

RACING GOSSIP OF THE BIG TRACKS

Bill Prohibiting Racing in New York is Being Fought by the Big Game.

DATES ARRANGED FOR THE ENTIRE SEASON

Metropolitan Handicap, Whitney Memorial, Belmont Stakes and Brooklyn Classic Will Be Run During Month of May.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, Feb. 27.—Of course the action of the New York legislature on the bill making betting on the race course a felony has been the absorbing subject among horsemen of all degrees during the past week, and while there may be little chance that the measure will become a law, there is sufficient force behind it to make it dangerous and to set the racing world hard at work. The framers of the law under which racing is carried on in New York builded better than they knew when they provided that a portion of the receipts of the racing associations should go to the farmers for fairs and the like. This amounts to such a big sum that the country members of the legislature will be slow to take any action likely to cut off this source of revenue. If this were not the case the anti-betting bill would be almost certain of passage. If there is not hard, intelligent work done it may as well be abandoned.

It is interesting in this connection to know that there is invested in racing in this state something like $12,000,000, and the annual profit of the race course owner is practically a million a year. This is something worth fighting for.

The Tennessee racing men have won their case in the courts and racing is assured in that state. The law prohibiting betting has been declared unconstitutional. In the event of the passage of the Cassidy bill here the New York courts might take the same view of it.

Another matter which has been of deep interest to eastern horsemen has been the monthly meeting of the American Derby Association. Pending a decision of the duly constituted authorities, it would not be proper to pass judgment, but it is probable that the "very existence of the turf depends upon the prompt punishment of fraud and double dealing. No man convicted of shady practices should be permitted to have anything further to do with horse racing."

Racing Dates.

Just four weeks from yesterday racing begins in the east. Bannings, as usual, opens the game, and there is every prospect of a most successful meeting there. As a matter of record, the following table showing the season's racing fixtures for the season after the opening at Bannings is interesting: Bannings.....March 26 to April 14 Nashville.....April 11 to 21 Pinebluff.....April 16 to 26 Aqueduct.....April 16 to 21 Lexington.....April 23 to May 3 Jamaica.....April 27 to May 9 Louisville.....May 3 to 29 Belmont Park.....May 10 to 19 Toronto.....May 19 to June 2 Gravesend.....May 21 to 26 Belmont Park.....May 28 to June 6 Latonia.....May 30 to July 4 Kenilworth.....June 4 to 19 Rockingham.....June 12 to 21 Brighton Beach.....July 11 to August 1 Providence.....July 21 to August 11 Saratoga.....August 8 to 21 Sheepshead Bay.....September 1 to 15 Gravesend.....September 17 to 25 Toronto.....September 22 to 29 Brighton Beach.....October 1 to 2 Belmont Park.....October 8 to 20 Jamaica.....October 22 to November 2 Aqueduct.....November 16 to December 1

American Derby Again.

It is probable that the Brooklyn Jockey club will next season revive the American Derby, which went out of existence when the Washington Park club at Chicago closed its gates, or institute a new event for 3-year-olds so much like the great Chicago race that it cannot fail to become as popular as the derby used to be.

The Metropolitan Jockey club has decided to revive the Montague stakes at Jamaica. Owing to the mildness of the winter there will be a greater number of horses of mature age fit to race next April than usual. The Montague is to be run during the coming season. At Gravesend track he has 32 horses, 22 of which are 3-year-olds, which were bought at the yearling sales last year for good prices.

All of these youngsters, with the exception of the Boltaire II, Georgiana colt, were bred at the Rancho del Paso and Alameda studs, belonging to James H. Haggin, and Bennington secured some of the best which were offered for sale. With few exceptions each one is related to horses which have won honors on the turf for the last few years, and owner and trainer are confident that they will prove a credit to their sires when they are sent to the post.

A splendidly bred lot of yearlings now at Julius Bauer's Kenmore farm at Lexington will be prepared this summer to carry the Bauer silks next year. They are described as the best looking lot in the blue grass region. There are six colts and two fillies in the collection, the produce of some of the most famous of American turf performers. Among the dams are Reina, the only mare to ever win the Brooklyn handicap. Hatasoo, winner of the Brighton Oaks; Disadvantage, which captured the White Plains handicap at Morris park, and Indian Fairy, of Matron and Gasselle stakes fame. The sires are Previous and Mesmerist.

Readers to Ride in South.

Jockey Arthur Redfern will leave shortly for a few weeks of riding at one of the southern winter tracks as a "warning up gallop" before the opening of the eastern racing season at Benning, which is now less than five weeks away. Just which of the various tracks he will begin to ride at has not been decided, but it will be either the Fair Grounds at New Orleans or Oaklawn at Hot Springs. Redfern has been offered inducements by William Shields to go to New Orleans.

