CHAINED TO A CORPSE

Special Presentation of the Lynchings in Our Modern Life.

The Roman used to punish a murderer by chaining to his body the corpse of his victim. Whenever he went he dragged behind him the debris of his crimes, the stinky cadaver, revolting thing that was once a man.

Every day you see people dragging around with them the corpse of their sins. They can't get away from them.
And many of them have become so intimate with their corpses that they become corpses themselves. The misery of these poor unfortunates has become constitutional with them. It fits them like an old shoe. They have become accustomed to it.

And there are thousands of humans who are walking the earth today with corpses attached to them—dyspeptic stomachs they carry on their backs.
They have to eat along the best they can with the stomachs they have. And the owners of said dyspeptic stomachs are to be found in every walk of life, suffering from constipation, indigestion, flatulence, heartburn, etc.

They wear that forlorn appearance, their energy is at zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one, their faces are shrunk, their nerves are wilted and their shoulders sag. Are you one of the myriads who dandle and gratify their palates, at the sacrifice of their stomachs? Are you one of those who allow their stomachs to run riot, eating too much, drinking too much, eating at the wrong time, eating the half-cooked, the queer and the impossible?

Are you bloated after eating, and imagine that it is your food that fills you? Do you have nausea when you look upon this or that, rebel at one thing and be hungry for it, eat a whole lot of other things the matter with your stomach that you know about but nobody else does, and can't explain? If so, you have dyspepsia, real dyspepsia.
And the chances are you have had it a long time.

Your stomach is overworked, abused, fagged out. The gastric and digestive juices are weak, the muscles of the stomach are jaded, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it comes in and do the digesting, and let your stomach rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do that very thing. They contain a most powerful ingredient which helps the stomach in the process of digestion, cures heartburn, eructations, acidity or fermentation. They invigorate the stomach, increase the flow of gastric juices, and do two thirds of what the doctor wishes to do without them. That gives the stomach some rest, and a chance to get right again.

You will feel the change first in your mind and heart, and then over your entire body. You'll feel rosy and sweet.
That's the object. You can get these effective little tablets almost anywhere on earth for 50c a package.

BABY MAKES $7,000,000 IN LESS THAN SIX YEARS

Though a Royal Spender, Child's Fortune Increases by Leaps and Bounds.

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, Feb. 22.—John Nicholas Brown, on his sixth birthday yesterday, was the possessor of $21,000,000, $2-000,000 of which has been added to his fortune since he was three months old.

If John Nicholas Brown, who was left $4,000,000 by his father, John Nicholas Brown Sr., when he was three months old, continues to amass riches as he has in the last five years and nine months, when he is 21 he will rank with the richest men in the country.

He will be worth $50,000,000.

Baby Brown is a royal spender. He employs a small army of servants, maintains an establishment in Newport and another in New York, and so manages to get rid of $50,000 a year. Still the money keeps piling up, notwithstanding his lavish expenditures. His fortune is in gilt-edge securities.

Starting out on $4,000,000 at the age of three months, this baby at two years had $12,000. At the age of four the $4,000,000 had grown to $5,745,000, and on his sixth birthday yesterday he had $21,000,000.

WATER CLEARS UP $28,400 FROM TIP ON STOCKS

Holland House Employs Taxes Advantage of Advice by Patron to Reap Fortune.

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, Feb. 22.—Joseph Eisner, head waiter at the Holland House, today some time ago received a tip from a guest that resulted recently in his cleaning up over $28,000 on the stock market. A wealthy patron of the Holland house, who is in a position to figure out the possibilities of copper told Eisner to buy North Butte. This was in the days when the stock was not at all active and bringing only 15c.

Eisner was by the time a poor man, so he quickly placed an order for 400 shares. It was not long before the copper situation caused the stock to begin to move. By November the stock was at $70, and in the first of January, 1923, Butte closed Wednesday at $6, so Eisner is now just $28,400 ahead on his original investment.

HOWARD CATLIN IS DROWNED IN WILLAMETTE

Charles F. Belt Dies at His Dallas Home

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Salem, Or., Feb. 22.—Howard Catlin, aged 20 years, was drowned in the Willamette river here late yesterday afternoon. Catlin, who was a son of Russell Catlin, a prominent business man, and Fred Perkins, who had just arrived at his home from Annapolis, where he is a midshipman in the naval academy, had gone out on the river in a canoe. The craft was capsized by the high waters that have prevailed since the late heavy rains. Both were good swimmers, and although Perkins made a desperate effort to help his friend, the latter went to the bottom. Perkins managed to grasp a willow limb that extended over the water near the steep bank and was rescued in an almost fainting condition.
Catlin was prominent in athletics and a student at the high school.

Get What You Ask For!

There is a Reason—Why the Good People of America buy Cascarets as Fast as the Clock-Ticks.

It is not an Experiment, not an Accident or Incident, but a sound, Honest Business, based on Time-Tried-and-Tested Merit, never found wanting.

Cascarets are the safe-guard of Innocent Childhood against the Dreadful Death-dealing Dangers that threaten the Lives of the Little Ones.

a true, faithful, loyal servant of Mankind.
Over Five Millions of Dollars have been spent to make the merits of Cas-carets known, and every cent of it would be lost, did not sound merit claim and hold the constant, continued friendship, Patronage and Endorsement of well-wished people year after year.

There is also a Reason—Why there are Parasites who attach themselves to the Healthy Body of Cascarets's success—imitators, Counterfeiters, Substituters.

They are Trade Thieves who would rob Cascarets of the "Good Will" of the people; and sneak unearned profits, earned and paid for by Cascarets.
