Madam Maye Says That in Spite of Newspapers Women Are Here to Buy.

GRATED POTATO HELPS RED NOSE WONDERFULLY

The Madame Gives Cheerful Advice to Those Who Aspire to Be Beautiful—Many Remedies for Many Ills—So Sales Are Brisk.

Polson for one is food for another. Madame Maye, who remained in town after the summary departure of Professor Cristan, A. M. D., dermatologist, to act as dispenser of the panacea for all ills, claims to have proved this to be a fact. She said that she had seen the newspapers have said so much just for spite," she said defiantly, "melting her dermatological skin into an unrefined emulsion and displaying two rows of teeth whitened with Dr. Cristan's French Dental Cream. "All their stories have been made up absolutely from whole cloth. They have stated that I had left town and that I was going to leave town, and claimed that the information came from me. I went back work that I was still here and had my expenses paid till Saturday night, but the doctor and his advisers are making trade for me I may have to remain another week to fill the demand for our wonderful remedies."

GRISHAM TO TELL WORLD OF HER RESOURCES

Enthusiastic League Meeting Decides on Vigorous Advertising Campaign.

Special Dispatch to The Journal. Greaham, Or., Feb. 7.—The Greaham Commercial and Development League held its first meeting last Monday night in its new home—the new council chambers. In the absence of President R. R. Carlson, Vice-President Dr. Faulkner stepped called the league to order. After the minutes were read it was decided to order 200 printed constitutions and by-laws of the league. A motion was then carried appointing and empowering a committee of three for the purpose of getting out folders containing the country's resources, composed of Dr. A. Thompson, D. M. Roberts and Theodore Bruegger.

BOX NOISANCE MAY BE SETTLED TONIGHT

Seems Probable That Council Will Pass One Prohibiting Apartments Generally.

Portland will have a new box ordinance tonight if the recommendations of the liquor license committee of the city council are adopted by the council. The ordinance which has been recommended is the original but ordinance in effect when the present administration took charge of city affairs, minus the clause exempting hotels. While it is thought by the supporters of the measure that it will be considered and passed, it will be considerable opposition and an attempt will be made to refer it to the committee. There is every indication, however, that the ordinance will pass, in which case it will be approved by the mayor.

PENDLETON COMMERCIAL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

W. Maloney.

YOUTH ACCIDENTALLY SHOOT HIS BROTHER

Special Dispatch to The Journal. Walls, Wash., Feb. 7.—While snapping an old 12-caliber revolver, Corbett Griggs, aged 15 years, accidentally shot his brother Eugene, aged 12 years, through the head this morning, inflicting a serious wound. The bullet struck the boy squarely on the end of the nose and lodged deep in his throat.

MARSHAL CLOSES ALL GAMBLING AT NOME

Nome, Alaska, Feb. 7.—The second indictment against Eugene H. Cannon, charged with killing his brother, was returned by the United States marshal today after all gambling houses in the town and all are closed. The output of Seward peninsula is estimated at $4,000,000.

PELL MASTERS WHAT TO DO

B. Lee Paget Introduces Resolution at Taylor Street Methodist Trustees' Meeting.

MAKES ACTIONS CONFORM TO ORTHODOX STANDARD

Resolution Considered a Bit Strong by Some of Councilman's Fellow Trustees and is Tabled—Creates Stir Among Laity.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Taylor Street Methodist church Monday night last resolution was presented by B. Lee Paget advising and directing Councilman W. Y. Masters, also a member of the church board, as to what they should pursue in regard to a motion for the issuance of a license to a woman to officiate as a minister of the gospel.

The exact details of the resolution of the board of trustees on the subject of the license of a woman to officiate as a minister of the gospel was not made public by Councilman Paget, but it is believed that it was a resolution to place the members of the board on record as advising and directing Councilman Masters as to what they should pursue in regard to a motion for the issuance of a license to a woman to officiate as a minister of the gospel.

From members of the board it was learned today that the resolution was considered rather too strong by the majority of those present at the meeting. Because of this fact the resolution was tabled and has not been disturbed since.

Apparently Mr. Paget's action created a considerable stir among the laity and every effort is being made to keep the matter quiet.

HOP SALES MADE IN GERVAIS DISTRICT

Special Dispatch to The Journal. Gervais, Or., Feb. 7.—There has been a little movement in the hop market here and the 1,000 bales being held have been slightly reduced. Sales of 150 bales were made Monday as follows: Edward Dupuis, 125 bales, choice, to McHenry Mitchell, at 16c; John Alderman, 25 bales, prime, at 16c; to Salem parties. They were delivered Monday and Tuesday.

WHOLESALE RETAILERS WILL DROP THEIR RETAIL STORES

The meeting of the Portland Retail Butchers' association last night the wholesalers made a proposition to drop selling direct to restaurants and hotels providing the retailers would refuse to buy from outside concerns. This was a direct cut at these meat dealers who are outside of the association and in reality boycott against the Gresham butchering firm.

MOTIVE ROBBERY, TO BLACKMAIL

Jen Yang Says Le Chung Demanded Money of Mah Shue, Then Shot Him.

CHINESE ARRESTED AS ACCESSORIES TO CRIME

Police Fear Outbreak in Chinatown and Attempt to Assassinate Quong Gee, Who Chased Slayed, is Expected.

