

HELP FOR MOTHER TO PAY SENATOR'S FUNERAL BILL

Philanthropic Women of Portland Plan to Establish Day Nursery for Young Children.

GREAT WORK DONE BY SUCH PLACES IN EAST

At Nominal Cost They Care for and Educate Children While Parents are in the Shop, Factory or Office.

Efforts are being made by the philanthropically inclined women of Portland to establish a day nursery which will be conducted along the lines of associations in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Boston, which have a central advisory body known as the Federation of Day Nurseries of the United States. Incidental to the local movement, which is largely in the hands of Miss Stansberry, head of the Frisco and Pioneer schools, will be the formation next Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in one of the Methodist churches by Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge. Stereotypical allies will be used by her, illustrating the work now being done in many nurseries in Greater New York.