The odds have been posted in the winter books on the Brooklyn handicap, which is to be run at the Brighton track, on May 10. Artful is 8 to 1. Burgomaster is 5 to 1 for the Brighton. Dr. Leggo opened at 30 to 1 in the latter, but his price was quickly cut to 15. Arch Shields' Go Between opened at 100 and was cut to 20. W. S. Williams' Phil Finch opened at 100 and was cut to 15.

DRIVER CLUB PROTESTS AGAINST STREETCARS

Resolutions Against Proposed Railway on White House Road Were Adopted Last Night.

At the monthly meeting of the Riverside Driving Club last evening a protest in the shape of resolutions was made against the proposed plan to allow a streetcar line to be built on the Riverside drive.

The members were all of one mind regarding the attitude of the club and the resolutions were unanimously adopted. They read:

"Whereas, It is rumored that an effort is being made, or will be made, to procure a franchise for a streetcar line on the White House road, or Riverside drive, and

"Whereas, This club has expended considerable sums in procuring the widening of said road, so as to make of it a fine driveway for pleasure driving, of which the people of this city of Portland may well be proud, and in securing the consent of property owners to the widening of the said road and in litigation commenced by those opposed to such widening and in each year expending from $1,200 to $1,500 to sprinkle said road, during the summer months, and is deeply interested for these reasons, as well as a matter of public convenience in having said road maintained as a fine boulevard free of cars, tracks or other obstructions; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we do most earnestly protest against the granting of any franchise for the use of said Riverside drive or any part thereof, for streetcar tracks or any other kind of car tracks or for the use of the same for the operation of streetcars or any kind of railroad cars thereon; and that the president and secretary of this club be and are hereby authorized and directed, for and on behalf of this club, to take all such steps as may be deemed necessary or expedient to prevent any such franchise from being granted."

The meeting was an enthusiastic one and the receiving of a number of new members in to the association prevented the great bulk of regular business from being transacted. The new members are:

George W. Kleiser, Frank Minto, W. R. Cody, E. M. Lazarus, C. X. Larrabee, Robert Smith, J. W. Wendle, H. C. Drennon, F. E. Vanderhoof, James Anderson, A. Drennon, E. H. Friedlander, Charles Dakyns, Malcolm Nicholson, J. H. Huddleston, J. Burnham, T. E. Nicholson, P. J. O'Donnell, R. O. Ralston, C. B. Stratton, H. S. Win- Sol Blumauer, R. Roderick Grant, R. M. Stevens, D. B. Mackie, D. C. Carriage Co., J. B. C. Lockwood, Charles Cleveland, A. A. Bailey and T. Barbeau Balte.

NAYLOR ARRIVES AND ISSUES CHALLENGE

Tommy Naylor of San Francisco arrived in Portland yesterday and is out with a challenge to any 116 to 120-pound man on the coast. Naylor is a clever young boxer and has made a fine showing in the ring in California. He is anxious to get a contest before the Vancouver Athletic club and says that he is willing to back himself with his own money.

FORMER PARTNER WANTS FIGHT

Cooley, O'Brien's Dismissed Sparring Man, Now Challenges Philadelphian.

CLAIMS HE CAN WHIP THE ASPIRING BOXER

Tired of Getting Banged in the Nose Several Times a Day, Jack's Partner Issues Sweeping Defi, Declaring That He Can Whip O'Brien.

(Journal Special Service.)

Chicago, Feb. 27.—"I can lick O'Brien any time if ever he gives me a chance at him in the ring," said Fred Cooley, former sparring partner of Jack O'Brien, who has been dismissed at Toledo for knocking O'Brien down Continence, he said.

"I got on to all the tricks O'Brien has and if I get a match with him he will find out he has not an old man to deal with like Fitzsimmons was. Jack is a wise boy, though, as can be seen by his wanting to take on Palmer, the third-rate English fighter, in preference to Hart, Ryan and a few others. Palmer and O'Brien wouldn't draw files in this country."

"I intend to do some fighting on my own hook and hope eventually to qualify for a match with O'Brien. I grew tired of being made to look foolish by O'Brien, who kept rapping me on the nose, which was very sore, and I warned him that I would fight back."

"O'Brien had told Cooley to wade in and wallop as hard as he liked, with the result that O'Brien was sent to the floor and Cooley lost a good position. The last knockdown was the third time the champion had been felled by Cooley, and the third time proved fatal to the ambitious sparring partner. It was only a few days ago that one of the knockdowns occurred, when O'Brien gave as an excuse the fact that he was watching one of the comedians on the stage and did not wish to be a ring partner. A hard right to the jaw did the trick this time and O'Brien was all but knocked out."

Cooley joined O'Brien at Cleveland six weeks ago and at the time signed a contract which called for 10 weeks with the champion. Fred received a check for his full 10 weeks' pay.