Mah Shue, the Chinese murdered Monday night by Le Chung, or Look Fung Chung, did not forfeit his life because he resisted an attempt at blackmail, but because he refused to be robbed. Jen Yang, the woman who occupied the room with Chung when he was shot by the murderer, denied to the police that she has ever been on intimate terms with him.

"Le Chung entered the room and pointing a pistol at Mah Shue," asserted the woman, through an interpreter, "demanded his money. He refused to give up his money and he fired three shots at me. I tried to hold Chung and he stabbed me."

Quong Gee, who followed Chung after the commission of the murder, gave the police information yesterday which led to the arrest on warrants last night of Tin Duck and Jo Goo, who are charged in a complaint filed in the police court with being accessories to the murder.

An attempt to assassinate Quong Gee was made today at the police court where he is in custody by the Patrolman Robert W. Thompson. Large revolvers were found on both prisoners, who are reputed to be highlanders. Quong Gee says that the prisoners agreed to prevent him from following Le Chung and one of them struck him in the stomach with his knee.

CHIEF AIDS OF DEATH IN REAPING HIS HARVEST

Pneumonia Killed More People During Past Year Than Consumption.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 7.—The state department health, in its annual bulletin of vital statistics, says that in the last year it reported 187,000 deaths, with the returns of 170 delayed. This means that the total for 1923 is a population of about the average of the last five years, against 18.3 in 1914, which was high. There was a daily average of 514 deaths, against 520 in 1914 and 500 in 1915.

PORTLAND CHINESE WILL GREAT COMMISSION

Imperial Representatives to Be Royally Entertained on Arrival in Seattle.

Seattle, Feb. 7.—Thirty prominent Chinese merchants of Portland will come to Seattle to greet the imperial commission from China that is being sent to investigate the economic conditions in the first two months of 1924.

TWICE MARRIED ASKS FOR MAIDEN NAME

Circuit Judges Fraser and Cleland say they never heard of a case like that of Katie McClear, who asks, in addition to divorce from C. F. McClear, to be reinstated with her maiden name—Katie E. Westrup. At the time of her first marriage to McClear she was the widow of Thomas Lapsley. There would be no question of her right to the name of Mrs. Thomas Lapsley, but the jurists shake their heads about jumping the gun.

HOW MUCH IS A PARODY ADVERTISEMENT WORTH?

Twenty-one volunteer probation officers of the juvenile court met in the chambers of Judge Arthur L. Fraser last night and discussed their work. In almost every case in which boys and girls had been given to the care of the officers good has resulted. In nearly every case the teachers of the children on probation report that the child in question is an excellent pupil.

Washington Bureau of The Journal. Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Does the constitution follow the flag or does it follow Miss Alice Roosevelt? Her wedding invitations bear the proud crest of the president of the United States. All Washington is talking about the gifts to Miss Roosevelt and the probable enormous cost to her, if she has to pay duty on the super presents from four quarters of the globe that are en route to the White House.

The question of the legality of the acceptance of wedding gifts by an American woman from foreign potatoes was raised by no less a person than former President Cleveland. About the time of the marriage of President Cleveland and Miss Frances Folsom the following statement was printed here and was evidently given out at the White House:

FULTON OPPOSED TO TIMBER ACT REPEAL

Washington Bureau of The Journal. Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Senator Fulton in the public lands committee today opposed the proposed repeal of the timber and stone act provided in the Houschaff bill and the substitute framed by the sub-committee and presented to the committee today for adoption and report. Fulton contended that the proposed repeal of the act was inadequate for the proper development of the timbered areas of Oregon and would stop the growth and retard business if adopted. Final action was deferred.

WEDS SHE LEGALLY ACCEPT GIFTS?

Does Constitution Follow the Flag or Does it Follow Miss Alice Roosevelt?

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND DECLINED ALL PRESENTS

Former Executive Refused Wedding Remembrances From All Foreign Potatoes, Holding That It Was Clearly Illegal.

Washington Bureau of The Journal. Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—Does the constitution follow the flag or does it follow Miss Alice Roosevelt? Her wedding invitations bear the proud crest of the president of the United States. All Washington is talking about the gifts to Miss Roosevelt and the probable enormous cost to her, if she has to pay duty on the super presents from four quarters of the globe that are en route to the White House.

The question of the legality of the acceptance of wedding gifts by an American woman from foreign potatoes was raised by no less a person than former President Cleveland. About the time of the marriage of President Cleveland and Miss Frances Folsom the following statement was printed here and was evidently given out at the White House:

"The president has cabled to the sultan of Turkey his declining of an offer of a wedding present to Mrs. Cleveland, which was made through Minister Cox, saying that, while he appreciated kindly the motives of the sultan, he felt the acceptance of the gift would be a violation of the constitution."

John Sherman, when secretary of state, declined to receive a gift from the khedive of Egypt, although he could have received it by the act of congress.

Treasury department officials insist there is nothing to prevent Miss Roosevelt receiving gifts from foreign princes. In fact she has done so within the last few months and paid duty on dutiable gifts. In official opinion, she was and is in an unofficial position. If that be so there is a distinction between the wife of the president and the wife of the president.
