Large Area Under Premier McBride's Government of Small Cost and Opposition Attack Proceedings

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—One of the most interesting features of the present sitting of the legislature promises to be the discussion of the details of the grant of land made by the government of Premier McBride to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Why should one reserve her frank words or some spontaneous expression of it for her personal friends or the people she believes to be socially important?

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

Grand Trunk Pacific Secures Large Area Under Premier McBride's Government of Small Cost and Opposition Attack Proceedings

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—One of the most interesting features of the present sitting of the legislature promises to be the discussion of the details of the grant of land made by the government of Premier McBride to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Why should one reserve her frank words or some spontaneous expression of it for her personal friends or the people she believes to be socially important?

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

Grand Trunk Pacific Secures Large Area Under Premier McBride's Government of Small Cost and Opposition Attack Proceedings

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—One of the most interesting features of the present sitting of the legislature promises to be the discussion of the details of the grant of land made by the government of Premier McBride to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Why should one reserve her frank words or some spontaneous expression of it for her personal friends or the people she believes to be socially important?

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

Grand Trunk Pacific Secures Large Area Under Premier McBride's Government of Small Cost and Opposition Attack Proceedings

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—One of the most interesting features of the present sitting of the legislature promises to be the discussion of the details of the grant of land made by the government of Premier McBride to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Why should one reserve her frank words or some spontaneous expression of it for her personal friends or the people she believes to be socially important?

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

Grand Trunk Pacific Secures Large Area Under Premier McBride's Government of Small Cost and Opposition Attack Proceedings

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—One of the most interesting features of the present sitting of the legislature promises to be the discussion of the details of the grant of land made by the government of Premier McBride to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Why should one reserve her frank words or some spontaneous expression of it for her personal friends or the people she believes to be socially important?

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

Grand Trunk Pacific Secures Large Area Under Premier McBride's Government of Small Cost and Opposition Attack Proceedings

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Jan. 22.—One of the most interesting features of the present sitting of the legislature promises to be the discussion of the details of the grant of land made by the government of Premier McBride to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway.

Why should one reserve her frank words or some spontaneous expression of it for her personal friends or the people she believes to be socially important?

Other Applicants Were Refused Crown Grants

WHO SHE WAS

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM

And a True Story of How the Vegetable Compound Had Its Birth and How the "Panic of '73" Caused It to Be Offered for Public Sale in Drug Stores

This remarkable woman, who lived in the family home, was born in Lynn, Mass., February 6th, 1819, coming from a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her mother, Mary Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

Her father, John Pinkham, was a farmer and a good old Quaker family.

JANUARY SALE... We're more liberal than the big insurance company... Today we want to collar every man in town for 5 cents and to hit him in the neck with a scarf at 25¢ the half-dollar kind.

MARK TWAIN TO TALK ON SOUTHERN PROBLEMS... (Journal Special Service.) New York, Jan. 22.—Joseph S. Choate, Mark Twain, Robert C. Ogden and Booker T. Washington are to speak from the same platform in California.

HOW TO DRESS THE NECK... There is an infinite charm about a well-shaped neck and she is a wise woman who learns how to dress her throat not only for beauty, but for comfort and protection.

SHANAHAN'S THE GREEN DISCOUNT STORE... COATS For About Half... FURS... Ladies' Mittens... Ladies' Skirts