CONDITIONAL SELECTIONS FOR OLYMPIAN GAMES

Committee Meets and Picks Out Athletes Who Will Probably Represent America Abroad.

Athletes who are to represent this country at the Olympian games in Greece this spring were named last night at a meeting of the selection committee in New York City. The selections are all conditional, the final ones being left to James Sullivan, Julian Curtis and J. T. Kirby. The only Pacific coast athlete to be recognized was Bert Kerrigan of this city, who will represent America in the high jump. Kerrigan's selection has been assured for some time, as he is considered the crack man in his line in this country. The committee reported that it is still short nearly $7,000 of the fund necessary to send the American athletes to Athens. The conditional appointments are:

POLLACK IS VICTOR OVER BOWLER JENKINS

Pollack won six out of ten games and his match from Jenkins last evening. It was a very interesting match, both men putting up a good, steady game. Pollack's average for the ten games was 191 9-16; Jenkins' average was 183 4-10. The score:

Pollack—205, 204, 205, 180, 214, 178, 172, 147, 205; total, 1,319.

Jenkins—191, 175, 199, 153, 244, 187, 184, 148, 193 165; total, 1,334.

The Gold Bonds were there strong last night and took all three games from the Montavillas. Neuberger and Milner both hit an excellent game. Neuberger had very dangerous conditions; Milner had the highest single game, 236. The scores:

AN ASTONISHING BUT TRUE STORY OF ALASKA

Bertha Sherk's Terrible Experience With Consumption.

Took a Severe Cold and Neglected It.

Given Up by Seven Physicians as Incurable.

(Journal Special Service.)

I have been nearer death with consumption than any other living person in the world, and I want you to read this so you can understand it. I grew worse all the time and at the end of two years I had run into consumption. I coughed terribly, lost flesh, could not sleep and became so dreadfully weak that I had to take to bed. In the following eight months I gradually reached the last stages of Consumption. No less than seven physicians treated me and all gave me up saying I was incurable. I was absolutely helpless. The whole family wore themselves out caring for me. One day mother and sister came to my bedside and said I had but a day or two more to live. Tears rolled down their cheeks as they sobbed the news. The doctors and declared I was in the last stage and no human being could save me. Through the mercy of Providence, someone brought a bottle of medicine said to be a Consumption cure. No one imagined for an instant it was worth trying. But as a drowning man grasps at a straw, so I tried this medicine. I was better after taking two doses. Mother got more of the medicine and I took it every day.

Today I am as well as any reader of this paper, and the medicine that cured me is Dr. Acker's English Remedy for the Lungs. I declare before God and man that every word here printed is true. (Signed) Bertha Sherk.

We have many more just as strong testimonials as this that have come to us unolicited. Don't you think that is pretty good proof of our claim for Dr. Acker's English Remedy? It acts promptly and in a soothing manner on the diseased lungs, killing the poisonous elements (disease germs) and building up the entire system, preventing the return of the first cold, which, when neglected, always terminates in Pneumonia or Consumption. And right here we wish to inform you that Dr. Acker's English Remedy is not an alcoholic medicine and does not contain opium. It is safe and does not harm the stomach and your money will be refunded should it fail to do all we claim for it.

Be sure to ask for DR. ACKER'S ENGLISH REMEDY For the Lungs. All Druggists $50, 100, $150.

HOLLY BRANCH SANATORIUM

An Institution Established for the Treatment of Patients Suffering From Cancer, By the Use of Medical Application Without the Use of the Knife.

The Great Crimson Dragon, or Cancer Plague, is becoming more prevalent each year and is claiming its victims by the hundreds of thousands. Cancer has increased more than 147 per cent during the last 20 years, and every few years new claims have made a special study of this dreaded disease and its treatment. When this disease is not treated properly and taken early it is very fatal. When taken in time and treated after the latest and most scientific methods cancer can be successfully eradicated from the system. The proper and proper feeding is highly necessary for the successful treatment of cancer. The highest possible degree of nutrition and power of resistance must be attained before the application of cancer in order to successfully get rid of cancer. The patient must be kept cheerful and hopeful by pleasant surroundings, good nursing and proper medical care, and by the application of the cancer cure. An institution have established at home where people who are suffering from this dread disease can go and be treated by the latest and most approved method.

All cancer patients are treated with what is known as "Blood Medicine," an alternative and a tonic, in order to clear the system of all poisonous material, and to increase the resisting power of the body to its highest possible point.

External cancer, whether it is an open sore or a tumor, is treated by the application of the cancer cure. In a short time the application of the cancer cure can be removed in a mass with all its branches. The medicine has very little effect on the sound tissues. Then the cavity from which the cancer has been removed is treated in a manner that will assist nature in healing the wound in the shortest possible time. We remember that nature heals.

In each case during the healing process a certain electric radiation with high degree of temperature is applied to the parts affected, daily, to destroy diseased tissues and increase the blood supply of the region making the newly formed cells stronger and more able to resist the action of any poisons that may be lurking in the system. Diet, rest, hygiene and all that pertains to the patient's comfort and welfare are closely looked after. If there is such a thing as recovery the patient is given the very best opportunity for obtaining it under this form of treatment.

The management has procured a three-story brick building, containing 60 well-furnished rooms, nicely adapted for the care of patients, located on one of the principal car lines, about five minutes' ride from the business center of the city. In a comparative quiet place, which is desired by suffering patients. The view from the Sanatorium is fine, as a view of the city and surrounding country can be had, as well as the snow-capped mountains of the Willamette river, the evergreen hills forming a background for the city on the west. Railroad trains, streetcars going and coming in every direction, steamboats, ocean vessels, etc., so that no one need never be lonesome.

Patients can have a friend or relative come and stay with them if they so desire.

The price of treatment, board, room and nursing will be fixed according to the amount of time, material and attention required in each individual case. For further particulars or information write at once to the postoffice address (an illustrated pamphlet) The Holly Branch Sanatorium (city office), room 603 Dekum building, Portland, Oregon.

T. R. BLACKERBY OF SILVERTON IS DEAD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Silvertown, Or., Feb. 27.—T. R. Blackerby, a resident of Silvertown for nearly 60 years, passed away at his home in this city Sunday after a brief illness.

Mr. Blackerby had followed the plumbing and plumbing business in the city for 40 years, and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, where the funeral services were held this morning.

SALMON FISHERIES OF ALASKA

Increase Shown in Pack of Last Year but Decrease in Valuation.

FEWER CANNERIES BUT MORE SALTERIES OPENED

Total Value of the Product Over Six and a Half Millions—Gain is Equivalent to Forty-Six Thousand Cases.

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, Feb. 27.—An interesting report on the salmon fisheries of Alaska has just been issued by the department of commerce and labor. Howard M. Kutchnin, the agent who prepared the report, did some traveling according to his tell while on the assignment. Says he: "I left Washington May 28, and between that time and my return traveled 8,247 miles by sea and 7,822 by land, a total of 16,069 miles. The time spent aboard ship was 67 days. About 230 miles were covered in launch and small boat.

"Although the salmon pack at some fisheries outside of Alaska shows a falling off, the pack of the world for this year was nearly 1,500,000 cases greater than last. The total number of canneries in operation this year was 47, against 55 in 1924. There were 22 salteries, against 18 last season. The number of firms or individuals engaged in the business is 42, against 40 in 1924.

"The aggregate capital stock employed in the business is $11,271,150, a decrease in this item of $2,678,450 from the reported capitalization of last year. This reduction is largely accounted for by the withdrawal from the field of the Pacific Packing & Navigation company, which represented a capital of $3,900,000. The Northwestern Fisheries company, which succeeded to the ownership of the major part of its business, is capitalized at $1,000,000. The value of plants is placed at $5,728,974, being $168,874 less than last year, which is due to the fact that a number of canneries are idle and are not taken account of.

"The season's pack foots up 1,889,015 cases and 18,281 barrels, together with 7,565,000 pounds of dry-salted fish. In 1924 the aggregate was 1,953,744 cases and 15,407 barrels. Being reduced to cases, the figures are 3,059,119 for 1925 against 2,612,928 in 1924. While there is actually a loss of 44,781 cases of canned salmon, the total output for the year shows a gain of the equivalent of 46,191 cases, which is explained by the large increase of salted and dry-cured fish. The total value of the product amounts to $4,565,655 against $7,785,782 last year."

KING EDWARD IS FORCED TO GIVE UP SMOKING

Britain Worried About Health of Monarch—Looks as if He Had Internal Malady.

(Journal Special Service.) London, Feb. 27.—The condition of King Edward's health does not please his immediate entourage in Sandringham palace. His majesty bears every external evidence of ill health and it is plain to every eye that he is not strong.

When the king appeared at the opening of parliament the people were shocked at his majesty's appearance. His face was ashen and his voice husky with reading his speech. The speech was frequently punctuated with gasps of amazement as the king's internal malady. When his speech was finished he looked around for his cane, which was three feet away. He apparently hesitated to trust his legs to reach for the cane and the court chamberlain placed it in the king's hand. His majesty suffers keenly from his injured ankle and walks with a limp. If any man bears on his face signs of physical breakdown it is King Edward.

Since the king came to Sandringham to be examined by Sir Felix Simon, Dr. Treves and another physician, he has been compelled to give up smoking.

The relinquishment of his beloved cigars makes his majesty very irritable to his companions and the servants of the court.

His majesty's irritation is increased by the slightest suggestion of his not looking well. Like all members of the Guelph family he desires earnestly to learn the truth of his misfortune.
